Applicants for admission to the Theological Department will be required to present evidence of membership, in good standing, in some regular Church. They must also possess such qualifications in scholarship as will enable them to profit by the studies of this Department. The sessions and vacations are the same as in the Collegiate Department, except that the year ends five weeks before the close of the Collegiate year.

The emancipation of four million of our race from bondage has opened a vast field of labor to the Church. Until recently the freedmen enjoyed the advantage of religious instruction in connection with organized churches in the South; but now, being separated from their former relations, they are suffering the disadvantage of an illiterate ministry, or are wholly without ecclesiastical organization. The requirement of a complete classical training as a prerequisite to authorized ministerial labor will defer for a generation their enlightenment by the truth. Pious colored men, though without any knowledge of Latin or Greek, or the higher Mathematics, could be most usefully employed in gathering and instructing congregations in all the Southern States. Such auxiliaries to the ministry are greatly needed, and can be multiplied; and under the direction of pastors and ecclesiastical bodies, they may accomplish much good. We are prepared to coöperate with the churches in this matter, and have arranged the following course of studies as adapted to qualify men of piety and good natural abilities for extensive usefulness.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Exercises in reading the Scriptures and Hymns.

Biblical History.

Systematic instruction in the doctrines of the Bible.

Practical Exercises in the preparation and delivery of Sermons.

Familiar instruction on pastoral work and the transaction of Church business.

The course is so arranged that Students may be exercised in the subjects one or two years, as necessity or choice may determine. No charge will be made for tuition to those taking this course. The entire expense for boarding, washing, fuel, &c., will not exceed one hundred dollars a year. We invite the coöperation of Christian people to give success to this effort by their contributions.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

The Faculty of this Department is as yet provisional. The year commences on the Third Thursday of September. The terms and vacations are the same as in the Collegiate Department, except that the year ends five weeks before the annual commencement.

The design of the Trustees in establishing a Law Department is to afford to all who desire to enter the legal profession a thorough preparation; and, for the sake of a more liberal culture, to bring the advantages of a complete course of Law lectures within the reach of all the students of the University.

The Course of Instruction occupies two years; but students are advised and encouraged to spend an additional year in private reading, and in attendance upon the lectures of the course.

The First year of the course is occupied with the study of General Commentaries, of the Law of Contracts and of Real Estate.

The Second year embraces, Admiralty, Equity, Commercial, International, and Constitutional Law, and Domestic Relations.

The Third year, or post-graduate course, will be occupied in advancing the students beyond the studies prescribed in the regular course.

The instruction is so arranged that a student may enter upon any part of it, without loss of time; and in two years from his entrance will be able to complete the prescribed course.

Students who desire it will be assisted in the study of the laws of the particular State in which they may intend to practice their profession.

Moot and Club courts will be regularly organized, and the largest opportunity given for the practice of debating, forensic eloquence, and legal discussion.

There will be an oral examination of Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws at the close of the second year, by a committee of the Law Faculty.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

Graduation from the Collegiate Department of this University, or from some other Collegiate Institution, is necessary to admission into this Department. A class was organized in September, 1870, and has been occupied in the studies of the course during the current year. The Faculty of this Department is as yet provisional. The year commences on the third Thursday of September. The sessions and vacations are the same as in the Law Department.

The design of the Board of Trustees in establishing the Department of Medicine is to afford the student an opportunity of thorough instruction in the principles of medicine as a science, and in the application of these principles to the treatment and cure of diseases. It is hoped that the measures already adopted, and those in contemplation, will result in securing for the students a complete course of didactic and clinical instruction. Students in this Department have access to the hospitals and clinics in Philadelphia. Medical students who shall complete the prescribed course of study, and pass a satisfactory examination, will receive the degree of M. D.

About $20 for furnishing a room, is to be added for the first year.

The above statement of expenses is a minimum. It is believed, that, with reasonable economy, the sum of $150 will cover all the academical expenses of a student, including books.

EXTRA EXPENSES.

An exact estimate of the necessary expenses of a Student, above what is included in the session bills and estimates, cannot be made. Additional expenses are incurred for light, books and stationery. Every Student is required to provide his proportion of furniture for his room, and sheets, pillow-cases and towels for his own use.

AID TO STUDENTS.

The Trustees desire to supply, in this Institution, the benefits of a thorough education to every worthy applicant. Those who are able to pay their bills have only to comply with the conditions of admission printed above, and they will be admitted. But no earnest young man of good abilities and good moral character should be discouraged from seeking the advantages which are here offered. Many Religious Institutions and benevolent individuals are cooperating with the Trustees to provide for those who need aid. All such, who are able to present certificates of worthiness, should apply early for admission, and state in writing what part of the above expenses they can meet, what progress they have made in study, and their purpose in seeking an education.

The attention of all who feel an interest in this object, is directed to the facilities here offered for the acquisition of a thorough Christian education at the least possible expense. Many in our Northern cities, and in the Freedmen's Schools of the South, are eager to devote themselves to the work of teaching, who could be prepared for the duties of that position in a single year. One hundred and ten dollars would prepare a competent teacher. Support for two years would secure teachers of more than ordinary accomplishments. A scholarship of five hundred dollars will pay the college charges for some worthy Student as long as the Institution shall continue in successful operation, leaving the expense of board and books to be met by his own exertion. A scholarship of fifteen hundred dollars, properly invested, would bring a collegiate education within reach of any industrious young man; and every four years would send a graduate into the harvest field, or advance him so far towards usefulness in professional life, or in the gospel ministry. Are there not many who will avail themselves of this means of doing good? Correspondence may be addressed to the President of the University, or to any member of the Faculty.

LIBRARY.

The Library contains about two thousand five hundred volumes. Valuable donations have been made during the past year by F. J. Child, Ph. D., of Harvard University, by Mrs. G. W. Toland, of Germantown, by Hon. Washington Townsend, and by Dr. C. C. Cresson, who in addition to his previous contributions, has recently presented a beautiful copy of Wilson's American Ornithology, and of Michaux' North American Sylva.

There is no provision made for the regular increase of the Library. Donations on subjects of general Literature, Science, Theology, Law, and Medicine, are earnestly solicited from the friends of the University.

MUSEUM AND PHILOSOPHICAL APPARATUS.

The University possesses a valuable Philosophical Apparatus, and a Mineralogical Cabinet selected by Dr. S. B. Howell, Professor of Chemistry. There is urgent need of friends to furnish the new Chemical Room with conveniences for analysis and general experiments.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

Prayers are held in the chapel every morning and evening.

There is a Church in the University, and public worship is celebrated in the Chapel on the Sabbath, morning and afternoon. All the Students are required to be present at these services.

A daily prayer-meeting is also sustained by the Students.

GRADUATION.

The Degree of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Laws, and Doctor of Medicine, will be conferred on all students who complete the prescribed course of study in the several departments of the Arts, of Law and of Medicine, to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees.

Students not designing to pursue a Classical Course are admitted to the privileges of any class they may be qualified to join. Those approved by the Faculty for their diligence and success, will receive, on their departure from the Institution, an honorary certificate as a testimonial to their Scholarship in the branches of study which they may have pursued.

PUBLIC EXERCISES.

The Annual Commencement takes place on the third Wednesday in June.

The Garnet Literary Association holds its Anniversary on the first Thursday of May.

The Anniversary of the Philosophian Society is on the third Wednesday in May. The Junior contest takes place in the Chapel of the University on Tuesday the day before the Annual Commencement. The Junior Orators for 1870 were Robert P. Brooks, Richmond, Va.; William H. Racks, Oak Hill, Pa.; James W. Morris, Providence, R. I.; Richard G. Thompson, Alexandria, Va. The prize gold medal was awarded to Mr. James W. Morris.

The honorary appointments at the commencement of 1870, were Francis J. Grimke, Charleston, S. C., Valedictory; Archibald H. Grimke, Charleston, S. C., Latin Salutatory; William H. Brooks, Philadelphia, Pa., Mathematical Oration; James C. Waters, Baltimore, Md., Belles Lettres Oration; William F. Dickerson, Brooklyn, N. Y., Philosophical Oration.

YEARLY STATEMENT.

The property of Lincoln University consists of its real estate and its invested funds. The grounds include fifty acres of land, partly wooded, half a mile from Lincoln University Station, on the Philadelphia and Baltimore Central Railroad.

The three University buildings are designated as Ashmun Hall, Lincoln Hall, and Cresson Hall. They are occupied for boarding purposes, as dormitories, and for purposes of instruction. They are now filled to their utmost capacity. The growth of the institution makes enlargement necessary. The Trustees have contracted for the erection of a new building, to be used as a chapel, and to include recitation rooms. It is hoped that the friends of the University will promptly furnish the necessary funds, that it may be completed without debt. There are also on the college grounds four professor's houses, occupied by the incumbents of the endowed professorships.

Four Professorships are endowed in the University, of twenty thousand dollars each: The Mary Warder Dickey Presidency; the Avery Professorship of Lincoln University; the John C. Baldwin Professorship of Theology; and the William E. Dodge Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric.

Dr. S. B. Howell, of Philadelphia, Professor of Natural Science, has lectured during the year to the classes on Chemistry and Natural Philosophy; but the want of endowment has prevented the Institution from reaping the full advantage of his appointment. It is hoped that during the present year this Professorship may be fully endowed. An effort to endow the Chair of the Latin and Greek Languages has met with some encouragement, but only partial success. The Professor elect has entered upon his labors; but owing to the want of a dwelling-house at the University, he has been obliged to live in the borough of Oxford, nearly four miles distant from the University buildings.

The Rev. William R. Bingham, of Oxford, Pa., has, at the request of the Board of Trustees, continued his lectures on Pastoral Care.

Dr. J. Willis Houston continues his lectures on Anatomy, Physiology, and Botany, without charge.

The University has, during the past year, been called to lament the decease of the Rev. Albert Barnes, a trustee of the institution, who had consented, at the request of the Board, to take part in the instruction of the students by continuing his valuable lectures.

The Board of Trustees, at the last annual meeting, established the Preparatory, Normal, and Business Departments, as a permanent feature in the University.

The students board in clubs. The expenses of each club are divided equally among the members. The economy which they practise goes directly to their own benefit. The exact cost of Board per week cannot be anticipated, but the experience of the past year justifies the statements made in the Catalogue.

A post office has been established near the Institution, and correspondents are requested to address the President and resident Professors, at Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, except that Rev. G. T. Woodhull's address is, for the present, Oxford, Pennsylvania.

Of the students whose names are found in the Catalogue, sixty-three are candidates for the ministry in the Presbyterian, Episcopal, Methodist, Baptist, and Congregational Churches.

Nine students have united with the College church during the year.

The Theological Department has been placed under the care of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The advantages of a liberal education are still beyond the reach of those most eager to acquire them, and who from identity of interest and feeling can be most relied on to devote their energies and talents to the great work of enlightening and elevating the Freedmen of the South. The friends of humanity, who believe that a liberal and Christian culture is the best means of elevating them to a comprehensive Christian view of their own interests and responsibilities, have now the opportunity of training the men whose influence, thrown into the scale at the right time, may confirm this important element of our population in their attachment to our Protestant Christianity. The influence which Protestantism shall exert in this vast field will be decided, under God, by the number and devotion of evangelical teachers and ministers who may be qualified and sent forth to teach in the public schools and to preach the Gospel. The trained and cunning emissaries of Romanism, and the bolder advocates of Rationalism, are seeking to gain the Freedmen. The attractions of education and promotion which they hold out will draw to their side in this struggle many a strong mind and earnest nature. The freedman must not be left, with his intense thirst for knowledge, to the powerful temptation to accept it in associations which imperil his faith. Let the same attractions draw him to the truth. Those who can bear the expense of their own education will not always be found the most devoted to this work of Christian charity and sacrifice. Will not the Christian Churches of our country supply the means of educating pious young men of color in Christian Institutions, that they may guide this whole population to the knowledge of the truth which elevates and saves?

This University is consecrated to the glory of God and the good of man. It has received the endorsement of all who are acquainted with its work. The friends of universal education are cordially invited to investigate its plans and operations, and to coöperate with its officers in conferring the benefits of a liberal and Christian culture on the colored population of our country.
