Nursing Department – Adjunct Professor – Fall Semester

Qualifications:
- Master’s degree in nursing (Preferred). BSN in nursing with written plan to complete a master’s degree in nursing within five years or less of employment at Lincoln University.
- Two years of full-time professional nursing practice.
- One year of full-time clinical experience relevant to the area of responsibility.
- A minimum of 1-2 years of nursing faculty experience.
- Hold a current license in good standing to practice as a Registered Nurse in Pennsylvania, or be eligible for a Pennsylvania Registered Nurse license.
- Current CPR certification.
- Immunizations/Physical as required by Lincoln University and clinical agencies.
- Strong interpersonal skills. The ability to work effectively as a team member.
- Demonstrate excellent communication skills.
- PRIORITY SPECIALITY AREAS: Med/surg, critical care, maternity, women’s health, mental health, informatics, and pharmacology.

Up to 4 positions for the fall semester.

Responsibilities/Functions:
- To prepare and facilitate learning related to a specific content area.
- Consult with clinical agencies to organize orientation.
- Work with Nursing Department Coordinator and course faculty members to ensure the completion of all required student documentation for clinical sites.
- Assist with organizing student orientation at the clinical agency including any additional training that might be needed.
- Direct student learning experiences as appropriate for assigned area.
- Initiate incident reports related to students and alert course faculty in situations that could negatively impact students’ academic progress.
- Attend course related meetings.
- Conference with and counsel students as needed.
- Create and evaluate student assignments and provide constructive feedback.
- Complete student clinical evaluations weekly, midterm, and at the end of the semester.
- Participate in clinical site evaluation.
Physical Demands:
Moderate lifting up to 20 pounds as frequently as needed to move objects; dexterity to write and manipulate a computer keyboard and mouse; ability to hear and speak clearly; and body mobility to stoop, kneel, bend and reach.

Work Environment:
The employee is subject to inside environmental conditions: protection from weather conditions but not necessarily from temperature changes.