Application For International Undergraduate Admission

Lincoln University of Pennsylvania

“A Legacy of Producing Leaders”

Dear Prospective International Student:

Interested in Lincoln University, Pennsylvania? Well, Lincoln University is very much interested in you and hopes you have the determination to succeed. Lincoln's mission always has been to provide education of the highest possible quality to students who have demonstrated promise, potential, and the desire to succeed.

Lincoln University offers an education that will prepare international students for success in a world of rapid scientific and technological changes. Lincoln ranks fifth in the nation among colleges and universities awarding baccalaureate degrees in the physical sciences to student of African descent. Regardless of your career goals, Lincoln University will prepare you to achieve them. The university's 3-2 and 3-3 cooperative programs, in conjunction with several area universities, ensure that you will be able to compete successfully in the international job market as well as in the United States.

Lincoln University also provides financial assistance to international students through a merit-based program. Students become eligible for the scholarship based on outstanding academic performance. Please note, however, the scholarship may not meet all costs to attend Lincoln University.

An application for Admission and other pertinent information are enclosed to assist your process to enroll at Lincoln University. If you desire further assistance, please contact our office at (484) 365-7786 to speak with one of the university's International Student Advisors.

Please accept this invitation to become a part of the Lincoln University of Pennsylvania family.

Sincerely,

Constance L. Lundy, Director
Office of International Programs and Services

About Lincoln

A Legacy of Producing Leaders

John Miller Dickey

Lincoln University of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was chartered in April 1854 as Ashmun Institute. As Horace Mann Bond, '23, the eighth president of Lincoln University, so eloquently cites in the opening chapter of his book, Education for Freedom, this was "the first institution found anywhere in the world to provide a higher education in the arts and sciences for male youth of African descent." The story of Lincoln University goes back to the early years of the 19th century and to the ancestors of its founder, John Miller Dickey, and his wife, Sarah Emlen Cresson. The Institute was renamed Lincoln University in 1866 after President Abraham Lincoln.

Lincoln is surrounded by the rolling farmlands and wooded hilltops of southern Chester County, Pennsylvania. Its campus is conveniently located on Baltimore Pike, about one mile off US Route 1 – 45 miles southwest of Philadelphia, 15 miles northwest of Newark, Delaware, 25 miles west of Wilmington, Delaware, and 55 miles north of Baltimore, Maryland.

Since its inception, Lincoln has attracted an interracial and international enrollment from the surrounding community, region, and around the world. The University admitted women students in 1952, and formally associated with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1972 as a state-related, coeducational university. Lincoln currently enrolls approximately 2,000 students.

Located in southern Chester County, Lincoln is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and offers academic programs in undergraduate study in the arts, sciences as well as graduate programs in human services, reading, education, mathematics, and administration. The University is proud of its faculty for the high quality of their teaching, research, and service, and of its alumni, among the most notable of whom are: Langston Hughes, '29, world-acclaimed poet; Thurgood Marshall, '30, first African-American Justice of the US Supreme Court; Hildrus A. Poindexter, '24, internationally known authority on tropical diseases; Roscoe Lee Browne, '46, author and widely acclaimed actor of stage and screen; Jacqueline Allen, '74, judge for the Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia; and Eric C. Webb, '91, author, poet and editor-in-chief of Souls of People.

Thurgood Marshall

Many of Lincoln's international graduates have gone on to become outstanding leaders in their countries, including Nnamdi Azikiwe, '30, Nigeria's first president; Kwame Nkrumah, '39, first president of Ghana; Rev. James Robinson, '35, founder of Crossroads Africa, which served as the model for the United States Peace Corps; Sibusiso Nkomo, Ph.D., '81, Executive Director, University of Pretoria; and Renosi Mokate, '81, South African Commissioner for Fiscal Affairs and Finance South Africa.

During the first one hundred years of its existence, Lincoln graduated approximately 20 percent of the Black physicians and more than 10 percent of the Black attorneys in the United States. Its alumni have headed over 35 colleges and universities and scores of prominent churches. At least 10 of its alumni have served as United States ambassadors or mission chiefs. Many are federal, state and municipal judges, and several have served as mayors or city managers.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the application fee for Lincoln University?

$20.00 – Undergraduate

2. When is your application deadline?

Lincoln has a rolling admissions policy, however, application deadlines for most international applicants are earlier than those for domestic applicants. This is to ensure adequate time for the issuance of visa documents. The priority date for international students is June 1st.

3. What are the main documents required for the application process?

$20.00 – application fee, two letters of recommendation, SAT and TOEFL scores, official high school transcripts, 150-200 word essay, (Essay Topic: What would you like to accomplish at Lincoln University and how does this relate to your future career goals?), Support Affidavit, and Application for I-20. These documents are especially important because they will result in a timely decision of your acceptance.

4. I am a transfer student, how many credits are transferable?

You must be in good standing at all previously attended institutions, have completed 12 or more semester hours, and have a minimum 2.0 GPA. As an international student you must be released through the SEVIS system from your previous school.

5. Who can write my two letters of recommendation?

Anyone other than a family member who can assess your academic potential.

6. If I do not meet the Academic requirements, should I still apply?

You are still encouraged to apply. An international advisor in the Office of International Programs and Services will give you information regarding your needs to become a student at Lincoln University.

7. What are the SAT/GPA and TOEFL requirements?

Average 870 SAT/2.8 GPA. If you are a citizen from a non-English speaking country you are required to take the TOEFL Exam. There are three Exams, Internet-Based TOEFL which scores between 0—120, Computer-Based TOEFL which scores 0—300, and the Paper-Based TOEFL which scores 310-677.

8. Where are you located and how do I get there?

Lincoln University is located in southern Chester County, 45 miles from Philadelphia, 25 miles from Wilmington, Delaware, two hours from New York City, 55 miles from Baltimore, Maryland and 100 miles from Washington, D.C.

9. If I fly to Lincoln University, how do I get to campus?

Although there is no public transportation directly to Lincoln, the Delaware Shuttle at 800-648-5466 will pick you up from BWI in Baltimore, Maryland or from Philadelphia International Airport, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

10. Are freshmen permitted to have a car on campus?

Freshmen are not permitted to a car on campus if they are living on campus. Possession of a car on campus may hinder a smooth transition and impact academic performance.

11. I was accepted, but cannot attend in the fall. What do I do?

International students are only admitted to the university in the fall semester. If you cannot attend you must send the Office of International Programs and Services a letter stating that you would like your admission deferred to the next fall.

Financing Your College Cost at Lincoln University

A United States education is very expensive. The estimated total cost for 2007-2008 nine-month academic year of study at Lincoln University is $20,246.00, which covers tuition, fees, room and board. A graduate education may be more expensive. There is very little financial assistance for International students to study here with the possible exception of citizens of Canada and Mexico. Most public and private sources are restricted to United States Citizens and permanent resident alien.

Before an I-20 can be issued to an admitted student, United States immigration law requires Lincoln University to verify that the student has sufficient funds to finance their studies, undergraduate Bachelor's first time college degree: 4 years; undergraduate Bachelor's Lower Level Transfer degree: 3-4 years; Undergraduate Bachelor's upper level transfer degree: 2 years.

You must submit the following information with your application:

1. Financial Statements
2. Bank Statement or official letter showing sponsor's funding, assistantship, scholarship and/or Fellowship award letter that supports your Affidavit of Support. This data must be dated within 6 months of the planned term of entry.
3. Confirmation of Financial Support (Promissory Note) from financial sponsor (s) that clearly states their intention to support you financially during your entire stay at Lincoln University. Student may have multiple sponsors but the total amount from all sources of funding must exactly match the total required to attend Lincoln University for "all" years of attendance.

Be sure to go over the necessary financing with your sponsor. He or she must realize tuition, fees, room and board are payable on a strict deadline. Your money not only must be here, but also must be cleared by the bank before classes start. Funds from overseas may take four (4) weeks or more to clear the bank and be usable, so you must plan ahead. A little planning now will save you much worry later.

You should bring bank drafts, traveler's checks and some cash for immediate personal expenses. Opening a bank account when you arrive will be a priority. Please note that you will be required to make FULL PAYMENT for tuition, fees, room and board NO LATER than the first day of registration to secure your classes.

Student and Exchange Visitor Program: SEVIS I-901 Fee

Instructions for completing form I-901

The SEVIS fee of $100.00 must be paid and fully processed before the applicant arrives at the consulate for the visa I interview. A receipt will be sent to you by mail to the address that you indicate with your payment. Further, for those that pay the SEVIS fee on-line, a payment confirmation can be printed out immediately after the payment is made, and used as a receipt until the mailed receipt is received. Please note that if you are subject to this fee and do not pay it, you will not be issued an F-1 visa for admission to the United States.

You must take the SEVIS fee payment receipt with you for the visa interview. Having a receipt for the SEVIS fee payment will facilitate the visa application process. However, if you are unable to print a receipt from an on-line payment and/or do not receive your mailed receipt in time for your visa interview you can still go to your interview as long as your fee has been processed by the Department of Homeland Security.

Please note that Lincoln University will not pay your I-901 fees. This is your responsibility.

For more detailed information on the fee payment process, go to the Student and Exchange Visitor Program's website at <http://www.ice.gov/sevis>.

Your application must be accepted by March 1st to be considered for the International Scholars Scholarship.*

AUTHORIZATION TO DISCLOSE INFORMATION

Office of International Programs and Services

Lincoln University of Pennsylvania

A frequent question that comes up is whether the FERPA privacy act applies to international students, and if so, under what circumstances can a school disclose "personally identifiable records" that FERPA protects from non-consensual release.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as amended 20 U.S.C. § 1232g; [34 C.F.R. Part 99], abbreviated as "FERPA," protects the privacy of all students studying at institutions to which funds have been made available under any program administered by the Department of Education, including funds provided to the school or agency by grant, agreement, or contract, and funds provided to students through Government student loan and grant programs. This protection extends to student records maintained by "educational agencies" that provide administrative control or direction of, or perform service functions for, covered public elementary or secondary schools or postsecondary institutions. 34 C.F.R. § [99.1]

The FERPA statute itself does not distinguish between students based on their immigration status. The basic protection of FERPA is that "personally identifiable information" from student "educational records" cannot be released to any third party without the consent of the student.

I authorize the Office of International Programs and Services to disclose information on my application status to the person(s) identified below for the purposes specified in each case. The Office of International Programs and Services WILL NOT disclose ANY information to anyone other than the student without this consent form being completed, this includes parent(s), grandparents, guidance counselors, agencies, etc.
