

Lincoln University Board of Trustees

Resolution

April 12, 2025

4 Credit Course Model

WHEREAS, The Lincoln University BOT voted on April 20, 2024 to allow the LU faculty to pilot the 4-credit model. During the 2024-2025 academic year, the Lincoln University faculty engaged in collaborative and comprehensive activities to revise courses and academic programs to establish the 4-credit course model for student entering the fall of 2024 (with a graduation requirement of 128 credits);

WHEREAS, The efforts of the faculty have been grounded in a commitment to uphold rigorous academic standards that align with proper record keeping, best practices, and accreditation requirements;

WHEREAS, With these efforts completed and protocols, The Educational Policies and Academic Affairs Committee approves the recommendation as voted by the Faculty, to implement and adopt a 4-credit curriculum (with a graduation requirement of 128 credits);

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees hereby approves the recommendation of the Educational Policies and Academic Affairs Committee to implement and adopt a 4-credit curriculum.
