

6TH ANNUAL CHESTER COUNTY ECONOMIC OUTLOOK BREAKFAST

Hosted by Lincoln University

At: Wyncote Golf Club

50 Wyncote Drive, Oxford, PA

Tuesday, April 7, 2009, 7:30- 9:30 a.m.

Sponsored By: Fulton Bank

Chester County is one of the Pennsylvania's most vibrant communities. According to the 2004 Census Bureau statistical report, the County has a median household income of $72,288, median family income of $88,164 and a per capita income of $35,539. Chester County is one of the State's fastest growing counties with a reported 465,765 people in 2004, a 7.4% increase since the 2000 census report. The County has over 9,300 businesses with a labor force of almost 197,000. The Lincoln University Chester County Economic Outlook Breakfast will provide area business executives, government officials and community leaders with an overview of the latest information about economic trends, developments, demographics, unemployment rates and how consumer-spending habits will affect the local economy in 2009. Also, the event will spotlight the accomplishments of Lincoln University and its' economic impact on Chester County.
