Name: Christopher Choi

Position: Assistant Professor of Religion

Department of: History, Philosophy, of Religion

Bio:

Dr. Christopher Choi's research lies at the intersection of modern religious thought, philosophy of religion, and Black and African American Studies. His current book project explores how antiblackness, rooted in transatlantic slavery, shaped modern European social and political imaginaries. He is also interested in exploring theories of sociopolitical life and possibility beyond racialized state violence. When not researching or teaching, Dr. Choi enjoys spending time with his wife, two children, and two dogs.
