THE PROCESS

- Returning students who paid their room deposits by March 13, 2009, MUST participate in room selection during the week of March 23rd-27th.
- Students MUST check their Lincoln University e-mail accounts for room selection information.
- Students MUST pick up priority cards from their on-campus university issued mailbox.
- Students who have received their priority card MUST participate in the room selection process at the ASSIGNED TIME.
- Students wishing to room together MUST attend the process together. Roommates or suitemates should complete the process during the assigned time of the student with the lowest priority number.

Students who CHOOSE NOT to participate in the room selection process are NOT GUARANTEED a housing a assignment for the 2009-2010 academic year.

IMPORTANT INFO

- Come to room selection with several preferences in mind. Historically there has been strong competition for singles. We strongly suggest that you come prepared to select into a multiple-occupancy room.
- Groups of students are called in numerical order to proceed to a waiting area. In numerical order, individuals then choose a room in the assignment area.
- Once your number is called, you will have a two-minute window to choose your room.
- Your priority card will indicate if you are eligible to reside in Apartment Style Living (ASL). It will indicate ASL (Y or N). You must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5. In addition, you must have at least 15 credits and not be on disciplinary probation.
- The housing cost for Apartment Style Living is not covered by University and presidential scholarships.

F.A.Q.

What is a priority card?

Identifies your priority number for selecting a room for the 2009-2010 academic year. Completed credit hours determine the priority number of each student. Low priority numbers are given first preference over higher priority numbers. The Priority Cards also outline your assigned time to participate in the room selection process. Priority numbers are organized by classification.

What do I need to bring to room selection?

1. Lion Card
2. Priority Card
3. Roommate or suitemates

What if I miss my assigned time?

You will be unable to participate in the room selection process and will be assigned a room based on available spaces at the conclusion of the student process.

What if I want the same room but my roommate does not or is graduating?

If this situation occurs you must select a new room for the 2009-2010 academic year. YOU WILL NOT be allowed to participate in the return to same room process (R.T.S.R).

What happens if I pay my room deposit and decide not to participate in room selection?

You will be assigned a room by O.R.L. Your assigned room will be selected based upon spaces that are available after the room selection process.

Suppose I have a legitimate reason for not being able to participate in room selection?

Please print off and complete the proxy form provided on the O.R.L. website. This form must be given to a trusted Lincoln University student, who is willing to stand in proxy for you during the room selection process.
