The Lincoln University

Location

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY is situated amid beautiful and healthful surroundings among the hills and farmlands of Chester County, Pennsylvania, on the Baltimore Pike (U. S. and Penna. Route No. 1), the main highway between the North and the South. It is approximately fifty miles from both Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Recent movements of population have given to The Lincoln University a strategic position. It is midway between four of the largest centers of Negro population in the world: New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington; and is easily accessible from all of them.

It is the only Liberal Arts College and Theological Seminary established primarily for Negroes and located in the northeastern area of the U. S. In this area of over one million Negroes, fully one million are within one hundred miles of the doors of this University.

Purpose

Lincoln University was founded for the purpose of "giving the advantages of Christian education to Colored youth of the male sex." The educational purpose is three-fold:

First, it is to encourage and develop the intellectual powers of the student in such a manner as will help him acquire and use knowledge, in the broadest cultural sense.

Second, it is to give the student a command of such highly specialized training as will prepare him to enter upon graduate study for the major professions.

Third, it is to develop the student in character, self-reliance and genuine manhood, so that he may become a definite asset to his community, his race and his country.

History

- 1849: While ordaining a young white man, at New London, Pa., for missionary work in Africa, on May 8, the Rev. John Miller Dickey, D.D., Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Oxford, Pa., conceived the idea of a school for training young colored men to carry the light of the gospel to their own race.
- 1852: James Ralston Amos, a young colored man of Chester County, Pa., asked the help of Rev. John Miller Dickey to secure an education. Dr. Dickey's inability to find a school where the youth would be welcome furnished another argument for the establishment of a school for colored men. Meanwhile, Amos walked 28 miles once a week to recite, to Dr. Dickey, the lessons he had learned. He was to become one of the first three graduates of Ashmun Institute.
- 1853: In a sermon preached at Oxford, in August, Dr. Dickey said: "A race enlightened in the knowledge of God will eventually be free. Kindle the lamp of religious knowledge; it will surely light them to an elevated position among the people of the earth."
- The Presbyterian General Assembly approved the plan for the establishment of a school for the Christian training of colored youth, and the Presbytery of New Castle, meeting at Coatesville, Pa., on October 4, authorized the establishment under its supervision of "an institution to be called Ashmun Institute, for the scientific, classical, and theological education of colored youth of the male sex." The aim was to train colored ministers and teachers to work among their own race in this country and Africa.
- In this year Dr. Dickey purchased a farm of 30 acres near Hinsonville, Pa., later transferred to a committee, as the site of Ashmun Institute, named for the Liberian pioneer Jehudi Ashmun.
- 1854: The first charter was granted by the State of Pennsylvania under the title of Ashmun Institute, and was signed by Governor Bigler on April 29.
- 1856: Ashmun Institute, was dedicated and its principal, Rev. John P. Carter, D.D., was installed on December 31. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. Cortlandt van Rensselaer, D.D., on the theme, "God will be glorified in Africa."
- 1857: Ashmun Institute was opened on January 1 to four students—two in the preparatory school and two in the theological department. During the first few years most of the students were former slaves. At first Dr. Carter was President and faculty in one, continuing as such until 1861. The Institute comprised a small three-story building, including dormitory, chapel, recitation room and refectory in its narrow compass, and a single residence for the one instructor.

- 1859: The first three students completed their studies and went to Africa as missionaries of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church. They were Armisted Miller, James R. Amos, and Thomas H. Amos.
- 1860: The beginning of the Civil War found the school operating under great difficulties, financial and otherwise. When the institution faced complete collapse, Dr. Dickey, "the father of the enterprise, became also its saviour by placing a mortgage on his own home" to raise money to keep it going. Further, according to Dr. Dickey, "it was at different times threatened with destruction by raids from Maryland."
- 1864: The financial clouds began to lift as the war ended. Twenty-three students were enrolled and modest funds began to trickle in. The raising of money devolved almost wholly on Dr. Dickey. The institution had passed the period of experiment and entered into a broader usefulness.
- 1865: Rev. Isaac Norton Rendall, D.D., a graduate of Princeton College in the class of 1852 and of the Princeton Theological Seminary in the class of 1855, was called to the Presidency of Ashmun Institute, beginning a service which was to last 40 years as President, and seven more as President-emeritus, giving "all the rare and noble powers with which he was endowed in body, mind and spirit to the higher education of the young men of the Negro race." On the day after the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, Dr. Rendall was on the train en route to assume direction of the Institute. He succeeded Rev. John Wynn Martin, D.D., retired.
- 1866: In accordance with plans for the expansion of the Institute as outlined by the Trustees in a report to the Presbyterian General Assembly in 1865, the charter of Ashmun Institute was amended by the Legislature of Pennsylvania (approved by Governor Curtin on April 4), and the name was changed to "The Lincoln University"—the institution thus becoming the first to bear the name of Abraham Lincoln.
The first section of the Act changed the name of "Ashmun Institute," to "The Lincoln University" for these reasons stated in the report:

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY BULLETIN

"For satisfactory reasons, chiefly in honor of the illustrious patriot, statesman, and philanthropist, the loved and lamented Abraham Lincoln, who, when living, delighted to serve the long-oppressed and neglected people for whom this institution has been provided, and who, in dying, sealed his devotion to an emancipated race, it was considered an appropriate expression of gratitude that the enlarged plans and combined build-ings of this educational scheme should bear the worthy name of him who did so much to lift the crushing loads from the mind and the heart and the body and the manhood of the African. Hence, in view of the rapidly expanding work now before the institution, because of its hard-earned experience, its complex demands, and its ample powers to make pro- vision for the thorough education of the students in every de- partment of a classical, scientific, theological, and professional training, the Legislature of Pennsylvania has conferred upon it the title of 'The Lincoln University.'"

- 1871: On February 18 Governor Geary approved a supplement to the charter in which "all powers and authority in the affairs of The Lincoln University heretofore held by the Presbytery of New Castle, be and are hereby conferred upon the Board of Trustees of said Lincoln University."
- 1878: Rev. John Miller Dickey, D.D., died on March 20 . . . "So passed this noble man, this 'Prince in Israel,' from the scene of his earthly labors, for, verily, his works do follow him."
- 1904: Celebration of fiftieth anniversary with a large assembly of alumni and friends.
- 1906: Rev. John Ballard Rendall, D.D., nephew of Rev. Isaac Norton Rendall, was elected President of the University. He rounded out a "Rendall Administration" from 1865 to 1924; "60 years save one—which witnessed the growth of the institution from a primitive beginning to a full-grown college of recognized rank."
- 1910: President William Howard Taft spoke at the commencement on June 18, the first President of the United States to address the students of Lincoln University.
- 1912: Rev. Isaac Norton Rendall, D.D., President for forty years, died on October 15, in his 88th year, held in affectionate remembrance as "a man sent from God."
- 1917: Commencement omitted because of war conditions. Many Lincoln graduates were in military service.

- 1921: Alumni Arch, memorial to Lincoln men in the World War, dedicated with an address by President Warren G. Harding, the second President of the United States to deliver an address at The Lincoln University.
- 1924: Rev. John Ballard Rendall, D.D., President since 1906, died on September 3. His service, first as a teacher in the preparatory department, then as a professor in the college, next as Dean of the College, and finally as President of the University, covered more than half a century, a longer term than that of any other man in its history.
- 1927: Rev. William Hallock Johnson, D.D., inaugurated as President on October 20 after long service as professor and Dean.
- 1928: Survey of Negro colleges and universities issued by the United States Bureau of Education contains the following statement: "throughout its long history The Lincoln University has rendered an excellent service to society worthy in every respect of the support that has been accorded it. The institution for many years has been a strong factor in the development of leadership in the Negro race . . . The Survey Committee was impressed with the able manner in which the institution was being administered."
- 1929: The Lincoln University celebrated the 75th anniversary of its founding at commencement. President Herbert Hoover, in a message of congratulation, praised "its splendid services on behalf of the education and of the improvement of the conditions of the Negro, and of his relations with other races." The work of the University went forward rapidly under the administration of President Johnson with large additions to the endowment and the plant.
- 1936: President William Hallock Johnson retired from the presidency January 31, and was succeeded by the Vice President, Walter Livingston Wright, for many years professor of Mathematics.

DESCRIPTION

The University is under the control of an independent Board of Trustees, a self-perpetuating body consisting of twenty-eight members, both white and colored, arranged in eight classes of three each, who hold office for eight years, or until their successors are elected. Three members of the Board are elected by the Alumni, one each year for a term of three years. The Governor of the Commonwealth is ex officio a member of the Board.

The officers of the Board consist of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, elected annually. There are three stated meetings of the Board: on the first Wednesday in February, the day of the University Commencement, and the second Thursday of November.

The University owns endowment funds of more than one million dollars, buildings and grounds of an estimated value of $800,000. The grounds consist of 275 acres of land, of which part is farmed, part is woodlot, and part is campus.

Buildings

On the campus are the following buildings:

UNIVERSITY HALL, 1891, built by undesignated funds, a three-story brick building, containing seventeen large and well-lighted rooms, used for lecture and recitation purposes.

THE MARY DOD BROWN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1892, gift of the late Mrs. Susan Dod Brown, of Princeton, N. J., a Gothic structure of dark red brick with a square bell-tower, containing an audience room for 400 persons, and an adjacent hall for 200. A recent addition to the Chapel is a Hammond Electric Organ.

ASHMUN HALL AND LINCOLN HALL, dormitories, built by undesignated funds in 1856 and 1866, respectively.

CRESSON HALL, 1870, gift of the Freedmen's Bureau, through the interest of General O. O. Howard, then a Trustee of Lincoln University.

RENDALL HALL, a new dormitory opened for use in 1931, named in honor of two former presidents of the University, Isaac N. Rendall and his nephew, John B. Rendall, and built by funds provided by the General Education Board, the Julius Rosenwald Fund, Miss Carolina Hazard, Mr. Pierre S. duPont, Mr. J. Frederic Talcott, and other generous friends, containing in addition to dormitory rooms with all modern conveniences, a large reception room, a Y.M.C.A. room with committee rooms, a barber shop, clothes pressing room, and trunk storage compartment.

HOUSTON HALL, 1881, gift of the late H. H. Houston of Philadelphia, a dormitory for theological students.

THE HARRIET WATSON JONES GUEST HOUSE, 1896, gift of the late J. M. C. Dickey, of Oxford, Pa., an attractive cottage for guests fitted up and furnished by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Alumni.

THE McCAULEY REFECTORY, 1904, the gift of the late Dr. Thomas McCauley and Mrs. Mary D. McCauley, a three-story brick building used as the University dining hall, and residence of the dietitian.

THE VAIL MEMORIAL LIBRARY, 1899, given by William H. Vail, M.D., of Newark, N. J., comprising a stack room, reading rooms, and librarian's room.

THE SCIENCE HALL, erected in 1925, with funds contributed by the Alumni and other friends, aided by the General Education Board and Mr. Pierre S. duPont. The building contains lecture rooms and laboratories for the departments of physics, biology, and chemistry.

THE FELLOWSHIP LODGE was built in 1941 out of funds furnished largely through the student Y.M.C.A. It provides a meeting place for student gatherings, and is used frequently throughout the year by a variety of groups. Through its use the religious, social, and recreational aspects of student life are promoted.

THE CENTRAL HEATING PLANT, renovated in 1931, at an expense of $75,000, contributed by the General Education Board, Mr. Pierre S. duPont, Mr. Lamnot duPont, and Mr. John H. Ware, Jr.

THE GYMNASIUM, 1935, built with funds contributed by Miss Susan Gorgas, members of the Alumni, and the General Education Board.

THE DISPOSAL PLANT, 1936, a new modern sewer system and sewage treatment plant, constructed with funds given by the General Education Board.

Sixteen dwelling houses are used as residences for professors and other members of the University staff.

NEEDS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Sources of Current Income. The University is maintained by income from endowment, by annual grant from the State of Pennsylvania, by student fees, and by contributions from friends interested in keeping up and extending the work of the University.

Endowment. There is great need for further endowment both in smaller and larger amounts.

Twenty-five hundred dollars will endow a scholarship with the name of the donor perpetually attached. Larger sums will provide for greatly needed additions to the teaching and library staff. These endowments are permanent memorials of the donors.

Alumni Loan Fund. The Alumni of the University have provided a revolving loan fund. Contributions will be welcomed and will be administered jointly by the Alumni or the other donors and the Administration of the University.

Buildings and Grounds. Small sums of money can be used about the buildings and grounds for improvements which may be permanent memorials of the donors. These include walks, drives, gateways, and the fitting up of rooms and buildings. There is great need for a social center.

The long range program for the upbuilding and rehabilitation of the University calls for one and a half million dollars.

The Recitation Hall erected in 1891, the Library in 1899, and the Dining Hall in 1904, were adequate for 200 students, but are inadequate for normal enrollment of the University.

The University should increase its capacity to accommodations for 500 students.

Student Aid. Money for scholarships is most urgently necessary. In order to avoid dismissing or turning away students, the University needs not less than $10,000 annually for scholarship aid.

Scholarship gifts of $50 will enable some men to continue their studies who otherwise would have to discontinue for lack of funds. A year's tuition is $120.

Board and room for a year are $230.

Four hundred dollars will meet the entire charges of a student for one year.

It is for this fund for student aid that the University especially appeals at this time to men and women of good will toward the Negro.

Annuities and Bequests. The Life Annuity Plan offers to donors an opportunity of making gifts to the University during their lifetime, without sacrificing any of their present income. A formal agreement is given to the donor, binding the Board to pay an annual sum in semi-annual remittances during life at rates varying from five to nine per cent, according to age at the time the Annuity Gift is made.

When it is intended to make bequests to The Lincoln University, care should be taken in the preparation of wills to use the exact corporate name as known and recognized in the courts of law, namely, "The Lincoln University," and to add its location, "Chester County, Pennsylvania."

Information

Information and literature concerning the University or its needs may be obtained from the President, Walter Livingston Wright, at Lincoln University, and from Mr. George Aubrey Hastings, 287 Fourth Ave., New York City, and Dr. Joseph W. Holley, 328 Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

The President of the University will be glad to discuss its possibilities and needs with any interested persons.

Religious Institutions and Opportunities

The "Ashmun Church" was established under the control of the local Presbytery of Chester as a church home for college students. While it is organized as a Presbyterian Church, members of all denominations are received, and letters of dismission to churches of other denominations are given when they leave the University.

The Young Men's Christian Association has an active organization in the University. It co-operates with the national, the state, and the southern branches of the Association, and promotes locally a program of religious and recreational work. There is also an Episcopal Club for members of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and a Newman Club for members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Chapel exercises are held every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday morning. Every Sunday morning a religious service is conducted in the University Chapel. On Wednesday evenings weekly prayer meetings are held. The Y. M. C. A. also conducts on Sunday evenings an open forum for discussion of current problems of religious and social interest.

Health Program

The conservation of health and the maintenance of sanitary conditions in the University are under the direct charge of the University Physician. His office is located on the campus and he is available at any time for those in need of his services. There is an infirmary on the campus where students suffering from minor ailments may be given special care. Cases requiring hospitalization are cared for either in the West Grove Hospital, six miles away, in the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, Mercy Hospital, or the Frederick Douglass Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa.

At matriculation each year every student is required to submit to a physical health examination as a part of satisfactory registration in the University, and to undergo treatment for any defective conditions thus discovered. The day or days set aside for these examinations will be made known after the beginning of the school year. Any student failing to present himself for the health examination on the day or days set aside will be fined a sum of three ($3.00) dollars. Any student failing to be examined by November First, or, any other limiting date designated by the Administration, will be subject to dismissal from the University.

A DENTAL OPERATORY is located on the campus for the detection and care of dental defects. General cleaning of teeth, extractions, and simple fillings will be taken care of without additional charge other than that listed under "Health Fees." Special dental care, as bridges, plates, and special fillings, will necessitate an additional charge.

The Health Fee, paid by every student, is distributed as follows:

$2.50 (per semester) covers initial health examination, ordinary medical attention, and simple prescriptions. Special medicines entailing additional expense are paid for by the student.

$1.50 (per semester) for hospitalization for a maximum of 10 days a school year. Costs of operations and special procedures are borne by the student.

$1.50 (per semester) for dental service.

Physical Welfare of Students

The Director of Athletics and his assistants promote the physical welfare of the students by directing gymnastic drills and intramural sports. The campus provides ample space for football, baseball, track and tennis. As far as possible the work is conducted in the open air. The gymnasium building provides space for basketball, handball, and physical training when outdoor work is not possible.

A machine for moving pictures and voice reproduction has been installed in the gymnasium. Films are shown once a week.

Fraternities

The following intercollegiate fraternities have branches at The Lincoln University: Alpha Phi Alpha, founded at Cornell University in 1906; Kappa Alpha Psi, founded at Indiana University in 1911; Omega Psi Phi, founded at Howard University in 1911; and Phi Beta Sigma, founded at Howard University in 1914.

Student Organizations

THE JOHN MILLER DICKEY SERVICE SOCIETY is composed of college students who plan to enter the ministry. It meets twice a month for the discussion of religious and social topics.

THE PHILOSOPHICAL CLUB meets monthly for discussions.

THE DELTA RHO FORENSIC SOCIETY is organized to promote the art of debate, oratory, and all forms of public speaking. The intercollegiate debates are controlled by this society.

THE VARSITY CLUB, composed of students who have won their "L" in any form of sport, fosters the morale that leads to sportsmanlike conduct on and off the athletic field.

CATALOGUE NUMBER

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY CHAPTER OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION for the ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE carries out in the University and the neighborhood the aims of this organization.

THE INTRAMURAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION endeavors to get every student into some form of athletic sport. It fosters class competition in football, basketball, track, baseball, tennis, boxing and wrestling.

The Alpha Chapter of THE BETA KAPPA CHI HONORARY SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY is composed of those students who have met the requirements of the Society by completing twenty-four semester hours in the biological and physical sciences with an average of "B" and a general subject average not lower than "C". The aims of the Society are to foster scholarship, sponsor programs of scientific interest, and to encourage intercollegiate relationship among students of science.

THE PHI LAMBDA SIGMA LITERARY SOCIETY, an honorary society, elects its members twice a year from those students who have completed at least fifteen semester hours in English with a rating of 1.80 or better.

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY MUSICAL CLUB, organized in 1925, is composed of Glee Club, Quartette, Orchestra, and String Ensemble. Membership is open to all who have the necessary training and interest. The aim of the club is to increase the appreciation of music and to develop musical talent among the student body.

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY PLAYERS grants membership to all who are interested in actual performance in the field of dramatics. The Players hold membership in the Negro Intercollegiate Dramatic Association.

The University Library

THE VAIL MEMORIAL LIBRARY is a porticoed brick building erected through the gift of William H. Vail, M.D., of Newark, N. J., who was for many years a member of the Board of Trustees. Volumes on the shelves approximate 38,000. For the purchase and binding of books and periodicals $2,500 is expended annually.

An African Art Collection of more than 500 items, given by Dr. Irvin W. Underhill as a memorial to Susan Reynolds Underhill, is on display. Through the tireless effort and devotion of the former Curator, Mrs. Mary Fleming Labaree, several suitable cases for protecting and exhibiting these unique objects have been secured.

A branch library in Houston Hall puts within easy reach of Seminary students both new and standard theological works, as well as the leading periodicals.

Through the bequest of Dr. Samuel Dickey, in his lifetime a trustee, a venerated teacher of classical and New Testament Greek, and a generous and discerning friend of the Library, Vail Memorial in the summer of 1944 received an important collection of about 600 volumes largely on the New Testament. In the same summer the Library was further enriched by the addition of several hundred volumes from the estate of a scholar who had once served as its librarian and as Professor of Church History and Homiletics, Dr. James Carter.

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY BULLETIN

The University Bookstore

The University maintains a bookstore situated in the University Office building. Necessary textbooks are sold at this store at the lowest possible prices.

Accommodations for Visitors

Guests are welcome at the University. Meals may be obtained at the Refectory or Coffee Shop, and overnight lodging at the Guest House, at nominal cost. Persons desiring accommodations should contact the University in advance of their coming.

II The College

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

Rating of the College

THE College is approved by the College and University Council of the State of Pennsylvania, the American Medical Association, and since December 1, 1922, as a fully accredited four-year Senior college, by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Admission, Advanced Standing and Withdrawal*

Those who desire to enroll in the College Department should read carefully the information herein given concerning the scholastic requirements for admission and the general statement regarding fees and the regulations governing their payment. They should then write to the Registrar (address "Lincoln University, Pa.") for an application blank. This should be filled in and returned to the Registrar, who will then secure the previous scholastic record of the applicant and notify him as to his scholastic eligibility to enter. He must in addition give satisfactory evidence of his ability to defray the costs of his education before receiving a permit to matriculate on the day set for registration.

Candidates may be admitted either by certificate or by examination.

To be admitted by certificate the candidate must have completed a minimum of fifteen acceptable units in a secondary school accredited as a standard senior high school either by the state authorities or by the regional accrediting bodies. Schools not on these lists will be asked to submit the names of leading colleges which accept their students on certification. Acceptability may be tentatively determined on the facts furnished. In case any school recommends students whose records prove to be consistently below the standards, the certificates of that school will not be considered acceptable.

The fifteen units of secondary school credits offered for admission should be distributed as follows:

Subjects	Units
English	4
Mathematics: Elementary Algebra	1
Plane Geometry	1
Foreign Language, in one language	2
History or Civics	1
Elective subjects	6

15

* For veterans, see page 23.

It is recommended that the elective subjects include two of science, one of foreign language, one of mathematics, one of history and social science, and not more than one of the vocational subjects usually taught in secondary schools.

Candidates whose preparation does not precisely coincide with the foregoing outline may be admitted to the College, if, in the judgment of the Committee on Admissions, they are qualified to do satisfactory college work. If a candidate is deficient in mathematics he will be required to complete during his Freshman year certain collateral courses, to be credited only toward the removal of deficiencies.

To be admitted by examination the candidate must submit the results of the examinations taken under any recognized examining body: the New York Board of Regents, the College Entrance Examination Board, or the Local Examinations of the English Universities. The Lincoln University does not conduct entrance examinations.

All candidates must present satisfactory evidence as to moral character and promise of usefulness. Two persons connected with the school attended by the candidate should be asked to send letters of recommendation to the Registrar.

All candidates must also furnish proof from a reputable physician that their health is such as to enable them to pursue a college course without interruption. A physician's certificate showing vaccination within four years of entering college must also be submitted with the health report.

A student who has taken work at a college of recognized standing may be admitted with such advanced credits as his previous records may warrant. The applicant should request the institution last attended to send to the Registrar a transcript of his academic record. On the basis of this transcript a tentative estimate can be given the candidate as to the prescribed work he must do and the length of time it will take him to earn a degree. If admitted the student will remain unclassified for one semester. At the end of the semester he will be given a definite classification with a notification of the exact amount of residence work he must complete before recommendation for the degree.

No applicant may enter the Senior class as a candidate for a degree after October 1st in any year, and no student will be recommended for a degree who has resided less than two semesters at Lincoln University.

Candidates for advanced standing must also furnish the following certificates: (1) a certificate of honorable dismissal showing all bills paid at the institution previously attended, (2) a certificate of good moral character from an authorized representative of his college, (3) a certificate of sound health.

Students entering the College for the first time will be required to take a Psychological Test and such other Placement Tests as the Faculty may decide. These tests are not intended to determine the admission of the student, but to indicate the grade of work of which he is capable and the most efficient method of teaching him.

Before attending any University exercise each student must comply with the regulations in regard to registration and payment of fees. He must present himself in person at the University Office and there obtain an official matriculation card signed by the Business Manager and a card showing the courses he is permitted to take during the ensuing semester. Students already in the college must follow the same procedure on dates set for registration at the opening of each semester. Failure to comply with this procedure on the dates assigned will subject the student to an extra fee of $3.00 unless excused by the Dean of Men. Even if so excused he is held accountable for absences thus incurred.

Each person whose registration has been completed will be considered a student of the University during the period for which such registration is valid as indicated on the matriculation card.

An honorable discharge will always be granted to any student in good academic standing, not subject to discipline, provided all his financial obligations to the University have been met and his library card has been cleared. However, no student under the age of twenty-one years will be granted a discharge without the consent of his parents or guardian furnished in writing to the Dean. Students withdrawing are required to notify the University Office.

Admission of Veterans

Lincoln University proposes to extend every possible opportunity to veterans of the present World War who wish to matriculate in the College or the Seminary. We have arranged for:

1. Special guidance under the direction of the Dean of Men.
2. Placement tests to supplement or substitute for academic records which may be incomplete.
3. Credit for courses taken in the Armed Forces Institute provided they are of the calibre conducted in a properly accredited liberal arts college.
4. Flexibility in dates of admission to the College, provided such dates do not extend beyond a period of three weeks of the beginning of any semester.

5. Special coaching, whenever such work is deemed necessary. Veterans anticipating coming to this University should apply in the accepted manner.

Terms and Vacations

The University year includes thirty-six weeks of term time, divided into two semesters. There is a Thanksgiving recess of four days, a Christmas recess of two weeks, and an Easter recess of six days. Commencement Day is usually the first Tuesday in June.

2. COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

Courses numbered 100 are primarily for freshmen; those numbered 200 are primarily for sophomores. Similarly, those numbered 300 are intended for juniors; those numbered 400, for seniors. Although considerable privilege will be granted students in the upper college who wish courses in the 300 or the 400 groups, students may not elect courses above or below their college level without special permission. The curriculum is divided into the lower level (freshman and sophomore courses) and the upper level (junior and senior offerings).

Courses designated by one number are semester courses (odd numbers are employed for courses given in the first semester, and even numbers for courses given in the second semester). Year courses are designated by an odd number and an even number separated by a hyphen.

The offering of advanced courses is subject to modification because of war conditions.

The credit allowed for each course is indicated in semester hours.

Courses are distributed into five major divisions as follows:

- I. The Humanities.
- II. The Natural Sciences and Mathematics.
- III. The Social Sciences.
- IV. Philosophy, Psychology, and Religion.
- V. Physical Education and Hygiene.

I. THE HUMANITIES

The division of the Humanities comprises the courses in English, Ancient Languages, Modern Languages, Music and Art.

Professors: Hill, Miller;* Associate Professors: Dorsey,* Grubb, Kuehner; Assistant Professors: Reynolds,* Waring, Patrick, Turpin;* Instructor: A. Wilson

ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

101-102. Freshman English: Messrs. Hill, Grubb, Waring.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

A course consisting of a review of the principles of grammar, and a complete study of composition and rhetoric, together with collateral readings. It is required of all Freshmen.

201-202. English Literature: Mr. Hill.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

This course aims to survey the history of English literature from the earliest times through Milton (first semester) and from the Restoration to the close of the nineteenth century (second semester). Collateral readings and papers are required.

203-204. Advanced Composition.
(Given in 1943-44) Credit: Six hours

Planned primarily as a laboratory for students who are already well-grounded in the principles of composition and who may have under consideration special projects in creative writing; research in the technical aspects of the major literary forms is required.

301-302. American Literature: Mr. Hill.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

A survey course in the history of American literature. In the first semester the literature from the settlement of North America to 1870 is studied; in the second semester, the period from 1870 to the present is covered. Periodic papers are required. Open to Juniors and Seniors.

303. The Novel.
(Given in 1943-44) Credit: Six hours

The development of the novel in England and America is given complete study from Defoe to George Eliot (first semester), and from George Meredith to the present time (second semester). In the second semester Continental authors such as Flaubert, Zola, Mann, Lagerlof, and Hamsun are studied for comparison. Lectures on the history and technique, the reading of at least thirty novels, and the writing of periodic papers constitute the work of the course.

305. Nineteenth Century Prose: Mr. Hill.
(Given in 1943-44) Credit: Three hours

101-102. Latin A. Fundamentals: Mr. Waring.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

An introductory course covering the essentials of grammar. Given four hours a week, but carrying only three hours credit.

103-104. Latin B: Mr. Waring.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

Planned for students who have had two years of high school Latin, or who have completed Latin A.

201-202. Latin C. Horace, Livy and Martial: Mr. Waring.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

Planned for students who have completed three or four years of high school Latin or Latin B.

301-302. Latin D.
(Given in 1942-43) Credit: Six hours

One of the following courses will be given whenever there is a sufficient demand:

- a) Roman Satire.
- b) Tacitus and Suetonius.
- c) Cicero: Tusculan Disputations.
- d) Plautus and Terence.

FRENCH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

101-102. French A. Elementary French: Mr. Grubb.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

Drill on basic grammar. Reading in class.

201-202. French B. Intermediate French: Mr. Waring.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

301-302. French C.: Mr. Waring.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

Composition, dictation, extensive reading of advanced texts.

401-402. French D.: Mr. Kuehner.
Credit: Six hours

The following courses may be given as needed:

- a) Mediæval French Literature.
- b) The literature of the Renaissance.
- c) French classicism.
- d) Survey of 18th Century literature.
- e) French literature in the 19th Century.
- f) French poetry in the 19th Century.

GERMAN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

- 101-102. German A. Elementary German: Mr. Kuehner.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours
Grammar, easy reading, dictation.
- 201-202. German B. Intermediate German: Mr. Kuehner.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours
Reading of modern German texts, and grammar review.
- 301-302. German C. Advanced German: Mr. Kuehner.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours
Advanced grammar, dictation, and reading.

SPANISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

- 101-102. Spanish A. Elementary Spanish: Mr. Grubb.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours
Grammar, easy reading, dictation from Spanish records.
- 201-202. Spanish B. Intermediate Spanish: Mr. Grubb.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours
Further grammar and grammatical review; reading of such modern material as is found in El eco.

(Given each year) Credit: Six hours
Advanced grammar, dictation, and reading.

MUSIC AND FINE ARTS

The instruction offered in Music and Fine Art includes a course in Elementary Theory and Harmony given each year as a basic course. In addition thirty-four hours may be earned in this subject and six hours in the history of Fine Art. Opportunity is offered for practical work in choral singing and in instrumental playing.

- 101-102. Foundation of Music Appreciation: Mrs. Wilson.
(Given in 1944-45) Credit: Six hours

A rapid survey of the musical history of Western Civilization including a general introduction to the appreciation of the representative types of music of the different musical epochs.

Musical illustrations by phonograph, piano and voice.

- 103-104. Elementary Theory and Harmony: Mrs. Wilson.
(Given each year) Credit: Six hours

Instruction in the rudiments of music including a study of the system of notation. Elementary harmony includes ear training in connection with the study of scales, intervals, triads and seventh and ninth chords, and ends with the basic principles of modulation.

105. Group Music: Mrs. Wilson.
(Given in 1944-45) Credit: Three hours

This course will consist of laboratory work. Weekly assignments are given and are worked out practically on instruments, fundamentally the piano. The course aims at aiding students in establishing a basic foundation for the playing of musical instruments, the development of fluency and accuracy in execution.

201-202. Advanced Harmony: Mr. Dorsey.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Six hours

This course includes the study of all types of nonharmonic tones, chromatic harmony, remote modulation, figuration, and advanced ear training. The technique of song writing is given and original composition in binary and ternary forms is required. Analysis.

Prerequisite: Course 103-104.

203-204. Counterpoint.

Credit: Six hours

A study of the various species worked in two or more voices. Motive development, imitation, invention and chorale elaboration. Analysis.

Prerequisite: Course 103-104.

301-302. Composition.

Credit: Six hours

Counterpoint related to composition. Canon and fugue. Free composition in the various vocal and instrumental forms.

Prerequisite: Course 203-204.

401-402. Church Music: Mrs. Wilson.

(Given in 1943-44)

Credit: Four hours

A course planned to meet the musical needs of those preparing for church leadership.

ART*

101-102. History of Art.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Six hours

A general survey of the relations between the arts and the civilizations that created them; followed by a more detailed study of the American scene.

103-104. Freehand Drawing.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Six hours

301-302. Painting.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Six hours

An introduction to the technique of oil and water-colour painting. Prerequisite: 103-104.

II. THE NATURAL SCIENCES AND MATHEMATICS

The Division of Natural Sciences and Mathematics comprises the courses in Biology, Chemistry, Physics, and Mathematics.

The courses in the separate departments of the Division of the Natural Sciences and Mathematics are designed primarily to give professional training to men selecting a particular department for their major study and to furnish the more limited technical training required by students whose major study is in another department. In addition, men wishing to obtain a purely cultural survey of any of the Natural Sciences may, with the permission of the instructor, omit the laboratory work of the elementary courses in the field. Such men will be eligible for credit for the lecture work only and may not take advanced courses in the field without making up the elementary laboratory work. Furthermore, such a course taken without laboratory work is not acceptable for the fulfillment of the requirement for a course in Natural Science.

* Instruction in this department suspended for the duration of the war.

President Wright; Professors: Cole,* Grim, Haviland; Associate Professor: Williams; Assistant Professor: Gaskins

BIOLOGY

101-102. General Biology: Mr. Williams.

(Given each year)

Credit: Eight hours

A course in biology introducing the student to the structure, physiology and classification of life forms. Prerequisite to all the subsequent courses. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory.

201-202. Mammalian Anatomy and the Comparative Anatomy of Vertebrates: Mr. Williams.

(Given each year)

Credit: Eight hours

During the first semester this course studies the gross anatomy of mammals, using the cat as material for dissection. During the second semester the comparative anatomy of vertebrates is presented with special reference to the dogfish, perch, mud-puppy, turtle, bird, and man. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory.

203-204. Botany: Mr. Grim.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Six hours

A course devoted to the study of general structures and physiology of plant life, the fundamental histories of the plant groups, with the identification of local flora by the use of the key. Two hours lecture and one hour laboratory.

205. General Entomology: Mr. Williams.

(Given in 1943-44)

Credit: Four hours

A general study of the structure and biology of insects with a survey of their classification. The laboratory objectives are: the dissection of various systems, and the study of specific structural parts, with special attention to their comparative morphology. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory.

206. Economic Entomology: Mr. Williams.

(Given in 1943-44)

Credit: Four hours

A survey of the economic importance of insects with special emphasis upon their control. Special study is given to common insect pests. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory with field trips.

* On leave.

301. General Embryology: Mr. Grim.

(Given each year)

Credit: Four hours

A course in chordate embryology comparative in the study of blastulation, gastrulation and organogeny. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory.

The course in Embryology is followed during the second semester of alternate years by Courses 302 and 304.

302. General Bacteriology: Mr. Grim.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Four hours

A course devoted to the classification and physiology of typical micro-organisms important in disease, agriculture, and sanitation. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory.

303. Parasitology: Mr. Grim.

(Given in 1943-44)

Credit: Three hours

A course devoted to the consideration of mammalian parasites found in the protozoan, helminth and arthropod groups. Careful consideration is given to life history, control and treatment for the members of the above groups. Two hours lecture and one hour laboratory.

304. Genetics: Mr. Grim and Mr. Williams.

Credit: Four hours

A study of fundamental genetics that includes the mechanics and physiology of inheritance with simple problems in dominance, hybrid and sex ratios, back-crossing, linkage, and crossing over. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory.

305-306. Histology: Mr. Grim.

(Given each year)

Credit: Four hours

A course in normal mammalian histology. One hour lecture and one hour laboratory.

CHEMISTRY

The instruction in Chemistry includes eight hours in General Chemistry, the basic course, followed by forty-one hours of more advanced work. It is essential that a student planning to elect Chemistry as a major should consult the Department early in his college course for details of requirements.

101-102. General Chemistry: Mr. Gaskins.

(Given each year)

Credit: Eight hours

The course in General Chemistry aims to present the contributions of chemistry to modern civilization and to lay an adequate foundation for advanced work. The laboratory work in the second semester will be devoted largely to qualitative analysis. It is recommended that this course be preceded or accompanied by Mathematics 101-102. Three hours lecture and recitation and two hours laboratory.

CATALOGUE NUMBER

201-202. Analytical Chemistry: Mr. Haviland and Mr. Gaskins.
(Given each year) Credit: Eight hours

The earlier part of the first semester will be devoted to Qualitative Analysis; the remaining portion of the course to Quantitative Analysis. Simple substances will be analyzed by methods which illustrate typical gravimetric and volumetric procedures. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory. The work of the first semester may be counted as a half course by students not majoring in chemistry.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 101-102 and Mathematics 101-102.

203-204. Organic Chemistry: Mr. Gaskins.
(Given each year) Credit: Eight hours

The principal classes of aliphatic, aromatic and heterocyclic organic compounds are studied by means of lectures, recitations and laboratory work. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 101-102.

301-302. Elementary Physical Chemistry: Mr. Haviland and Mr. Gaskins.
(Given each year) Credit: Eight hours

The following topics are treated: Elementary properties of gases, liquids and solids; osmotic pressure and other properties of solutions; the phase rule; conductance, electromotive force; reaction velocity and catalysis. Three hours lecture and one hour laboratory.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 201-202.

303-304. Biochemistry Laboratory: Mr. Williams.
(Given in 1942-43) Credit: Eight hours

Organic chemistry, course 203-204, is prerequisite.

This course covers in a general manner the chemistry of fats, carbohydrates and proteins; the physiology of the digestive system and the fate of foods taken into the body are discussed. The properties of fats, carbohydrates and proteins, analysis of urine, blood and milk are dealt with in the laboratory. The class is limited to twelve students. Two hours lecture and four hours laboratory.

401-402. Advanced Physical Chemistry: Lectures: Mr. Haviland;
Laboratory: Mr. Gaskins.
(Given in 1942-43) Credit: Eight hours

The following topics are treated: The kinetic theory of gases, including the distribution laws of Maxwell and of Boltzmann; the first and the second laws of thermodynamics; chemical equilibrium, including electrolytic conductance and ionic equilibria; equilibrium between phases, including the phase rule and osmotic pressure; the thermodynamic properties of strong electrolytes, including the theory of Debye and Hückel; the rates of chemical reactions; and a brief introduction to the quantum theory. Text: T. J. Webb, Elementary Principles in Physical Chemistry. Three hours lecture and one hour laboratory.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 301-302 and Mathematics 201-202. Mathematics 301-302 is also recommended.

403-404. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry: Mr. Williams.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: One or more hours either semester

This course is open to a limited number of qualified students, who wish to further their training in laboratory technique and to improve their skill in practical chemistry. It includes theoretical discussions, and laboratory methods of preparing several inorganic salts, many of which are complex. Methods of test and analysis some of which are colorimetric are also considered.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 101-102 and 203-204.

PHYSICS AND ASTRONOMY

Physics 101-102 is the basic course. Students electing this course should have had, or also elect, Mathematics 101-102. Ordinarily not more than two advanced courses will be given in any one semester. Students planning to elect advanced courses should consult the instructor in advance.

101-102. General Physics: Mr. Grim.

(Given each year)

Credit: Eight hours

Elective for all classes. First semester, Mechanics and Heat. Second semester, Electricity, Sound, and Light. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory.

201. Light: Mr. Cole.

Credit: Four hours

Optical theory, geometrical optics, properties of waves, interference, diffraction, and polarization. Three hours lecture and one hour laboratory.

202. Sound: Mr. Cole.

Credit: Four hours

Nature of sound, physical basis of music and speech, interference, diffraction. Three hours lecture and one hour laboratory.

301-302. Electricity and Magnetism: Mr. Cole.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Eight hours

Gauss's theorem, potential, electric and magnetic fields, direct and alternating currents.

CATALOGUE NUMBER

303-304. Theoretical Mechanics: Mr. Cole.

Credit: Six hours

A problem course open to Juniors and Seniors who have a knowledge of differential and integral calculus. The topics studied include moments of inertia, central forces, friction, impact, and statics. Three hours lecture.

305. Elementary Astronomy: Mr. Cole.

Credit: Three hours

A course in descriptive astronomy, illustrated by lantern slides and by the use of the telescope for observation of the heavens. Three hours lecture.

306. Photography: Mr. Cole.

Credit: Three hours

An elementary course in the theory and practice of photography. Two hours lecture and one hour laboratory.

MATHEMATICS

The instruction offered in mathematics includes six hours of fundamental instruction followed by eighteen hours of more advanced work.

101-102. College Algebra; Trigonometry: President Wright and Mr. Haviland.

(Given each year)

Credit: Six hours

This course is prerequisite to the courses in Chemistry and Physics.

201-202. Plane Analytic Geometry; Elementary Calculus:

Mr. Haviland.

(Given each year)

Credit: Six hours

Open to students who have taken Course 101-102.

The first part of the course includes a study of the conic sections and of the rigid motions of the plane. The second part treats limits, continuity and the definition of the derivative for functions of one variable; the derivatives of the elementary functions; inverse functions; the mean value theorem of the differential calculus; indefinite integrals; and a brief introduction to definite integrals; with applications, especially to geometry.

301-302. Solid Analytic Geometry; Intermediate Calculus: Mr. Haviland.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Six hours

Open to students who have taken Course 201-202.

The first five weeks of the course are devoted to solid analytic geometry; the remainder to the calculus. The topics studied include systematic integration; multiple and iterated integrals; partial differentiation; implicit functions; Taylor's theorem for several variables; line and surface integrals and the theorems of Green and Stokes; and definite integrals containing a parameter.

303-304. Applied Mathematics: Mr. Haviland.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Six hours

Open to students who have taken Course 201-202.

A treatment of partial differentiation, elementary distribution functions, infinite integrals, line and surface integrals, and the theory of the Newtonian potential, with special reference to applications in Thermodynamics and Physical Chemistry. This course is given in years in which Course 301-302 is not offered.

401. Infinite Series and Differential Calculus: Mr. Haviland.

(Given in 1943-44)

Credit: Three hours

Open to students who have taken Course 201-202.

An introductory treatment of infinite series and products including Fourier's Series, followed by an introduction to ordinary and partial differential equations, with special emphasis on methods of solution.

402. Advanced Algebra: Mr. Haviland.

(Given in 1943-44)

Credit: Three hours

Open to students who have taken Course 201-202.

The topics studied include the Euclid Algorithm and its applications, theory of equations, the Fundamental Theorem of Algebra, and elements of the theory of matrices and of groups.

(Theoretical Mechanics. See Physics 303-304).

III. THE SOCIAL SCIENCES AND EDUCATION

The Division of the Social Sciences and Education includes the courses in Economics, Sociology, History, Political Science, and Education.

Professors: Foster, Furth,* Wilson; Associate Professor: Davis,*
Assistant Professors: Reynolds* and Holland*

ECONOMICS

201. Elementary Economics: Mr. Foster.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Three hours

The completion of the course is a prerequisite for all the following courses, except Economic History and Accounting. The course includes, during the first semester: essentials of capitalism, money and credit, production and prices; during the second semester: capital and labor, public finance, international economic relations, economic fluctuations and economic planning.

205. Introduction to Accounting: Mr. Furth.

Credit: Three hours

The course is not intended to train accountants, but to acquaint

* On leave.

CATALOGUE NUMBER

students of the social sciences with the basic problems of accounting theory and practice.

207. Introduction to Business Management: Mr. Furth.

Credit: Three hours

The course presents an elementary survey of the social functions of business, its organization and finance, personnel management, marketing and other basic problems.

208. Labor Economics: Mr. Foster.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Three hours

The course deals with the theory of labor relations as well as with the practical problems of wages and working conditions, unemployment, trade unionism, and labor legislation.

210. War Economics: Mr. Furth.

Credit: Three hours

The course surveys the problems created by the pre-war armament boom and the present war emergency, and analyzes the proposals dealing with the questions of post-war reconstruction.

303. Contemporary Economic Systems: Mr. Furth.

Credit: Three hours

The course includes the economic aspects of individualistic capitalism, socialism and communism, fascism and nazism, thereby supplementing the course in Comparative Government offered by the department of Political Science.

305. Government and Business: Mr. Furth.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Three hours

The course deals with the relations between the economic system and governmental activities in the U. S., especially with the regulation of public utilities and transportation, monopolies and competitive practices.

306. International Economic Relations: Mr. Furth.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Three hours

The course includes the theory and practice of foreign trade and foreign exchange, with special attention given to the problems of Pan-Americanism and to the relations between the U. S. and the British Commonwealth of Nations.

308. Public Finance: Mr. Furth.

Credit: Three hours

The course deals with the problems of government revenue, especially taxation, government spending, budgets and public debts, and shows the relations between fiscal measures and general economic policy. It is required of all students who wish to major in Economics, and is of interest to students of the other social sciences.

(Social Security Administration. See Political Science 401-402.)

(Problems in Economics, Sociology and Political Science. See General Social Science 402.)

GENERAL SOCIAL SCIENCE

202. Geography (World): Mr. Foster.

A brief study of the topography, hydrosphere of the major battle areas of the world, with special reference to geographic "life lines"; a brief review of the population characteristics of all of the belligerent nations, their natural resources, and their role in the war; also, basic factors in the organization of American armed forces.

401. International Politics: President Wright.

(Given in 1943-44)

Credit: Three hours

This course outlines the basic factors in world politics, and analyzes the factors leading from the first World War to the second, including the peace of Versailles, the League of Nations, disarmament, reparations, the peace of Europe, international economic problems, the great depression, and the collapse of collective security. It is especially concerned with analyzing the social dynamics of the Great Powers, Geopolitics of World War II, with the political and economic conduct of the war and with world reconstruction.

402. Problems in Economics, Sociology and Political Science: Mr. Davis and Mr. Furth.

Credit: Three hours

This is a seminar course jointly offered by the departments of Economics, Sociology and Political Science. The subject changes every year; in 1942-43, the social, economic and political aspects of international relations are treated. Admittance by special permission of the instructors.

SOCIOLOGY

201. Introduction to Sociology: Mr. Foster.

(Given each year)

Credit: Three hours

This course deals with the basic facts of social life: heredity and environment, imitation and inhibition, social groups and institutions, communities, social change and disorganization.

202. Race Relations: Mr. Foster.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Three hours

A study of the race problem in the world with special emphasis upon race relations in the United States. Outlines, collateral reading, discussions, and term papers constitute the method of instruction.

203. Anthropology: Mr. Foster.

(Given each year)

Credit: Three hours

A study of primitive society by means of a text-book, collateral reading, term papers, and artifacts.

205-206. Population Problems: Mr. Foster.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Six hours

An introduction to the basic factors underlying population problems throughout the world. Special emphasis is placed upon new world population problems. Although collateral reading and textbooks are employed, the major emphasis is placed upon discussions and term papers.

CATALOGUE NUMBER

208. Criminology: Mr. Foster.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Three hours

The course deals with the social aspects of crime and punishment, with special emphasis on the problems of crime prosecution. Prerequisite: Sociology 201.

210. Public Welfare Administration: Mr. Furth.

Credit: Three hours

The course deals with the problems of relief and public assistance to underprivileged groups, special attention being given to the social consequences of economic depression and of war. Prerequisite: Sociology 201.

305-306. Case Techniques: Mr. Foster.

Credit: Six hours

A study of the use of case methods in social research, and social work illustrated by elemental practice in case methods. The method of instruction consists of the use of textbooks, analysis of representative case types, collateral reading, discussion, and practical applications.

403. Statistical Methods: Mr. Foster.

(Given in 1943-44)

Credit: Three hours

A general introduction to the instruments and techniques of research in education and the social sciences. The student is helped to develop skill in interpreting statistical data as they occur in education and the social sciences. The major emphasis is placed upon the development of skill in the use of the various statistical measures and their application.

405-406. Survey Techniques: Mr. Foster.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Six hours

A detailed study of the principles and methods of conducting surveys, an analysis of some representative surveys, and a few applications of survey principles.

HISTORY

101-102. European History: Mr. Kuehner.

(Given each year)

Credit: Six hours

The first semester covers the period, 1500-1815, the development of Europe from the Middle Ages to the Treaty of Vienna. The rise of commerce, culture, and nations is studied. The second semester covers the period from 1815 to the present, and considers the industrial revolution, the growth of nationalism and democracy, and the causes and effects of war during the last two centuries. Open to Freshmen.

104. History of the American People: Dr. Wright.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Three hours

A survey of American History. Text: Wirth and Forman's Our Republic.

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY BULLETIN

201-202. Ancient Civilization: Mr. Foster.

Credit: Six hours

203-204. Negro History and Civilization: Mr. Nkrumah.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Three hours

This course considers and evaluates the anthropological and ethnological background of the Negro and his position in ancient, mediæval, and modern times. Factual representations are presented of the record of the Negro in history. Lectures, class reports, and discussions are conducted.

301-302. Mediæval Civilization: Mr. Foster.

Credit: Six hours

303-304. History of the United States: Mr. Foster.

(Given each year)

Credit: Six hours

Open to Juniors and Seniors. During the first semester the period 1492-1852 is covered, and the following topics are considered: the origins of American history in the post-mediaeval expansion of Europe; the institutional, economic and social life of the colonies and its later development. During the second semester the period covered is 1852-1936. Intensive study is given to the conflicting interests of the North and the South.

307-308. History of the Near East: Mr. Reynolds.

The first semester covers the period from 622 to 1517 and the second semester from 1517 to the present.

401-402. Historical Methods: Mr. Foster.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Three hours

This course aims to introduce the student to the technique of historical research, the making of bibliographical guides, the schools of historical interpretation, with illustrative examples. Each student is assigned a problem in some aspect of historiography.

For other courses giving allied credits see:

(International Politics: See General Social Science 102.)

(Educational Sociology: See Education 307.)

(Social Psychology: See Psychology 302.)

POLITICAL SCIENCE

101. American (Popular) Government: Dr. Wright.

(Given each year)

Credit: Three hours

This is a general introductory course. Such subjects will be covered as types of governments; the origin of American government; the theory, constitutional history, organization and powers of the three branches of our government; a bare outline of the workings of national and state government and of political parties; and a brief description of the administrative side of government, especially with regard to latest trends. Text: Ogg and Ray, Essentials of American Government.

CATALOGUE NUMBER

102. Political Parties and Public Opinion: Mr. Davis.

Credit: Three hours

The topics studied will include electoral problems and techniques; the history, organization and function of political parties; an analysis of machines, pressure groups, etc.; problems of political behavior; and an analysis of public opinion including methods of measuring public opinion, its creation, its manipulation, its role in a democratic government, etc. Text: Brooks, Political Parties and Electoral Problems, or Sait, American Parties and Elections, or Odegard and Helms, American Politics. Prerequisite: Government 101.

(International Politics: See General Social Science 102.)

104. State Government: Mr. Davis.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Three hours

This course presents the history of State government in the United States, the constitutions and the functioning of the branches of state government as well as those of county and local government. Emphasis will be placed on recent state reorganization, on state administration and on state administrative relationships to local government. Inter-State and Federal-State relations will also be examined. Prerequisite: Government 101. Text: MacDonald, American State Government and Administration.

305. Comparative Government: Dr. Wright.

(Given in 1944-45)

Credit: Three hours

In this course the governmental structures and practices of the European democracies as well as the theory and methods of the contemporary dictatorships are examined. Prerequisite: Government 101.

203-204. The History of American Political Thought: Mr. Davis.

Credit: Six hours

This course is a survey of main currents in American thought, mainly political, from Governor Winthrop, John Cotton, and Roger Williams, to Franklin D. Roosevelt. Especially recommended for students of American Literature, History, Economic and Social Theory, and Philosophy. Text: Parrington, Main Currents in American Thought, Vols. I and II.

301. American Constitutional Law: Mr. Davis.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Three hours

This course deals with the interpretation of the Constitution by the Federal Courts. The case method will be used. Lectures will be concerned with the historical significance of the cases. Prerequisite: Government 101. Text: Cushman, Leading Constitutional Decisions.

302. Federalism: Mr. Davis.

(Given in 1942-43)

Credit: Three hours

This course deals with the problems of federal government in the United States. Topics covered will include the theory of federalism, interstate trade barriers, the position of the state in our system, States Rights, the role of associations, interstate cooperation, co-operative administration, Federal-city relations, recapture tax techniques, grant-in-aid techniques, the role of the courts in the federal sphere; State, interstate and Federal tax relations. Prerequisite: Government 101.

303-304. Public Administration: Mr. Davis.

Credit: Six hours

This course will place the emphasis on national administration. It will treat the relationships of administration to the legislature, the executive and the courts. Control and coordination within administration will be of main interest. Here the course will deal with the personnel and fiscal management, the structure and organization of the administration, the relationship of administration to groups, administrative regionalization, and Federal-State administrative relations. Text: White, Introduction to Public Administration. Prerequisite: Political Science 1. Of interest to all students of the social sciences.

401-402. Social Security Administration: Mr. Davis.

Credit: Six hours

This course will review the history, function, statutory structure, fiscal policy, benefit structures and governmental relationships of the social services of England, Germany and the United States, including unemployment insurance, relief, old age insurance, workmen's compensation, health and invalidity insurance, work projects, public health services, aid to the blind, indigent, dependent children, etc. On the administrative side much emphasis will be placed on the functional and coordinative aspects, but techniques of administrative management in the case of social security in the United States will be given close attention. Prerequisites: Economics 201-202, or Political Science 101, or Sociology 201. Open to Juniors and Seniors.

403. Administrative Law: Mr. Davis.

3. COURSES OF STUDY

THE GENERAL CLASSICAL OR CULTURAL COURSE

The general classical or cultural course may be followed by those who do not wish to submit themselves to a professionally controlled curriculum. It may be adapted without difficulty to majors in the non-professional or vocational field.

Freshman Year	Sophomore Year	Junior Year	Senior Year
English	English	English	English
Latin or (and)	Latin or (and)	Latin or (and)	Latin or (and)
Greek	Greek	Greek	Greek
Bible and Hygiene	Laboratory Science	Philosophy	Philosophy
Mathematics	Modern Language	Psychology	Sociology
Modern Language	One elective	One elective	One elective

This course as it stands represents a cultural emphasis on English and the Classics. It may be modified to emphasize other cultural subjects as follows:

1. Substitute another subject for English beginning with Junior Year.
2. Substitute another subject for either Latin or Greek, but not for both, beginning with the Junior Year.
3. The Modern Language laid down pre-supposes two years' work in one modern language in high school, and the consequent ability at the close of Sophomore Year to use that language as an instrument of information. If desired, another modern language may be begun in Sophomore Year and carried through to the end of Senior Year, or the same foreign language can be carried for four years.

Six rather than eight semester hours in Bible must be carried to fulfill the requirements for the degree, beginning 1942-1943.

The non-professional courses that may be substituted according to the major emphasis desired are: Economics, History, Mathematics, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Sociology.

The general course is the best preparation known for graduate study in preparation for teaching, business, and all the branches that have to deal with man's cultural life.

PREPARATION FOR PROFESSIONAL STUDY

I. Preparation for the Study of Medicine

The Council on Medical Education of the American Medical Association sets forth the following as minimum requirements for admission to a Class A medical school:

Required Subjects	Sem. Hours	Lincoln Univ. Courses:
Chemistry (a)	12	Chemistry ... 101-102, 203-204
Physics (b)	8	Physics
Biology (c)	8	Biology
English Comp. & Lit. (d) ..	6	English
Foreign Language (e) ...	6	French
Electives (f)	20	German

Subjects Recommended:

- Advanced Biology 201 through 302
- Psychology and Logic 101-102 and Logic 201-202
- Algebra and Trigonometry 201 through 302
- Additional Chemistry 201 through 204

Other Electives:

English (additional), Economics, History, Sociology, Political Science, Mathematics, Latin, Greek, Drawing.

(a) Chemistry. Twelve semester hours required, of which at least eight semester hours must be in general inorganic chemistry, including four semester hours of laboratory work, and four semester hours in organic chemistry, including two semester hours of laboratory work. The College of Medicine, Howard University, strongly advises a course in Quantitative Analysis (Lincoln University, Chemistry 201-202), and also a course in Physical Chemistry (Lincoln University, Chemistry 301-302).

(b) Physics. Eight semester hours required, of which at least two must be laboratory work. Lincoln University requires, what the Council on Medical Education urges, that this course be preceded by Mathematics 101-102, College Algebra and Trigonometry.

(c) Biology. Eight semester hours required, of which four must consist of laboratory work. The Howard University College of Medicine recommends that in addition the student elect Comparative Anatomy and General Embryology. Lincoln University, Biology 201-202 and 301-302, satisfy the recommendations.

(d) English. Composition and Literature. The usual introductory college course of six semester hours or its equivalent. The Howard University College of Medicine and the Meharry Medical College require eight semester hours.

(e) Foreign Language. A reading knowledge of one modern foreign language. This should be gained by a year's study in college if the student presents two years' for entrance. The courses taken in French or German should be adjusted to continue the language begun in high school at the level there completed. The Meharry Medical College requires at least eight semester hours in a modern foreign language.

Medical schools give preference to students who have completed the entire four years' course leading to the A.B. degree.

Taking these prescribed premedical requirements, together with the normal requirements of the College Department for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, the student who intends to enter medical school should adjust his schedule as follows:

Freshman Year	Sophomore Year	Junior Year	Senior Year
English	General Chemistry	Embryology and	Parasitology and
General Chemistry	or	Bacteriology	Genetics
or	General Biology	Organic Chemistry	Physical Chemistry
General Biology	Physics	and Quantitative	Three electives
Mathematics	Qualitative Anal-	Analysis
Bible and Hygiene	ysis or	Two electives
One elective	Anatomy
	French or German
	English Literature
	Two electives

CATALOGUE NUMBER

In choosing the electives keep in mind:
Some medical schools require 8 semester hours in English.
Some medical schools require one year in Latin.
Lincoln University requires six semester hours in Bible.
The medical schools strongly recommend as electives: History (take in Freshman year); Economics (take in Sophomore year); Psychology and Logic (take in Sophomore year); Sociology (take in Junior year).

II. Preparation for the Study of Law

The Association of American Law Schools, composed of the eighty leading law schools of the country, suggest that the principal aim of the college course should be to give the student a thorough mental training by means of such fundamental subjects as English, History, the Natural and Social Sciences and Foreign Languages.

The student who wishes to enter upon the study of law after completing his undergraduate course should include in his electives the following subjects: Argumentation and Debating, Economics, English, History, Philosophy, Logic, Political Science, Public Speaking, Sociology, and Latin.

Freshman Year	Sophomore Year	Junior Year and Senior Year
English	English Literature	Psychology
Ancient Language	History or Government	History
Modern Language	Economics	Political Science
History	Philosophy	Sociology
Mathematics	One elective	Logic
Bible and Hygiene		Ethics

In choosing the electives note: Lincoln University requires six semester hours in Bible, and a year of laboratory science before the end of the Sophomore year.

III. Preparation for the Study of Theology

The completion of a full college course and the acquirement of the corresponding degree is a pre-requisite of standard theological schools. For the student who desires to study theology, the following courses are suggested:

Freshman Year	Sophomore Year	Junior Year and Senior Year
English	English	Psychology
History	History or Religion	Greek
Modern Language	Modern Language	Ethics
Bible	Philosophy	Logic
Two Electives	One Elective	Speech
		Sociology

IV. Preparation for Teaching

The courses in education given in the college department are intended to qualify the student to receive the "Provisional College Certificate" issued by the Department of Public Instruction, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This certificate enables the holder to teach for three years in any public high school of the Commonwealth the subjects indicated on its face. The applicant must be a graduate of an approved college or university and must have successfully completed at least eighteen semester hours of work of college grade in education distributed as follows: Introduction to Teaching, 3 semester hours; Educational Psychology (General Psychology is a prerequisite), 3 semester hours. Practice Teaching in the Appropriate Field, 6 semester hours. Electives in Education, 6 semester hours selected from the following list: Secondary Education, Elementary Education, School Efficiency, Special Methods, School Hygiene, Educational Administration, Educational Measurements, Educational Sociology, Educational Systems, History of Education, Principles of Education, Educational Psychology, Technique of Teaching.

It is also possible for the student to qualify for high school teaching in other states by adapting his electives in education to include the subjects required. For details of these requirements consult the University Office where the requirements are kept on file.

V. Preparation for Social Work

GENERAL REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE COURSES OF STUDY

Election of Courses

Before making a final choice of courses, all students should consult the instructor in charge of their major study, and in case of any doubt, the instructors in charge of particular courses as well. Electives should be chosen in accord with the plan suggested by the major study and in keeping with the cultural interests of the student. Care must be exercised to avoid conflicts between mutually exclusive examination groups.

CATALOGUE NUMBER

Attention should also be given to the following regulations:

1. No credit will be given for any course unless it is properly scheduled in the office and recorded at the beginning of the semester.

2. If for any reason a student drops a course without obtaining the consent of the instructor and the Dean of the College, he will be marked 5f in that course.

3. A student may be dropped from a course at any time upon recommendation of the instructor and with the consent of the Dean of the College. The grade in such cases will be determined by the special nature of the case.

4. If a student is compelled to withdraw or drop courses because of illness or conditions beyond his control, he will be marked withdrawn.

5. A student may not absent himself from a term examination without a written permit from the Dean of Men. Upon presentation of such a permit a student is allowed to take the examination at a later date without fee. If he fails to take it then, he must either repeat the course or lose credit. A student who absents himself without procuring a permit, will be marked 5f.

6. No student may take less than four courses in any semester, nor more than five courses, without the consent of his adviser and the Dean of the College.

7. Changes may be made in the selection of electives up to and including the fourth calendar day after the beginning of the semester. Thereafter changes may be made only with the approval of the Dean of the College.

8. Students transferring to the College Department of Lincoln University will be held to the requirements for the degree. They will not be exempt from the major in which at least twelve hours must be taken at Lincoln University, nor from the laboratory science and its prerequisites or the requirement in foreign language. No exceptions will be granted to these regulations save by vote of the Faculty upon recommendation of the Committee on Admissions.

Classroom Attendance

Students are expected to attend every class exercise.

Students may be permitted, in any particular course, absences equal in number to the credits allowed for the course.

All cases of excessive absence, in classes, must be reported to the Dean of the College.

Any unexcused case of excessive absences may result in dropping the student from the course in which the absences occurred.

Excessive absences in more than one course may result in dismissal of the student from the college.

A fine of $5.00 will be imposed on any student who incurs an unexcused absence in the last session of any class prior to, or the first session of any class following, a school holiday.

Chapel Attendance

University assemblies are held Tuesday to Thursday, inclusive, from 10:00 to 10:30 a.m. The exercises are for the most part devotional in character. One meeting a week may be devoted to the discussion of University problems.

Every Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock a religious service is conducted in the University Chapel. The officiating ministers are members of the Faculty or guest speakers. Special music is furnished by the University choir.

Examinations

Two series of stated examinations are held each year, one, the mid-year examinations, in January, and the other, the final examinations, in May.

Special examinations are held as soon as possible after the beginning of each semester. They are open to students who have made 5c in any course during the previous semester, and to students who have received special permission from the Dean of Men. A fee of $1.00 must be paid before a student is permitted to take an examination for the removal of a grade of 5c.

All conditional failures must be removed within six months after the close of the semester, or credit will not be allowed for the course. Not more than one re-examination in a given course is allowed.

Grades, Credit, and Advancement

The student's performance in a course is rated according to the following grades: 1, excellent; 2, good; 3, fair or average; 4, poor; 5c, conditional failure; and 5f, complete failure. A conditional failure may be removed by passing a re-examination. A complete failure may be removed by repeating the course successfully. The mark Incomplete is given only when the student has obtained, in advance, permission of the instructor to postpone for a short time the submission of certain outstanding work which must be turned in before a specific grade can be reported. Under the regulations of the Faculty, outstanding work that is not completed within three weeks after the end of the semester automatically becomes a 5c.

It is suggested that the distribution of students according to groups should be as follows: Group 1, not more than 10 per cent of the class; Group 2, not more than 20 per cent; and Group 3, not more than 50 per cent.

The general group standing of a student and consequently his rank in his class, is determined by multiplying the numerical grade reported for each course by the number of hours per week the course is given, and then dividing the sum of the products by the sum of the multipliers. The quotient will indicate the general group of the student in question. The limit for the first general group is 1.30; for the second general group, 2.20; for the third general group, 3.20; and for the fourth general group, 4.20.

CATALOGUE NUMBER

When the semester closes the grades made are entered on the records, and will not be altered nor recomputed because of any work the student may complete subsequent to the semester in question.

The Freshmen and Sophomores constitute the lower classes; the Juniors and Seniors the upper. No Freshman will be advanced to the Sophomore class until he has passed his assigned work in physical education, and satisfied all entrance deficiencies. At the end of the Sophomore year the record of all students will be carefully examined, and only those who have a general average of group 3 and who show promise of future development will be advanced to the upper classes.

Classification of Students

Students are classified as follows:

Freshmen: those who have completed less than 9 courses or 27 semester hours.

Sophomores: those who have completed more than 9 courses or 27 semester hours, but less than 20 courses or 60 semester hours.

Juniors: those who have completed more than 20 courses or 60 semester hours, but less than 30 courses or 90 semester hours.

Seniors: those who have completed more than 30 courses or 90 semester hours.

Unclassified: students who have transferred from other colleges, but whose advanced credit has not yet been evaluated; and students who are pursuing studies at the University, but are not candidates for a degree.

Auditors: students who are allowed to attend the classes, but who are not permitted to take the examinations nor to receive credit.

Probation and Dismissal

It is not the policy of Lincoln university to co-operate with students after it has become evident that they are either unwilling or unable to maintain reasonable standards of work.

Students who fail as many as three courses in any semester with three different instructors are not allowed to continue. The failures leading to this dismissal must amount to 50 per cent of the student's total load.

If failures cumulate twenty semester hours the student is not allowed to continue.

Students who receive a grade of general group 4 in their courses at the close of any semester are placed on probation. If they do not show improvement during the following semester they may be required to withdraw from the University.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE AWARDING OF THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS

The courses required of all candidates for the degree are:

English	12 semester hours
English Bible	6 hours
Natural Science, Psychology, Mathematics, Logic: one of these	6 hours
Economics, History, Political Science, Sociology	6 hours
Hygiene	2 hours
Foreign Language	18 hours

(At least two years beyond the elementary year taken either in preparatory school or college.)

Physical Exercise

All other work is elective, but must include a major subject of 24 semester hours exclusive of the basic course. Department chairmen may at their discretion add or subtract 6 semester hours. Work taken during the Freshman year does not count toward the major.

Each candidate for graduation must complete not less than 124 semester hours, with a general group standing of not less than 3.20. The work is to be spread over a period of eight semesters, during each of which a minimum of 12 hours must be successfully completed.

Upon the satisfactory completion of these requirements, the student is recommended by the Faculty to the Trustees of Lincoln University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Diplomas are issued only at the June Commencement. A student may complete the requirements at the end of either semester.

The degree is conferred magna cum laude on all who complete the requirements with a grade of Group 1; cum laude on all in Group 2.

Part-time students are charged at the rate of $5.00 per semester hour. Regular students are charged the same rate for each semester hour in excess of eighteen.

A payment of seventy-five dollars must be made at opening of each semester. The remainder of the bill is payable upon presentation unless an arrangement has been made for installment payments. No student will be permitted to attend classes or engage in any University activity if agreed remittance is not received within a reasonable length of time from the agreed date of payment.

Registration must be completed within three days from the opening of each Semester, otherwise a late registration fee of $3.00 will be charged.

Students remaining at the University during the Christmas recess will be charged at the rate of 75c a day for the vacation period.

No rebate of fees or charges will be made to any student whose connection with the University is severed for reasons of discipline. No deductions in board will be made for absences of less than one week, and then only upon written notification to the Business Office. No claim may be made for time preceding such notification.

All remittances should be made payable to "The Lincoln University" and sent to the Business Manager. Postal money orders should be made payable at the Oxford, Pa., Post Office.

The University reserves the right to change the charges if necessary to meet the actual cost.

No student will be recommended to the Trustees for the degree until the charges agreed upon have been met, and his library card cleared.

If a resident student withdraws from the University, he is charged with the proportionate part of the semester board, tuition, and of all other fees to the date of final notice of withdrawal. No remission will be granted for room vacated, as the room cannot be filled again until the following semester.

If a day student withdraws during the first half of a semester, he is charged only one-half of the semester's tuition and fees. No allowance is made for a day student withdrawing during the last half of either semester.

No remission of fees or charges of any kind, except board, will be made for students who leave for disciplinary causes.

All students board in the University Dining Hall which is under the care of an experienced dietitian.

The College has three buildings used as dormitories, accommodating about three hundred students. Each room is provided with the essential articles of furniture, such as desk, chairs, table, bed, mattress and pillows. Each student must bring with him three pillow cases, four sheets for single beds, sufficient blankets and towels, all marked with the full name of the student. The buildings are heated from the central heating plant, are lighted by electricity, and have ample bath and toilet conveniences. Necessary repairs are made by the University, but all additional work is at the expense of those who occupy the rooms.

No changes in the electrical wiring of dormitory rooms may be made, and no additions to the electrical fixtures (such as electric irons, larger bulbs, etc.) may be installed or used except by permission of the Superintendent. Request for such permission must be made in writing, and if the permission is granted, the necessary electrical work must be done by an electrician designated by the University. Violation of this regulation will result in the confiscation of all such added fixtures.

The operation of radios in dormitory rooms is limited to those who obtain a permit from the Business Manager, and who agree to conform to the regulations governing their use.

Dormitory rooms must not be redecorated nor may any structural changes be made therein except by permission of the Superintendent.

All students who desire to reserve rooms for the succeeding University term must make a deposit of $15.00.

Incoming students desiring rooms may secure reservations by sending the $15.00 advance deposit to the Business Manager. All rooms are assigned subject to the regulations of the University as to student residences, and occupants are liable for any damage to the dormitory and its furnishings.

Officials of the University or their duly designated representatives have the right to inspect at any time, any of the rooms occupied by students.

For the convenience and protection of students while in residence the University Office maintains a student deposit account, where money for personal or incidental expenses may be deposited to be drawn upon as occasion requires. There is no charge for this service and every student is urged to avail himself of it in order to insure the safety of his funds.

Students are urged to place in the University safe all small articles of value that they may have on hand, for which a receipt will be given. The University will not be responsible for any loss by students who do not comply with this request. The University will endeavor to see that any articles left in the buildings when the student withdraws or is absent from the University are cared for and safely returned. However, it will not be responsible for such articles unless a receipt is obtained from the Superintendent of Properties for the articles placed in storage.

SELF-HELP AND SCHOLARSHIP AID

The Lincoln University does not undertake to guarantee employment to students, and does not encourage any to enter who are without adequate resources. The aim is to furnish a higher education at a minimum expense to all worthy students. There is a limited number of opportunities for students to assist themselves doing such work as waiting on the table in the University dining hall, assisting in the Library, and acting as janitors in the halls and dormitories or on the grounds. Further information concerning such employment may be had upon application to the Business Manager.

The College department has a scholarship fund of limited amount, the income from which is expended exclusively in partial payment of the tuition of needy and deserving students of good deportment and diligent application. It is not expected that those whose circumstances admit the full payment of bills will apply for assistance. The University desires to encourage those who are obliged to secure an education largely through their own efforts, and is ready at any time to co-operate with worthy men who are willing to do their part in industry, self-sacrifice, and frugality. All correspondence concerning scholarship aid should be directed to the Dean of the College.

Three scholarships in the College may be awarded annually by each member of the State Senate of Pennsylvania. These scholarships pay the annual tuition charge of $150, but do not provide for board and other expenses. All recipients of these scholarships must be residents of Pennsylvania and must have completed a minimum of fifteen acceptable units in an accredited senior high school, and must maintain in the College a satisfactory standard of conduct and scholarship.

Freshman Scholarships

Any student, who has reached his senior year in an approved high school, may take, under the supervision of his high school teachers, two standard tests which this University will supply.

Completed tests will be forwarded to Lincoln University for grading. These tests will be held during the month of March or of April.

Scholarships amounting to $200 will be awarded to students who rank in the first quartile of the contestants.

To that student who ranks highest, one full-expense scholarship may be given for one year.

For further information concerning this specific contest, write to the Dean of the College.

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY BULLETIN

Scholarships may be forfeited at any time during the course through negligence or misconduct. If a student fails in any semester to achieve a grade of general Group 3, any scholarship allowance for that semester is thereby forfeited, unless the Committee on Scholarship Aid shall order otherwise.

In the majority of cases the College expects work from scholarship students in an amount commensurate with the value of each scholarship.

Work Credit

Earnings of a student assigned work to help defray his expenses, are credited to his account monthly upon satisfactory completion of his assigned task. Work credit has no cash or refund value if not applied toward school expenses.

PRIZES

The following prizes are offered annually for proficiency in the work of the departments indicated:

English and Public Speaking

THE ELIZABETH H. TRAIN MEMORIAL PRIZES IN ORATORY, given in 1919 by the Rev. William P. Finney, D.D., in memory of Elizabeth H. Train, award fifteen dollars to the best speaker, and ten dollars to the next best in a public Sophomore oratorical contest.

THE THOMAS W. CONWAY AWARD IN ENGLISH given by Mrs. May C. Sutch in memory of her father, the Reverend Thomas W. Conway, who as State Superintendent of Education in Louisiana (1872) founded the first public schools for the education of Negro youth, awards a prize to that student in each graduating class who achieves excellence in English and best "exemplifies the Christian qualities of honor, gentleness, courtesy, and unselfishness."

THE CLASS OF 1900 PRIZE awards ten dollars to that student who in the judgment of the Faculty has acquitted himself most creditably in the intercollegiate debates.

THE KAPPA ALPHA PSI PRIZES IN ORATORY, given by Epsilon, the local chapter, award annually a silver loving cup to the best speaker, and a gold medal to the next best, in a Freshman oratorical contest.

The Delta Zeta Chi Debating Society awards each year keys to those who have proved themselves excellent debaters in the intercollegiate contests.

THE CHARLES GARNETT LEE MEMORIAL PRIZE IN ENGLISH, given by his mother and his brother in memory of Charles Garnett Lee of Baltimore, Maryland. This prize, fifteen dollars, is awarded annually to that member of the graduating class, who, in addition to maintaining a satisfactory record in his general scholarship, has achieved excellence in the English Studies or in Creative Writing.

THE JAMES WELDON JOHNSON AWARD FOR CREATIVE WRITING, offered by Mu Chapter of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity to that member of the Freshman class who shall submit the best piece of original writing in any of the recognized fields of literature. A second prize will be awarded if the quality of work justifies it.

THE STAR SOCIAL CLUB ASSISTANCE FUND COMMITTEE of West Chester, Pennsylvania, grants to Lincoln University the sum of $300.00 to be used over a period of three years. Grants from the fund are to be made to students whose need has been attested and who show "exceptional scholastic ability in their college work," and who participate "in a recognized extra curricular activity." The Star Social Club hopes to add an additional $100.00 to this fund regularly so that it may extend over a period of ten years.

THE WILLIAM S. QUINLAND, JR., MEMORIAL PRIZE IN BIOLOGY, given by William S. Quinland, M.D., Nashville, Tennessee, in memory of his son, William S. Quinland, Jr., awards ten dollars to that pre-medical student of the graduating class of 1944 who possesses initiative and marked proficiency in Biology, and who stands second in honors in this subject.

THE WILLIAM S. QUINLAND, JR., MEMORIAL PRIZE IN MUSIC, given by Mrs. Sadie W. Quinland, B.S., City School Teacher, Nashville, Tennessee, in memory of her son, William S. Quinland, Jr., class of 1944, awards ten dollars to that student in the graduating class with a general rating not less than Group 2, and who has distinguished himself in the playing of orchestral instruments, preferably the brasses.

THE STANFORD MEMORIAL PRIZE IN MATHEMATICS. Two prizes, totaling $25.00, are to be awarded to students standing first ($15) and second ($10) in advanced courses in Mathematics. These prizes are granted by Louvinia B., Paul A., and William A. Stanford in memory of their father Alexander P. Stanford, '94 and of Dr. J. Thomas Stanford, '91.

Social Science

THE ROBERT FLEMING LABAREE MEMORIAL PRIZE IN SOCIAL SCIENCE, amounting to fifteen dollars, is awarded annually to a student of social science, in the upper two classes, who is taking one or more courses in that department during the current year. The prize is granted on the basis of a scholarship not lower than general Group 2 for the year, and for the best dissertation of not more than three thousand words on an assigned theme.

Natural Science

THE BRADLEY PRIZE of a gold medal is awarded to that member of the Senior class who has maintained the highest average standing in selected branches of physical science.

THE S. LEROY MORRIS MEMORIAL PRIZE IN BIOLOGY, endowed in 1937 by Mrs. Amaza Morris Lockett, Atlantic City, N. J., in memory of her father, S. Leroy Morris, M.D., of the class of 1892, awards ten dollars to that member of the Senior class who has maintained the highest average standing in the courses in Biology.

Music

THE EDWARD S. SILVERA AND RICHARD HURST HILL MEMORIAL PRIZE. An award of ten dollars and a certificate are given by the Class of 1928 to the student who in addition to maintaining a good scholarship record has done most for the development of music on the campus.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC PRIZE of ten dollars is awarded annually to the Freshman student who shows the greatest promise of achieving musical prominence at the College.

Prizes for Scholarship Standing

THE THEODORE MILTON SELDEN MEMORIAL PRIZE, given by NU Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, of which he was a member, awards a gold medal to the Freshman making the highest scholastic average.

THE CLASS OF 1915 PRIZE, given by the members of that class, awards the interest on one hundred dollars, on the recommendation of the Faculty Committee on Athletics, to that student of the graduating class of the odd years, who has best combined athletic distinction and scholarship standing.

Madella, M.D., of the Class of 1876, the income from $400 to the graduating student that has made the most general progress and has demonstrated high character, conduct and scholarship during his career at the Lincoln University.

THE SAMUEL ROBINSON SCHOLARSHIPS. The income from a gift of Mr. Samuel Robinson is paid out annually as scholarships in sums from $50 to $100, or more, to needy and worthy students who have memorized and recited correctly from memory the answers to the 107 questions in the Westminster Shorter Catechism.

GENERAL REGULATIONS CONCERNING CONDUCT

THE STUDENT COUNCIL, organized March 28, 1916, is a Committee elected by the student body. It co-operates with the University Committee on Student Personnel in the handling of all matters except those which are purely academic or which affect those living arrangements of the student body which are under the control of the administration or the Faculty.

All students are required to conform to the following regulations:

I. General Conduct

1. The use, possession, or transportation of intoxicating liquors on the grounds or in the buildings of the University is prohibited.

2. As a safeguard against the hazard of fire, and in the interest of sanitary living conditions, all smoking within buildings is to be confined to the dormitories. This means that smoking is prohibited in the classrooms and the hallways of University Hall, the Science Hall, the Library, the Chapel, the Gymnasium, the Little Theatre, and the Music Studio.

3. The use or possession of firearms on University property is prohibited.

4. "Hazing"—The term as here used may be defined as follows: "To subject to cruel horseplay—To harass or punish by the imposition of excessively heavy or disagreeable tasks—To frighten, scold, beat, or to annoy by playing abusive tricks upon an individual."

Hazing is a detriment to the welfare of students; especially does it handicap new students in making satisfactory adjustments to College life; it is therefore prohibited.

II. Visitors

5. Individual students will be held responsible for the conduct of all visitors they may have in the dormitories.

If male visitors remain overnight, they must be reported beforehand or the following morning at the Office of the Dean of Men.

6. No women are admitted to the dormitories at any time without permission from the Office of the Dean of Men. If for any reason the Dean of Men is not available, this permission may be obtained at the Administration offices.

Women are not allowed in student rooms. On special occasions when one or more dormitories are definitely thrown open for their use, there will be regulations governing the individual occasion.

As a means of guaranteeing satisfactory housing and recreational facilities, all social events must be planned in collaboration with the Dean of Men.

Usually throughout the year, it is possible to secure accommodations for a limited number of overnight guests in the Guest House. Arrangements should be made in advance.

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY BULLETIN

The University reserves the right (under the By-laws of Lincoln University, ch. vi., Sect. 12, adopted by the Board of Trustees, June 1, 1909) to dismiss or suspend at any time students whose conduct or academic standing it regards as undesirable, even though no charges be brought against them; in such cases the fees due or already paid to the University will be neither refunded nor remitted in whole or in part.

In case of emergency the University assumes the right to take all responsibility.

University regulations are brought to the attention of every student by posting, announcement, or inclusion in the catalogue. Violation of regulations will not be excused on the plea of ignorance of information.

III

The Theological Seminary

History of the Seminary

Lincoln University had its origin in the belief of the Rev. John Miller Dickey that the Negro people, here and in Africa, must be supplied with well-educated, thoroughly trained Christian leaders. With this aim in view Ashmun Institute was chartered in 1854 to give "academical and theological education to young men of the Negro race," and opened for instruction December 31, 1856.

Ashmun Institute continued its work for nine years, during which theology was taught together with academic studies, and thirty men were trained, twelve of whom were ordained to the ministry. Of these twelve, five became missionaries in Africa.

Ashmun Institute was planned for free Negroes only, since the slaves did not have access to education. But with their emancipation it was recognized that the need for Christian leaders was all the greater, and therefore in 1866 Lincoln University was organized, and in 1867 the Theological Department began with a provisional course of two years, which in a short time was extended to cover the usual three years of theological studies. In 1871 the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America adopted the following action (Minutes for 1871, p. 581): "RESOLVED, That the General Assembly accept the oversight of the Theological Department of Lincoln University, as provided in the amended charter of that Institution."

Aims and Standards

The Seminary seeks to enlist and to train men who sincerely desire to dedicate their lives to the high calling of Christian leadership. The program of study is designed to provide a sound, thorough, and practical training for the ministry at home and abroad.

Although the work of Lincoln Seminary has been directed primarily to the Negroes in America, students from other countries and of other races in America have found in her a friendly and gracious haven into which all could find ready entrance, without fear of hindrance or barrier. For the abundant fruitfulness of her years of service, so strikingly attested by the lives and labors of her graduates in every part of the world, Lincoln is justly proud.

The Theological Seminary of Lincoln University has continued to be under the supervision of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. There are no denominational tests for entrance, however. The Seminary welcomes students of all denominations, and gives to each ample opportunity to study the doctrine and polity of the church of his choice.

The Seminary is strictly a graduate school, and candidates for admission must have earned previously the A.B. degree or its academic equivalent.

At the end of the full three-year theological course, successful candidates will be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

The studies of the course are arranged in logical sequence, and are distributed through three years in such manner that thirty-two semester hours should be taken each year. A minimum of ninety-six hours is required for the degree.

Many courses in the College are open to Seminary students, and may be profitably pursued by qualified men. All such optional work, however, must be approved by the Dean of the Seminary and the Dean of the College.

No student will be advanced into the middle or second year class who has not completed at least 32 semester hours; and no student will be counted a member of the Senior or third year class who has not completed at least 64 semester hours.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

The courses are distributed into the following groups:

- I. Old Testament
- II. New Testament
- III. Church History and Missions
- IV. Systematic Theology and Apologetics
- V. Homiletics and Practical Theology

Courses unless designated otherwise are semester courses (odd terminal numerals are employed for courses given in the first semester, and even numerals for courses given in the second semester). Year courses are designated by odd numerals and even numerals joined by a hyphen, and the work of the two semesters constitutes an integral, indivisible course.

(Given each year)

Credit: Four hours

This course is designed to meet the needs of church leaders. Half of each period is devoted to the sight singing of hymns, and half to lectures and discussions of the great hymns, hymn writers and the history of hymnody in the Christian Church.

THE SEMINARY LIBRARY

A separate branch of the Vail Memorial Library has been established for the exclusive use of Seminary and pre-Seminary students. The standard theological volumes and reference sets, and best current religious books and periodicals are available. The library has been further enriched during the past year by the bequest from the late Professor Samuel Dickey of his special collection of more than five hundred books dealing with the New Testament, and also by an equal number of volumes selected from the library of James Carter, the late Professor of Church History in Lincoln.

A PROGRAM OF FIELD WORK

The Seminary offers as an integral part of its training, four semesters of field work. This practical labor, which is provided under competent guidance, is vital in the development of the student's capacities and the enrichment of his experience. Preaching and parish and community activities in neighboring cities and towns provide abundant opportunity to correlate classroom principles with real life situations.

This program is carefully supervised and completely integrated into the entire course of study, and is required of all the students of the Seminary.

Through our Field Work program, many types of service are made available to ministers and church and community organizations. The following are examples:

- Teachers of Bible classes
- Directors of young people's groups
- Leaders in recreational activities
- Camp Counsellors
- Boy Scout Leaders
- Parish and community surveys
- Pastors' assistants
- Supply preachers

All of these services are provided without respect to denomination, at no cost except a modest fee for students' traveling expenses.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Seminary year is the same as the University year. Examinations are held at the close of each semester, and the system of grading is the same as in the College. Reports of each semester's work are sent to each student by the Dean of the Seminary, and will also be sent to Presbyteries and other properly constituted church authorities when desired.

The Seminary student enjoys all the religious privileges of the University. Chapel worship, mid-week prayer services, voluntary devotional exercises and mission study foster spiritual impulses, and community and church activities afford a practical outlet to the religious life.

STANDARDS OF ADMISSION

In order to be admitted to matriculation and enrollment as a student in the Seminary, the applicant for admission must present to the Dean of the Seminary the following credentials:

1. A letter from the pastor or session of the Church of which he is a member, stating that he is in full communion with the Church, is of good conduct and high character, and that he possesses aptitude for theological study. Or, if an ordained minister, a letter from the church body to which he belongs, stating that he is in good and regular standing.

2. A college diploma, or a certificate of the completion of an equivalent course of academic study.

Blank forms upon which to make application for admission will be furnished on request by the Dean of the Seminary.

A student who has taken part of the theological course in another standard seminary will be received at the same stage of the course on his presentation of a letter from that seminary certifying to his good standing, stating the courses he has completed, and regularly dismissing him to this Seminary. He must also comply with the terms of admission set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

An ordained minister, who has not completed the regular courses of study in a theological seminary, may be admitted to the privileges of the Seminary upon presentation of credentials from an authorized ecclesiastical body attesting that he is in good and regular ministerial standing. The hospitality of the Seminary may also be extended to qualified persons who may desire to pursue special studies.

SEMINARY CHARGES, SCHOLARSHIP AID

The Seminary Charges are as follows:

Tuition, per year.....	$150.00
Room, Heat and Light.....	50.00
Board.....	180.00
Fees	33.50

The Seminary is in possession of scholarship funds which have been given for the express purpose of helping approved candidates to secure their education for the ministry of Christian Service. Students, who give evidence of sincerity, may be assured of receiving financial help to supplement their own efforts toward self-support.

All expenses for text-books, laundry, travelling and personal needs must be met by the student.

PRIZES

THE MISS LAFIE REED PRIZES IN SACRED GEOGRAPHY. The first, consisting of ten dollars, is given to that member of the Junior Class who has maintained the highest standing in the study of Old Testament History. The second, five dollars, is given to that student of the same class who has established the next highest standing in the same subject.

THE R. H. NASSAU PRIZE, consisting of the income from $1,000, is given to that member of the Senior Class whom the Faculty shall select as best exemplifying the ideal of the Theological Seminary of Lincoln University in scholarship and personality. The student selected shall present an essay of not less than 500 words based on the life and work of the donor, the Rev. Robert Hamill Nassau, M.D., S.T.D., of the West Africa Mission.

DIRECTIONS FOR REACHING THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY*

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY is situated between Oxford and West Grove, Pennsylvania, on Route 1, forty miles from Philadelphia and sixty from Baltimore. It is twenty-five miles northwest of Wilmington, Delaware, twenty-five miles southwest of West Chester, and thirty miles southeast of Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

It may be reached conveniently by the Greyhound and Safeways buses from Philadelphia and Baltimore, and by the Short Line buses from West Chester and Wilmington, which stop at the campus gate. It may also be reached from Philadelphia by the Octoraro Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The Railroad Station is three-quarters of a mile from the University.

In coming to the University and in directing mail and baggage, care should be taken to use the exact address, LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, Pennsylvania.
