Qualifications:

- 60+ college credits, Associate’s degree, specialized training or certification in related area, or five or more years of related and commendable work experience.
- Outstanding analytical, technical, multi-tasking, time management, organization, and interpersonal skills.
- Exceptional ability to build and maintain effective working relationships.
- Exceptional data entry and processing skills.
- Proficiency in automated financial/records management and document processing systems, i.e. MS Office suite of Applications.
- Work well independently and in a team environment.
- Demonstrated ability to use good judgment, follow through on assigned tasks, and maintain confidentiality.
- Commitment to professional development.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

Within established department procedural guidelines, the incumbent performs advanced or complex administrative support functions to complete assigned duties and ensure compliance with University policies and external/governmental agency regulations. Essential job functions may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Plan and coordinate office workflow to meet departmental performance objects and ensure operational efficiency.
- Perform advanced data and document processing functions in automated systems.
- Prepare and distribute financial reports.
- Respond to walk-in, email, and telephone inquiries and resolve related issues.
- Access, retrieve, and store records according to established file systems.
- Perform general business and banking transactions, i.e. manage cash receipts, prepare bank deposits, purchase orders, account reconciliation, and accounts payable and receivable.
- Compile and analyze financial and/or statistical data.
- Prepare and distribute general correspondence and financial reports.
- Complete special or cyclical projects and additional tasks that reflect the nature of the actual work assignment.
Working conditions:

Work is primarily performed in a university campus environment and requires a flexible schedule including evening and weekend work. Travel for administrative work is expected as well as visits to satellite locations. The employee is subject to inside environmental conditions: protection from weather conditions but not necessarily from temperature changes.

Application Submission:

- Submit a letter if interest/cover letter.
- A detailed resume listing qualifications and experience.
- Names, addresses and telephone numbers of at least three professional references, one of which must be a recent supervisor.
