

Assessment Day FAQ

1. What is the purpose?
  - a. To share assessment information and updates with the campus community
2. When is Assessment Day?
  - a. Generally held after spring grades are due and before graduation.
3. Who should attend?
  - a. All faculty and all unit assessors are encouraged to attend.
  - b. Other members of the campus community are welcome to attend to increase their understanding and knowledge of assessment and the assessment processes at Lincoln.
4. Who is a “unit assessor”?
  - a. Those persons identified by the unit/office that are responsible for submitting assessment plans and reports.
5. What is the agenda for Assessment Day 2021?
  - a. Welcome and Committee updates
  - b. Morning Workshop sessions
  - c. Inspirational Reflection
  - d. Afternoon Special Interest Sessions or Taskstream Q and A sessions
6. Which Workshops or Afternoon sessions should I attend?
  - a. You are invited to attend the workshops that makes the most sense to you
  - b. The workshops have been scheduled so that there is something for everyone
  - c. Suggestion to also explore outside your field to better understand assessment occurring at Lincoln University
7. How and when will I receive the Zoom links?
  - a. Zoom links will be sent to all who registered for Assessment Day
  - b. Zoom links will also be sent out via Daily Bulletin
8. Will I need to use different links for each component of the agenda?
  - a. Yes, all the zoom links will be provided to all who registered and all who received the Save the Date meeting invite
9. I have a conflict and/or cannot attend at the designated time.
  - a. Attend and join when you are available
  - b. A report will be compiled and shared with campus stakeholders
10. Other questions? Please contact the Office of Institutional Effectiveness, Research and Planning at oierp@lincoln.edu