APPENDIX.

COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

All applicants for admission to the University must present testimonials of good moral character. Those coming from other Colleges must bring certificates of dismissal in good standing.

Applicants for admission to the Freshman Class of the Collegiate Department will be examined in Arithmetic, Geography, English Grammar and Latin Grammar.

All Candidates for advanced standing, in addition to the preparatory studies, will be examined in those previously studied by the classes which they propose to enter.

All Candidates for admission to any of the classes should make arrangements to be present at the opening of the session, on Thursday the 17th of September next, or on Thursday the 10th of February, 1869.

No applicant will be admitted to the Freshman Class under fifteen years of age.

Students admitted to the Classes are not considered as regular members of the University, till, after a probation of three months, they have been admitted to Matriculation.

All the classes are steadily exercised in Declamation and English Composition.

Connected with the Collegiate Department are two Literary Societies, known as the Garnet Lyceum and the Philosopher Society. Each Society elects its own officers, who serve for a term of six weeks. The stated meetings are held every Friday evening. The exercises consist of Debating, Declamation and Composition, and the divisions are so arranged that each student performs in one class of exercises every two weeks.

Students over seventeen years of age, intending to prepare themselves for the duties of teaching, may on application receive fifty cents per week towards their expenses during the Sessions of the College, from the State Treasury upon the terms granted to Students in the Normal Schools of the State of Pennsylvania. Any Student who was disabled in the Military or Naval Service of the United States, or of Pennsylvania, or whose father lost his life in said service, and who is over seventeen, and not over twenty-two years of age, may receive one dollar per week upon the same conditions. Regular instruction is given in the science and art of teaching.

The course of study in this Department occupies four years, and those who complete the course satisfactorily, will receive from the Trustees the Degree of Bachelor of Arts. Students graduating from this Department, and intending to teach two years in the State of Pennsylvania, will receive fifty dollars from the State Treasury.

PREPARATORY CLASS.

Applicants for admission to the Preparatory Class must be able to read and write well, and must possess some knowledge of all the subjects taught in this Department.

EXPENSES.

The BILLS of Students are due at the beginning of each Session.

Board, fuel, and washing, per Session, - - -	$60 00
Tuition, " " - - -	15 00

Total, per Session, - - - $75 00

Charges for one year, two Sessions, $150 00.

No deduction from the College bill is made in favor of Students who remain away from their classes after the Session has begun, nor for those who leave the classes during the Session, nor for those dismissed from the Institution under censure of the Faculty.

EXTRA Expenses. An exact estimate of the necessary expenses of a Student above what is included in the Session Bill cannot be made. All the Students need something additional for light, books, and stationery, and for clothing.

AID TO STUDENTS.

The Trustees desire to grant the benefits of a thorough education in this Institution to every worthy applicant. Those who are able to pay their own bills have only to comply with the conditions of admission, printed above, and upon examination by the Faculty, they will be admitted to the privileges of the Institution. But no earnest young man of good abilities and good moral character, should be discouraged from seeking the advantages which are here offered. Many Religious Institutions, and benevolent individuals are co-operating with the Trustees to provide for those who need aid. All such, who are able to present certificates of worthiness, should apply early for admission, and should state in writing what part of the above expenses they can meet, what progress they have made in study, and their purpose in seeking an education.

LIBRARY.

A Library has been founded, which though small, is of great value to the Students. It contains about twelve hundred volumes. There is no provision made for the regular increase of the Library. Some additions have been made during the past year by special contributions of books, and funds which have been expended in the purchase of books, under the direction of the Faculty. Donations, particularly in the departments of Literature, Science, and Theology, are earnestly solicited from Authors and other friends of the University.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

Prayers are attended in the Chapel every morning and evening.

There is a Church in the University, and public worship is held in the Chapel on the Sabbath, in the morning and afternoon. All the Students are required to be present at these services.

A daily prayer meeting is also sustained by the Students.

GRADUATION.

The Degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred on all Students who complete the course of study in the Collegiate Department to the satisfaction of the Faculty, and the Board of Trustees.

Students not designing to pursue a Classical Course are admitted to the privileges of such classes as they are qualified to join. Those who are approved by the Faculty for their diligence and success will receive on their departure from the Institution, an honorary certificate as a testimonial to their Scholarship in the branches of study which they may have pursued.

YEARLY STATEMENT.

Since the last Catalogue was published, eighty thousand dollars have been added to the endowment fund of Lincoln University. This sum has been securely invested by the Board of Trustees, and designated to the following objects: twenty thousand dollars for the endowment of the Presidency, and named the Mary Dickey Professorship; twenty thousand dollars, contributed by Hon. W. E. Dodge, and named the Dodge Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric; twenty thousand dollars, conveyed in invested funds by J. C. Baldwin, Esq., of New York City, for the endowment of the Chair of Theology, and named the Baldwin Professorship of Theology; and twenty thousand dollars assigned by Messrs. Howe & King, Trustees of the Avery Estate, Pittsburg, Pa., and named the Avery Professorship of Lincoln University.

It is earnestly hoped that such examples of liberality and good will may be multiplied, until this Institution shall be put upon a condition of equality with others of a like grade, and may be adequately furnished for the work which has here been undertaken. If the colored population of our country is to be fully invested with the dignity and privileges of citizenship, and with all the responsibilities which this entails, it is fitting that this Institution, which has been significantly and appropriately called "The Black Man's University," should be enabled to accomplish a work as broad and deep as his necessities. Whatever science and religion can do for him ought to be done at once. There is immediate need of the endowment of two additional Professorships in the University, viz: the Chair of Natural Science, and the Chair of the Greek and Latin Languages.

The labor of instruction is greatly increased every year by the advancement of the Students to higher studies, and by the introduction of new classes. This yearly increase of labor will continue until the curriculum of studies shall have been once completed.

* The lectures of Dr. Houston on Anatomy and Physiology, and of Dr. Howell on Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, have been delivered gratuitously, as an expression of their interest in the University, and their appreciation of its importance.

Rev. Wm. R. Bingham, of Oxford, Pa., has consented, on invitation of the Faculty, to deliver a course of lectures on Pastoral Care.

The College buildings are now full. About twenty thousand dollars would enable us to erect a new College edifice, including convenient recitation rooms, and dormitories for Students. We ought to be able to enlarge all the classes. It would greatly economize our teaching power, if each class comprised fifty students. Additional accommodations for Students, and provision for their personal expenses in the Institution, would enable us to double our work in a single year.

Of the Students now in the classes of the University, forty-eight are preparing for the Ministry, and forty-one have chosen the work of teaching

Thirteen have united with the College Church during the past year on profession of faith. During the same time six have left the University to preach the Gospel, three of whom have been licensed in the Presbyterian Church. Nine have gone forth as teachers in the Southern States.

Grateful for the progress made and for the work accomplished, we are yet constrained to say, in view of the vast field before us, and of the abundant resources of the friends of religion and humanity, that it is only a moiety of what might be done through this instrumentality to promote the object for which this University has been founded.

It is consecrated to the Glory of God, and the good of man. It has received the endorsement of all who are acquainted with its work, The friends of universal education are cordially invited to investigate its plans and operations, and to acquaint themselves with the opportunity here afforded for conferring the benefits of a liberal and Christian culture upon the colored population of our Country.
