LINCOLN UNIVERSITY:

Lincoln University really showed what it is really made of during the Annual Alumni Banquet held Saturday, May 1, 2004. More than 600 alumni turned out in black tie and gowns to celebrate our Sesquicentennial! Alumni giving topped more than $500,000. We also were awarded the Thurgood Marshall Award for alumni giving between HBCU's (Lincoln was first place in alumni giving). The evening was filled with elegance and grace. The university concert choir put on a performance soothing to the ears of all that heard those melodious voices sing under the direction of Dr. William Garcia. President Nelson delighted in awarding recognition to those alumni that have given to the university over the years. Lincoln is back and alive declared President Nelson!!! The momentum is now on and the ball is in our court as alumni to continue stepping up to the plate to give to our alma mater. We can only do it! More on commencement weekend soon.

Attorney Howard H. Brown '68 was elected to a four-year term to the university Board of Trustees as an alumni trustee – congratulations Howard.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES:

H. ALFRED FARRELL ALUMNI AWARD – The first Annual H. Alfred Farrell Alumni Award was presented to Dr. H. Alfred Farrell '34. The award will be given annually to an alumnus that best exemplifies the spirit of Lincoln University and the Alumni Association. The "Friends of Farrell" Committee is embarking on next year's presentation. The Committee is now soliciting donations – please support this tribute to Dr. Farrell who has dedicated over 50 years of his life to Lincoln University and the Alumni Association. Please send your donation to: FOF Alumni Award, c/o Bruce Benson 1032 Duncan Avenue, Yeadon, Pa 19050. Our sincere thanks and appreciation for your unselfish support.

Members, who contributed to the FOF fund last year, please consider donating $25.00 for this year's campaign. It has been suggested by Dr. Farrell that the FOF Award be awarded to Bennie Turner '74 posthumously. Please continue to support this worthwhile endeavor by sending your donations to the above address.

THANK YOU The officers and members of the Association wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the following Life Members of the Association who donated to the newsletter fund. This list is incomplete as donations are still coming in. Your generosity netted the Association $705.00.
