Dear Honor Students,

Congratulations on your outstanding achievements! While the unprecedented events that surround the COVID-19 pandemic have forced the University to make changes to its schedule of events, including the suspension of face-to-face classwork and the closure of the University through the end of the spring semester, we did not want to let the semester end without paying tribute to you, Lincoln University's gifted scholars, and those who have supported you through your academic journey thus far.

To our Honor Students, I want to say how proud we are of your achievements both in and out of the classroom. The accolades that are being bestowed upon you at this time are well deserved, and you, too, should be proud. I want to also thank the parents, family members, mentors, and friends who have supported you in many ways. We could not be successful at what we do without their sacrifices and determination to see you through.

Indeed, these are challenging times that have created obstacles and barriers to higher learning as we knew it. Our faculty, staff, and administration are committed to the delivery of coursework to each of our students that will enable each of you to continue to achieve and develop your skills at the level you have already demonstrated.

Again, on behalf of the faculty, staff, administration, and Board of Trustees of Lincoln University, congratulations! Your achievements are a testament to the significance of this historic institution of higher learning and will continue to help advance the Lincoln University legacy of excellence. We look forward to continuing to "Learn. Liberate. and Lead" well into the future.

Sincerely,

The background of the page is a photograph of a stone archway, likely part of a university building. On the left, a stone pillar features a small, ornate lamp. Below it, a plaque is visible with the text "FUNDAMENTAL ASSOCIATION". The archway itself is made of large, rough-hewn stones. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent blue filter.

Alma Mater

by A. Dennee Bibb, 1911

Dear Lincoln, Dear Lincoln,
To Thee we'll e'er be true.
The golden hours we spent beneath
The dear old Orange and Blue,
Will live for e'er in memory,
As guiding stars through life;
For thee, our Alma Mater dear,
We'll rise in our might.

For we love ev'ry inch of thy sacred soil,
Ev'ry tree on thy campus green;
And for thee with our might
We will ever toil

That thou mightiest be supreme.
We'll raise thy standard to the sky,
Midst glory and honor to fly.

And constant and true
We will live for thee anew,
Our dear old Orange and Blue.

Hail! Hail! Lincoln.
