General Information Concerning the University

Purpose. The purpose of the Trustees and Faculty of Lincoln University is to communicate, according to its means, a liberal and Christian education to worthy young men who may become leaders of the colored people. The University is not co-educational.

Location. Lincoln University is situated in Chester County, Pennsylvania, forty-six miles southwest of Philadelphia, and sixty-three miles northeast of Baltimore.

The railway station is "Lincoln University", on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Octoraro Branch.

The exact post-office address is "Lincoln University, Pennsylvania".

The north entrance to the University Campus is on the direct road between Philadelphia and Baltimore (Route U. S. 1; Penn. 1). This entrance is marked by the Memorial Arch, erected by the Alumni of the University, and dedicated June 7, 1921, to the men of Lincoln University who served their country in the World War.

History. Lincoln University was founded by the Rev. John Miller Dickey, a Presbyterian minister of Oxford, Pa. Its first charter was granted by the State of Pennsylvania, under the title of Ashmun Institute, 1854. In 1866 the charter was amended, and the name changed to "Lincoln University", the plan being to develop an institution that would impart training in the various professions—Theology, Medicine, Law—in addition to a preparatory department and a collegiate course. The schools of Medicine and Law were begun, but soon discontinued, owing to unforeseen difficulties of location and endowment. The preparatory department was closed in 1893, leaving thus the College and the Theological Seminary as departments of the University.

Control. The University is under the control of a Board of Trustees, a self-perpetuating body, consisting of twenty-one members, arranged in seven classes of three each, who hold office for seven years, or until their successors are elected. The officers of the Board consist of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, elected annually. There are three stated meetings of the Board—on the day of the Theological Commencement, on the day of the College Commencement, and on the second Thursday of November. In accordance with the plan of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church for the government of Theological Seminaries, the Board of Trustees has put the Theological Seminary of the University under the control of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Endowment. The University owns equipment, buildings and grounds of an estimated value of $487,000, and holds productive funds to the amount of $670,000.

Equipment. The University owns 145 acres of land, part of which is under cultivation and part forms a campus upon which have been erected the following buildings:

University Hall, built by undesignated funds, is a three-story brick building, containing seventeen large and well-lighted rooms, used for lecture and recitation purposes.

The Mary Dod Brown Memorial Chapel, gift of the late Mrs. Susan D. Brown, of Princeton, N. J., is a Gothic structure of dark red brick with a square bell-tower. The building contains an audience room capable of seating 400 persons, and a Prayer Hall capable of seating 200. The organ, costing $2,000, was put in place in 1911; one-half of the cost being contributed by Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and the rest by special subscription. The College Office is at the north side of the Chapel.

Livingstone Hall, gift of the late Mrs. Susan Gorgas, of West Chester, Pa., is a large one-story frame building used for commencement and other assemblies, and capable of seating one thousand persons.

The dormitories, Ashmun Hall and Lincoln Hall, built by undesignated funds, and Cresson Hall, gift of the Freedman's bureau, under the late General O. O. Howard, are four-story structures of brick with slate roofs, and are for college students.

Houston Hall, gift of the late H. H. Houston, of Philadelphia, Pa., a three-story brick building, is for theological students. All the dormitories are lighted by electricity and heated by steam. Each room is ready furnished for the occupant.

The Harriet Watson Jones Hospital, gift of the late J. M. C. Dickey of Oxford, Pa., is a two-story frame cottage for the use of students in case of illness or accident.

The McCauley Refectory, given by the late Dr. Thomas McCauley and Mrs. Mary D. McCauley, is a three-story brick building used as the University dining hall. It contains kitchen, dining room, rooms for visitors and a residence for the steward.

The Vail Memorial Library, gift of William H. Vail, M. D., of Newark, N. J., comprises a stack-room, consulting room and reading-room, with a large basement used as a receiving room, all of fireproof construction.

The number of volumes now in the Library is 25,000. The reading room is well supplied with the latest works of reference, current periodicals and daily papers.

In addition there is a two-story building of buff brick, the first story of which is used as a lavatory, and the second as a gymnasium.

The Central Heating and Lighting Plant contains three boilers of 100 horsepower each; two dynamos, of 75 kilowatt and 35 kilowatt capacity, respectively, and a steam pump. The water supply is furnished from an artesian well 175 ft. deep.

There are twelve dwelling-houses on the campus, used as residences for professors and other officers of the University.

Science Hall. The Science Hall, which was erected in 1925, houses the departments of Chemistry, Biology and Physics. The building is a three-story structure of brick and Indiana limestone. It was erected at a cost of $82,500, and contains equipment valued at $23,000. The ground floor is devoted to Physics, the second floor to Biology, and the third floor to Chemistry. The design and equipment of this building is both modern and complete.

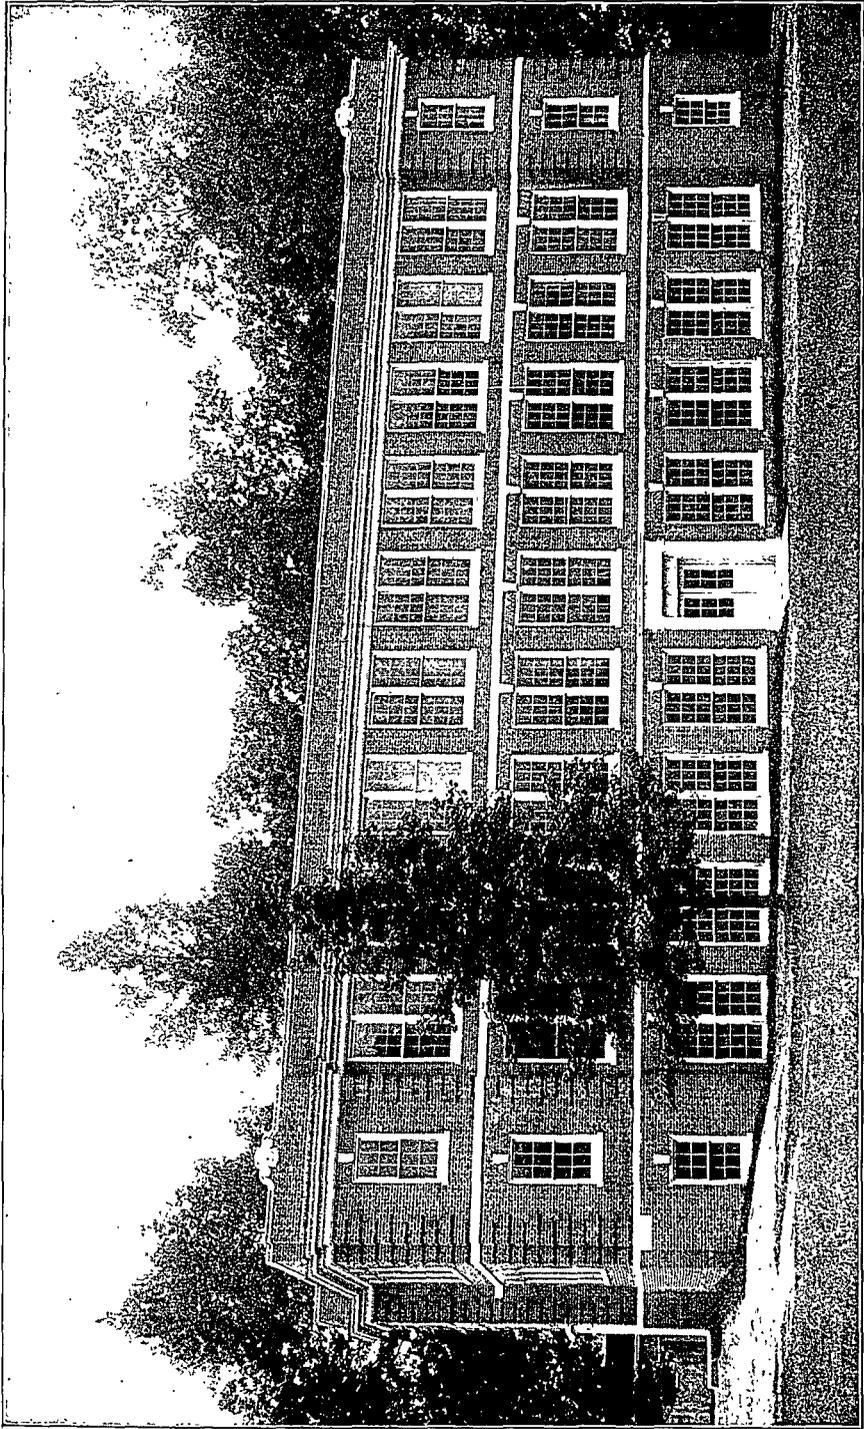

Needs. The most pressing need of the University at the present time is the prompt completion of the campaign for $500,000 for college endowment. For this general purpose, including the full endowment of chairs already existing and the establishment of new chairs, the General Education Board of New York, after a thorough investigation of the financial needs of the University, the character of its instructional work, and the record that has been made by its graduates on the field, has offered to Lincoln University the sum of $250,000 provided that an equal sum is raised by July 1, 1929, the payments to be made if desired, within a three year period. This is the largest sum ever offered to the University, and it is earnestly hoped that the friends of the cause will rally immediately to its support so that this greatly needed endowment can be secured.

Under the direction of the Board of Trustees the official architects of the University, Messrs. Guilbert & Betelle, of Newark, N. J., have prepared a plan for the enlargement of the plant of the University, so as to accommodate an enrollment of 500 students. (See page 57 for a reduced fac simile of this plan). The enrollment this year of 330 is an increase over the attendance of any previous year, but this increase has been at the expense of crowding in the dormitories far beyond the limit of comfort and convenience. The erection of a New College Dormitory is immediately needed and is recommended to benevolent friends as an investment promising the maximum of usefulness. During the present academic year 198 well-prepared young men were refused admission because of lack of dormitory space.

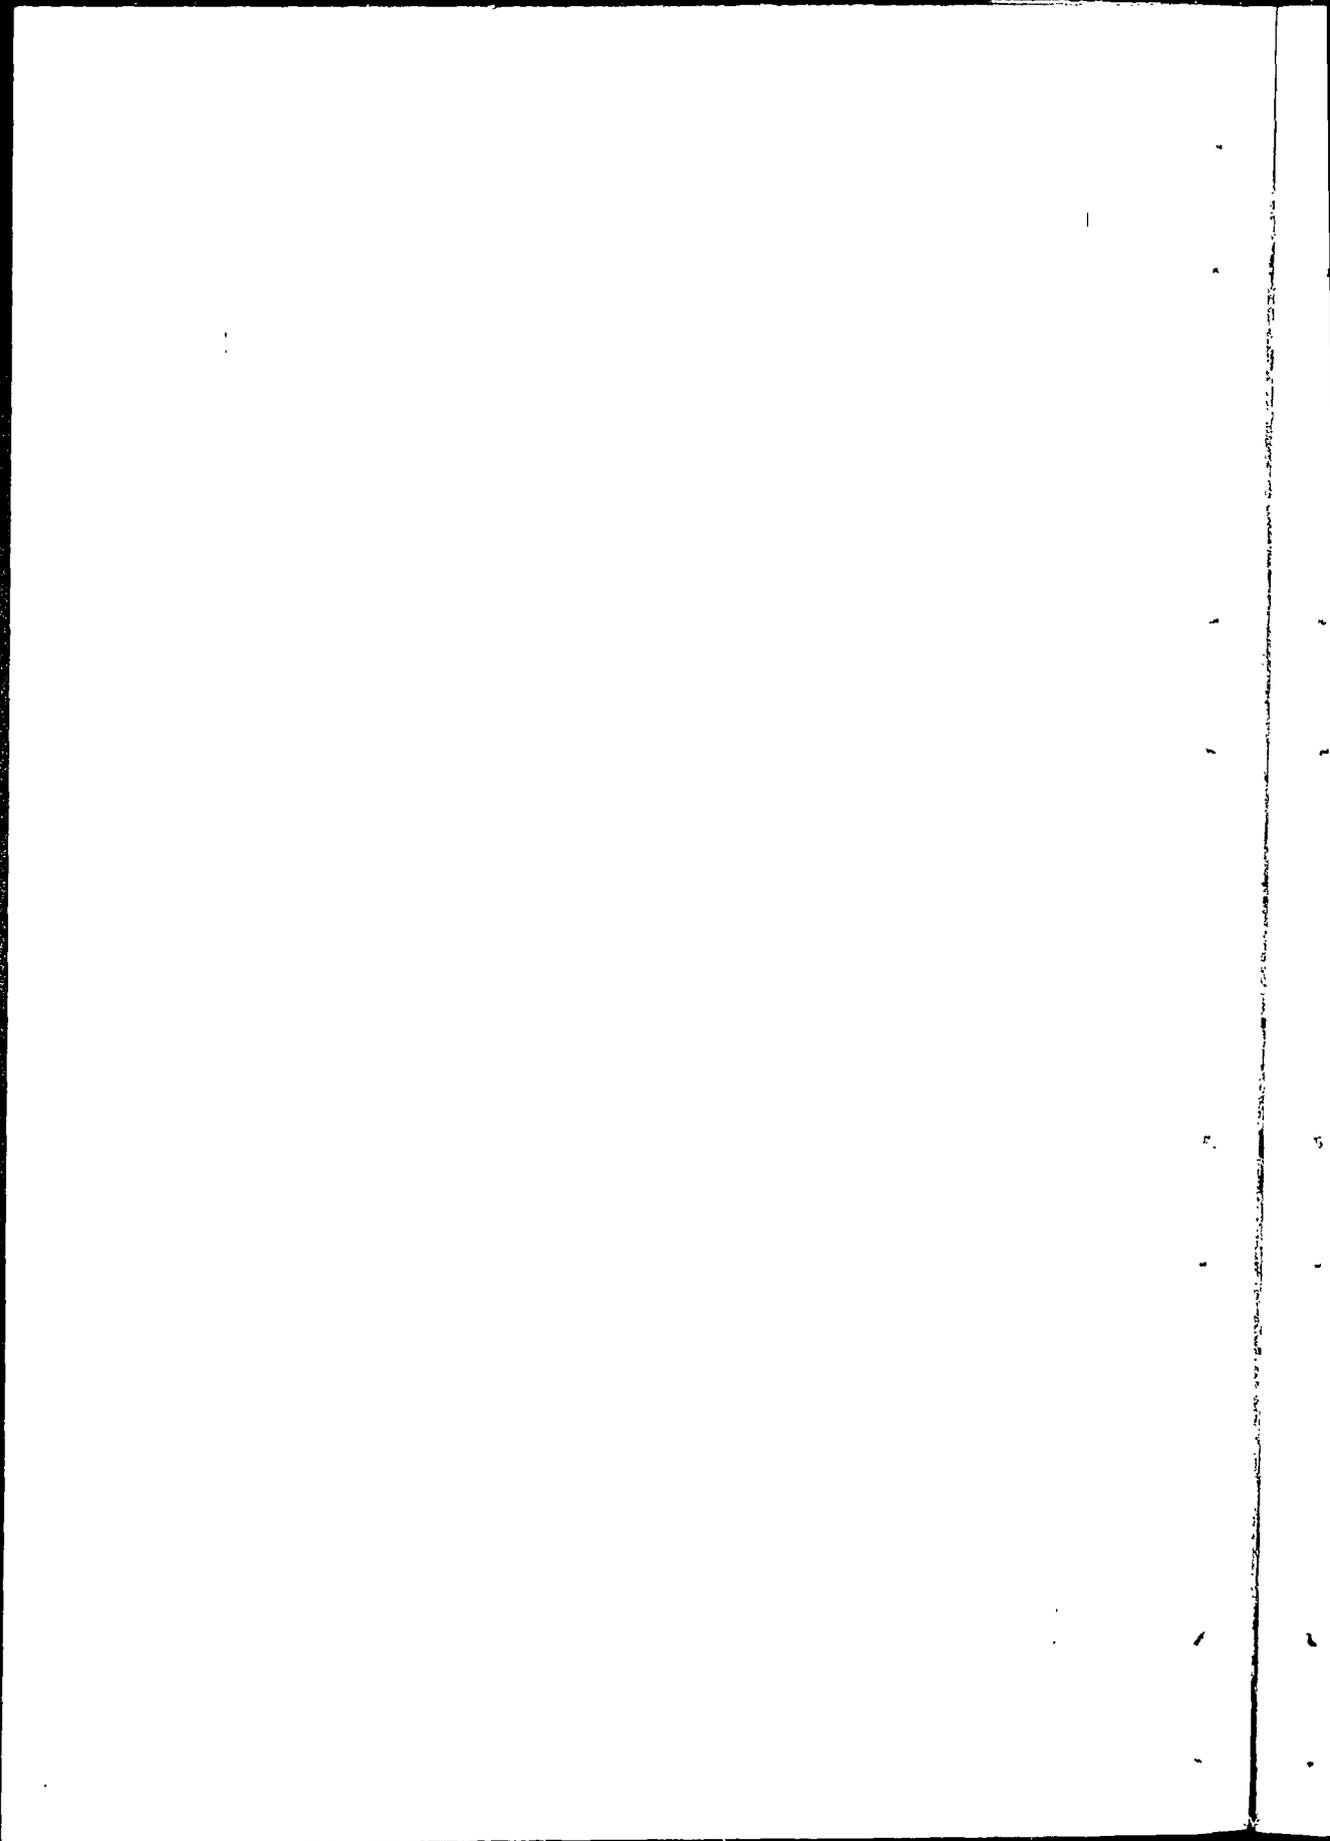

A Library Endowment is also urgently needed to provide for a librarian's salary and for the purchase of new books. An addition of a new wing to the library building would increase the efficiency of the library, the use of which by students is constantly growing.

No body of students work harder to pay for their education than do the students of Lincoln University, and a large increase in scholarship funds is greatly needed, in order to provide for worthy young men who are unable to meet the full college charges.

Correspondence and checks, made payable to "Lincoln University", may be sent to the President, Rev. Wm. Hallock Johnson, D. D., Lincoln University, Pa.

SCIENCE HALL, COMPLETED OCTOBER 1, 1925

In the preparation of wills, when it is intended to make bequests to Lincoln University, care should be taken to use the exact corporate name as known and recognized in the courts of law, namely, "Lincoln University", and to add its location—in Chester County, Pennsylvania.

The Life Annuity Plan offers to donors an opportunity to make such gifts during their lifetime, without sacrificing any of their present income. The money is deposited in the careful and experienced hands of the Board of Trustees. A formal agreement is forwarded to the giver, binding the Board to pay an annual sum in quarterly remittances during life, at rates varying from five per cent. to nine per cent., according to age at the time the deposit is made.

Ashmun Church. The Ashmun Church was founded by the Presbytery of Chester as a church home for students during their college life. While it is organized as a Presbyterian church, members of all evangelical denominations are received, and letters of dismission to churches of other denominations are given when they leave the University.

Student Organizations. The following organizations are open to students of the University irrespective of departments.

The Young Men's Christian Association. The society has been in existence for many years. It is in organic connection with the Pennsylvania State Association, and cooperates with the Association in the Southern States. Community and Social Service work is carried on during the school term; also, a well organized Sunday School and Bible Study groups are conducted under its supervision. The Association seeks to enlist all students of the University in personal effort for social uplift during the summer vacation.

The Athletic Association is intended to promote the physical welfare of the students and to supervise all athletic sports and games. The conduct of the Association is by means of a Board of Officers working in connection with the Faculty Committee on Athletics. The campus, with its football field, baseball diamond and tennis courts, provides ample opportunity for healthful exercise.

The Student Council is an organization elected by the student body to develop and maintain a true standard of conduct among the students of the University, and to promote their welfare in every respect.

The L. U. Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is intended to carry out in the University the general purposes of the N. A. A. C. P. It studies the various phases of the race question and seeks to do some constructive work. Membership is open to students and Faculty.

The Isaac N. Rendall Society, founded February 24, 1919, aims to perpetuate the educational ideals of the late President Isaac N. Rendall, by uniting for the study and discussion of current educational topics all students who intend to devote their lives to the cause of Christian education.

The John Miller Dickey Service Society is a society of college students looking forward to the gospel ministry. It meets twice a month for the discussion of questions of interest for those who expect to be ministers.

The Lincoln News is a publication issued by the students as a means of developing their writing talents in prose and poetry. The circulation extends to the Alumni and friends of the institution.

The following intercollegiate fraternities have branches in Lincoln University:

Alpha Phi Alpha, founded at Cornell University in 1906, is intended to promote scholarship and Christian character. Each member is pledged to respect and defend the honor of womanhood, and to uphold and obey the laws of the country.

Kappa Alpha Psi, founded at Indiana University in 1911, aims to inspire the college man to attainments that are noble and lofty.

Omega Psi Phi, first organized in 1911 at Howard University, bases its activity on the four cardinal principles: Manhood, Scholarship, Uplift and Perseverance.

The Delta Rho Forsenic Society is organized to promote the art of debate within and without the University.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, founded at Howard University in 1914. Each member is obligated to uphold the ideals of scholarship, brotherhood, morality, and service in chapter.

Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Society is an honorary society which elects to membership twice a year all upper classmen who have made in fifteen year-hours of science a group rating of 1.8 and a general group of at least third.

The society holds meetings twice a month for the discussion of topics connected with the various branches of pure science.

Phi Lambda Sigma Literary Society is an honorary society which elects its membership twice a year from those students having completed a minimum of twelve semester hours of English with a group rating of 1.8 or better.

The purpose of the Society is to cultivate an appreciation of the English language and to promote individual initiative in this field.

The Alumni. The Alumni Association of Lincoln University meets annually in connection with the Commencement in June. The officers are: President, R. Baxter McRory, 1515 Druid Hill Avenue, Baltimore, Md.; Secretary, William M. Ashby, 212 Bank St., Newark, N. J.; Treasurer, Rev. John W. Lee, D. D., 741 South Seventeenth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Up to and including the year 1907-08 it was customary to print a list of the graduates of the College and of the Theological Seminary in the annual issues of the University Catalogue. In 1912 there was issued a Statistical Catalogue of the Students of the Collegiate and Theological Departments of Lincoln University. On April 12, 1918, there was issued "Lincoln University College and Theological Seminary, Biographical Catalogue." This contains the essential biographical details, with present occupation and address, so far as known, of all graduates and former students of the University. With the index it makes a pamphlet of 157 pages, and will be sent on application to the Dean of the College, postpaid, to any address. This catalogue (up to and including the Class of 1917, College and Seminary) contains the names of 1,316 students of the College and 527 students of the Seminary, a total of 1,843.

PART II. THE COLLEGE

Course of Study

The College offers a course of study of four years' duration leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts. The College is approved by the College and University Council of the State of Pennsylvania, the American Medical Society, and also by the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Middle States and Maryland (December 1, 1922).

Admission

Briefly stated, the following are the requirements for admission as candidates for the degree:

(1) The completion of a standard secondary school course, if admission is sought to the Freshman Class, and the completion of this work plus courses offered in standard colleges if application is made for advanced standing.

(2) The possession of the necessary qualities, mental and moral, to pursue profitably a college course.

(3) Sound health.

Every candidate for admission should file an application on a blank provided for that purpose, copies of which may be obtained from the Registrar of the University, Lincoln University, Pennsylvania.

There are two methods by which candidates may meet the scholastic requirements for admission, and thus become eligible for selection as members of the Freshman Class:

(1) By school record and certificate.

(2) By examination.

1. By school record and certificate. This plan is open to graduates of approved secondary schools. The candidate is required to present a satisfactory school record, covering the 15 units required for admission to the College. The 15 units must include the following 8 units: 3 in English, 2 in Foreign Language, preferably Latin, and 1 each in Algebra, Plane Geometry, and History; the remaining 7 units may be chosen from the following list: Latin, Greek, French, German, Spanish, Algebra, Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, History and Social Science, Physics, Chemistry, Botany, Geography, Biology, and Bible (not more than one unit).

The unit mentioned above is the usual college entrance unit, briefly defined as a year's study in any subject in a standard secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work.

2. By examination. A candidate for admission to the Freshman Class may also obtain the necessary entrance credit by passing standard entrance examinations in the required 15 units. The College does not conduct such examinations, and therefore all candidates who wish to enter by this method must apply to the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117 Street, New York, N. Y. The examinations of the New York Board of Regents, the Cambridge Local Examinations, or those of any other official and recognized examining agency, will also be accepted.

Not more than two units of conditions will be allowed for conditional entrance to the Freshman Class. These conditions must be removed by the end of the Sophomore year.

This catalogue does not contain the detailed definition of the entrance requirements. Those wishing such information will find it in Definition of the Requirements for 1929, published by the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117 Street, New York, N. Y. The College Entrance Examination Board will mail this document to any address upon payment of twenty-five cents. While the College regards these definitions as its standard of the scholastic requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, it will also accept in the evaluation of certificates and the acceptance of examination results the equivalent definitions formulated by State Boards of Education and prescribed by them as the course of study to be followed by approved secondary schools.

Requirements for the Degree

A student will be graduated from the College upon the completion of four years residence, either in whole, at Lincoln University, or in part at Lincoln University, and part at some other approved university or college, during which time he has completed a minimum of 128 semester hours of collegiate study, in which a general average of third group (for definition see below) has been maintained.

A semester, which is the hour mentioned in this catalogue, means a sixty-minute period per week for a half-year, or semester, except in the case of laboratory work, in which the semester hour is a one hundred and twenty minute period per week for a half-year, or semester.

The one hundred and twenty-eight semester hours are to be divided into: (a) Required Work, (b) Restricted electives, and (c) Free electives, as follows:

(a) Required Work. Each student shall fulfill fifty-two to fifty-four semester hours of work as follows:

In the Freshman year: Bible 2 hours, English 6 hours, Foreign Language 12 hours (of which 6 hours must be an ancient language), Hygiene 2 hours.

In the Sophomore year: Bible 2 hours, Foreign Language 6 hours, Science (Physics, Chemistry or Biology) 6 or 8 hours.

In the Junior year: Bible 2 hours.

In the Senior year: Bible 2 hours.

In the Sophomore, Junior or Senior years: English, 6 hours.

(b) Restricted Electives. During Junior and Senior years the courses are grouped in the following four divisions:

- I. Ancient and Modern Language, including English.
- II. History and Political Science.
- III. Mathematics and Natural Science.
- IV. Philosophy and Education.

Each student must plan his work during these years as follows: From one division twenty-four semester hours are to be elected, and from one of the others twelve semester hours. Total, thirty-six semester hours.

(c) Free Electives. The thirty-eight to forty semester hours remaining to complete the minimum of one hundred and twenty-eight required for graduation are free electives and may be chosen as follows: during the Freshman year four to six; during the Sophomore year twelve to eighteen; and during the Junior and Senior years the remainder.

In administering the foregoing requirements the following regulations are observed.

(1) A student is enrolled in the Freshman Class until he has completed twenty-eight semester hours and removed all entrance conditions; in the Sophomore class until he has completed at least sixty semester hours; in the Junior class until he has completed at least ninety-two semester hours; then in the Senior class.

(2) An average of sixteen hours per semester is required, and no student may take more than eighteen hours per semester unless permitted to do so by the Committee on Electives.

(3) A course that runs continuously through the year must be elected for the year.

(4) The maximum mark in each study is one hundred; the minimum or passing mark is sixty per cent. The rank in each course of study is determined by the instructor who divides the class into groups.

(5) Each class is divided into five groups, of which the first indicates very high standing, and contains ordinarily not more than 10 per cent of the class; the second indicates high standing, and contains not more than 20 per cent of the class; the third indicates fair standing, and contains not more than 50 per cent of the class; the fourth indicates low standing; group five C indicates a condition with opportunity to remove same by a re-examination, group five F indicates a failure with no opportunity for re-examination.

(6) In an elective class the fractional parts mentioned above are fractional parts of the entire class and not of the number of students taking the elective.

The general group of a student is determined by multiplying each group number by the number of hours which the subject occupies in the weekly schedule and by dividing the sum of the products by the sum of the multipliers. Failures are reckoned as fifth groups. The limit for the first group is 1.30; for the second group, 2.20; for the third group, 3.20; for the fourth group, 4.20.

(7) The rank of a student in his class depends on his grade in recitations and examinations; and on his punctuality and constancy in attendance upon all exercises of instruction.

(8) Any student taking an examination out of the regular time is assigned to the group next lower to that to which he would be entitled, unless excused by the Faculty.

(9) Conditions must be removed within six months after being incurred or no credit will be allowed for the course. Not more than one trial is allowed any student to remove a condition.

(10) Students conditioned in three studies with three different instructors, provided that the failures amount to fifty per cent of the total number of semester hours each is taking, or if conditions cumulate twenty semester hours, are dropped.

(11) Students whose attendance upon classroom and other required exercises of the College is continually unsatisfactory will be dropped from the roll.

(12) Absences from a course, when exceeding a stated number fixed by the Committee on Absences, will result in a corresponding reduction of credit.

Attention is also directed to the following action of the Board of Trustees:

"If the presence of any student seems to be undesirable, his name may be dropped from the roll, even though no charges be brought against him." (From the By-Laws of Lincoln University Ch. VI., Sec. 12, adopted by the Board of Trustees, June 1, 1909.)

EXPENSES

Fees, Deposits and Expenses

Regulations Governing Payments. Bills for the first semester are due when the student enters. Bills for the second semester will be sent out early in February and should be paid promptly upon presentation. No student will be continued unless his bill is paid or satisfactory arrangements made for deferred payment.

Matriculation Fee. A matriculation fee of five dollars shall be paid by every new student entering the College.

Late Registration Fee. A fee of three dollars shall be paid for unexcused late registration.

Graduation Fee. A graduation fee of five dollars must be paid at the beginning of the second semester of the Senior year.

Examination Fee. A fee of one dollar shall be paid for each examination for the removal of conditions.

Deposits. A deposit of fifteen dollars if sent upon notification of admission will reserve a room in the dormitories. If the room is claimed at the opening of the University in September (see calendar for the current year), the deposit will be credited on the bill. If not claimed by that date, the deposit is returnable, provided the Business Manager is notified not later than October 1st.

A deposit of five dollars must be paid by all students at entrance to cover possible damage to University property.

A deposit of five dollars per year for breakage is required from all students who take the course in chemistry.

Tuition Fee. The charge for tuition is one hundred and ten dollars per year.

Room Rent. All rooms are provided with necessary articles of furniture, including sheets and blankets. The rent:

inclusive of electric light and steam heat is from thirty dollars to seventy-five dollars per year, depending on location.

Library Fee. A fee of five dollars per year is charged for the use of the privileges of the University Library.

Medical Fee. The medical fee is five dollars per year. This entitles the student to free consultation and treatment in all ordinary cases of illness. In protracted illness or where extraordinary amounts of medicine are necessary, the expense must be borne by the student.

Athletic Fee. The athletic fee of five dollars per year must be paid by all students. This fee entitles the student to the services of the physical director and to free entrance to all games played on the University campus.

Young Men's Christian Association Fee. This fee amounts to five dollars per year and must be paid by all students. It entitles the student to all the privileges of the Young Men's Christian Association, including free entrance to all lectures and entertainments.

Board. All students, except in extraordinary cases, take their meals at the McCauley Refectory. The charge is four dollars per week.

Laundry. The laundry fee is twelve dollars per year. It entitles the student in all necessary laundry work during that period.

Text Books. Text books are furnished at cost through the University Book Store and charged on the student's bill. They will cost ordinarily from fifteen to twenty dollars per year.

The following table is a summary statement of the necessary expenses, excluding matriculation and graduation fees, deposits and text books:

Tuition.....	$110.00
Room, including electric light and steam heat....	30.00 to $75.00
Library Fee.....	5.00
Medical Fee.....	5.00
Athletic Fee.....	5.00
Y. M. C. A. Fee.....	5.00
Board, 36 weeks at $4.00 a week.....	144.00
Laundry.....	12.00
Total.....	$316.00 to $361.00

Scholarship and Other Aid

The College has a scholarship endowment fund of limited amount. From its income grants are made to needy and worthy students. All applications for such aid should be made to the President of the University.

The work in the dining halls and about the grounds and buildings is done in part by the students. In this way a limited number of students can earn towards payment of their bills from fifty to one hundred and thirty dollars per year. Application for this work must be made to the Business Manager before the beginning of each collegiate year.

Graduation and Other Honors

The commencement speakers are chosen as follows: The valedictorian is chosen from one of the first three general groups of the Senior class; after the valedictorian has been chosen the Latin salutatory is awarded to the student whose individual rank is highest; orations are then assigned to the class with special reference to their qualifications as speakers as well as on the ground of scholarship, but one oration honor will be assigned on qualification for speaking alone apart from group standing.

The first and second general groups in the Freshman, Sophomore and Junior classes constitute the general roll of honor of the class, and are published in the University catalogue with the names in each group arranged in alphabetical order.

Prizes

The following prizes are offered annually for proficiency in the work of the several departments of collegiate study:

The Mason Prize in Latin, founded by Dr. Alvin S. Mason, Salem, N. J., awards fifteen dollars to the student who has shown most improvement in the study of Latin.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to J. W. Hoywood, Jr., of the Class of 1928.

The Bradley Prize, of a gold medal, to that member of the Senior Class who has maintained the highest average standing in selected branches of Natural Science.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to T. R. Espy, of the Class of 1928.

The Mrs. Learh Stanford Memorial Prizes in Mathematics, of a first medal, or its value, fifteen dollars in gold, to the student standing highest, and a second medal, or its value, ten dollars in gold, to the student standing second in the courses in Analytic Geometry and Calculus, given by Dr. J. Thomas Stanford, of the Class of 1891.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to R. H. Parson, first, of the Class of 1930 and G. W. Lee, second, also of the Class of 1930.

The William Myers Slowe Prize, in Mathematics, of ten dollars to the student standing highest in the courses in Mathematics of the Freshman year. This prize is given through the generosity of Miss Charlotte E. Slowe, of Wilmington, Delaware, in memory of her brother, Dr. William Myers Slowe, of the Class of 1897.

Awarded in 1927-1928 equally to G. W. Hunter of the Class of 1931 and B. V. Thompson of the Class of 1931.

The Rodman Wanamaker Prizes in English Bible, of four Bibles, one in each class, given by the late Rodman Wanamaker to those students who, in the judgment of the Professor of English Bible, have done the best work. No students eligible to take the prize twice in his University course.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to L. H. Murray and C. T. Valentine of the Class of 1928; to E. Neal and J. M. Coleman of the Class of 1929; to S. Lynton and F. B. Diggs of the Class of 1930; and to J. T. Sydnor and J. Davis of the Class of 1931.

The Annie Louise Finney Prize, given by Dr. John M. T. Finney, Baltimore, Md., awards annually fifty dollars to that student of the College, who, in addition to maintaining a creditable standing in scholarship, has best exemplified in his character, conduct and influence, the ideals of Lincoln University.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to R. H. Hill, of the Class of 1928.

The Junior Orator Prizes, of two gold medals marked I and II. respectively, are awarded to the two successful contestants in the Junior Orator Contest, held on the morning of Commencement day.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to E. Neal first, and J. P. Perkins, second, of the Class of 1929.

The Elizabeth H. Train Memorial Prizes in Oratory, given in 1919, by the Rev. William P. Finney, D. D., in memory of Elizabeth H. Train, award fifteen dollars to the best speaker and ten dollars to the next best in a public Sophomore Oratorical Contest.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to C. T. Holloway, first, and F. L. G. Turner, second, of the Class of 1930.

The Theodore Milton Seldon Memorial Prize, of a gold medal, given by NU Chapter Alpha Phi Alpha, awarded to the Freshman making the highest scholastic average for the year.

This prize is given in memory of Theodore Milton Seldon; a former student of Lincoln University; founder of the Delta Rho Forsenic Society; reviser of the Alma Mater Song; instructor in Chemistry; winner of the Annie Louise Finney prize. Lincoln, A. B., '19; A. M. '20; Phi Beta Kappa, Dartmouth, '21; member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to F. A. DeCosta.

The Class of 1900 Prize, of ten dollars, given by the Class of 1900 to that student who in the judgment of the Faculty has acquitted himself most creditably in the intercollegiate debates.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to R. H. Hill, of the Class of 1928.

The Freshman-Sophomore Debate Prize, of a silver cup, provided in 1917 by the Alumni of Baltimore, Md., through Daniel G. Hill, of the Class of 1917, to be awarded in an annual debate between representatives of the Freshman and Sophomore classes.

In 1927-1928 the contest was won by the Sophomore team, F. B. Diggs, A. B. Lee, and E. T. Jones.

The Kappa Alpha Psi Prizes in Oratory, given by the local chapter, Epsilon, of the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, award annually a silver loving cup to the best speaker and a gold medal to the next best, in a Freshman Oratorical Contest.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to F. A. DeCosta, first, and L. E. Rogers, second, of the Class of 1931.

The Delta Zeta Chi Keys, for excellence in Intercollegiate Debating were awarded in 1927-1928 to F. B. Diggs, F. A. DeCosta, A. M. Gibson, and F. L. G. Turner.

The Robert Fleming Labaree Memorial Prize in Social Science. This prize of twenty-five dollars is awarded annually to a student of social science in the two upper classes taking one or more courses in that department during the current year. The prize is awarded on the basis of:

(a) Scholarship. No one ranking lower than second group for the year is eligible.

(b) The best dissertation of not more than 3,000 words, on an assigned theme.

Students in either Social or Political Science are eligible this year to compete for the prize. The themes for the dissertation in 1928-1929 are:

(1) Present economic problems in Liberia.

(2) The relation of the Kellogg pact to permanent world peace.

(3) The place of recreation in College life:—its possibilities and dangers.

(4) Is the prevailing system of installment buying sound economic policy?

Awarded in 1927-1928 to C. T. Valentine, of the Class of 1928, with honorable mention of R. H. Hill of the Class of 1928.

The Class of 1915 Prize, the interest on one hundred dollars, is awarded on recommendation of the Faculty Committee on Athletics to that student in the graduating classes of the odd years who has best combined scholarship and athletic distinction.

The Class of 1916 Prize, the interest on one hundred and twenty-five dollars, is awarded on recommendation of the Faculty Committee on Athletics to that student in the graduating classes of the even years who has best combined scholarship and athletic distinction.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to S. T. Young of the Class of 1928.

The Edward Lynwood Coberth Memorial Prize, founded by the Rev. E. W. Coberth and Mrs. Coberth in memory of their son, who would have graduated in 1924, awards twenty dollars in gold to that member of the Senior Class, who, during his college course, has shown the most humanitarian interest in his fellow students.

Awarded in 1927-1928 to J. L. Clarke, of the Class of 1928.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

In the following list of the courses of instruction, it should be noted that courses in parentheses are omitted in 1928-1929, but will be given in 1929-1930, that the hours mentioned are sixty-minute periods, except in laboratory work, when they are one hundred and twenty-minute periods; and that the hours, except where the exception is indicated, are hours a week for an academic year. The courses are arranged alphabetically without reference to origination of departments.

Astronomy

1. (Elementary Astronomy. 3 hours. First semester.)
Professor Cole.

A course in descriptive astronomy, illustrated by lantern slides, and by the use of the telescope for observation of the heavens. Moulton, Introduction to Astronomy.

Bible

- 1, 2. Old Testament History. 1 hour. Professor Hodge.
- 3, 4. The Apostolic Age. 1 hour. Professor Hodge.
- 5, 6. Life of Christ. Gospel of Matthew. Gospel of John.
1 hour. Professor Hodge.
- 7, 8. Miracles and Teaching of Christ. 1 hour. Professor Hodge.

The Bible is the text-book for all but one of the courses. In Freshman year the authorship and purpose of the writers as well as the lives of the principal Old Testament characters are studied. In Sophomore year the history of the apostolic church, based on the book of Acts, and the Pauline epistles, is studied. In Junior year the Gospels of Matthew and John are analyzed and the life and teachings of Christ are studied. In Senior year the topic is the evidences for the Resurrection together with a study of the teachings and miracles of our Lord with a view to estimate properly his character and his claims.

Biology

1. General Biology. 2 hours lecture. 1 hour laboratory.
First semester. Professor Peters.

A course of Biology introductory to the advanced courses, with a general course of structure, physiology and classification of life forms. Text-books: Woodruff, Foundations of Biology; Baitzell, Manual of Biological Forms; Menge, General and Professional Biology, Vol. I; Giesen, Laboratory Manual of Zoology.

2. General Biology. 2 hours lecture, 1 hour laboratory. Second semester.

A continuation of course one.

3. Mammalian Anatomy. 2 hours lecture, 1 hour laboratory. First semester. Professor Peters.

A careful study of the gross anatomy of mammals with the cat as the material for dissection. Text-book: Davison, Mammalian Anatomy; Bigelow, Guide to the Dissection of the Cat.

4. Comparative Anatomy of Vertebrates. 2 hours lecture. 1 hour laboratory. Professor Peters.

A study of the comparative anatomy of vertebrates with special reference to the dogfish, perch, mud-puppy, turtle, bird and man. Text-books: Menge, General and Professional Biology, Vol. II; Pratt, Vertebrate Zoology.

5. General Embryology. 2 hours lecture, 2 hours laboratory. First semester. Professor Peters.

A course in chordate embryology comparative in the study of blastulation, gastrulation and organogeny. Text-book: McEwen, Vertebrate Embryology.

6. Histology. 2 hours lecture. 2 hours laboratory. Second semester. Professor Peters.

A course in normal human histology. Text-book: Shaeffer, Essentials of Histology.

7. (Bacteriology. 2 hours lecture, 2 hours laboratory. Second semester.) Professor Grim.

A course considering generally the bacteria, molds and yeasts of chief economic importance, the micro-organisms pathogenic to man, immunity, staining, cultural and physiological differentiation. Text-book: Buchanan, General Bacteriology.

Botany

- 1, 2. (General Botany. 2 hours lecture, 1 hour laboratory.) Professor Grim.

A year course devoted to the study of general structure and physiology of plant life, the fundamental life histories of the plant groups, together with identification of local flora by use of key. Text-book: Bergen and Davis, Principles of Botany.

Chemistry

- 1, 2. General Inorganic Chemistry. 3 hours recitation and lecture, 1 hour laboratory. Mr. Espy.

This course is designed for students with no previous preparation in Chemistry. Text-books: Smith-Kendall, General Chemistry; Belcher and Colbert, Experiments and Problems for College Chemistry.

- 3, 4. General Inorganic Chemistry. 3 hours recitation and lecture, 1 hour laboratory. Professor James.

This course is designed for those students having had a full year of Chemistry in High School. The aim of the courses in General Chemistry is not only to lay an adequate foundation for future work in this field but also to present the cultural aspects of the Science of Chemistry. Text-books: Deming, General Chemistry; Deming and Arenson, Exercises in General Chemistry.

- 5, 6. Qualitative Analysis. 1 hour lecture, 2 hours laboratory. Professor James.

Text-book: Engelder, Elementary Qualitative Analysis.

- 7, 8. Organic Chemistry. 2 hours lecture, 1 hour laboratory. Professor James.

Text-books: Lowy and Harrow, Introduction to Organic Chemistry; Lowy and Baldwin, Laboratory Manual of Elementary Organic Chemistry.

9. Quantitative Analysis. 1 hour lecture, 2 to 4 hours laboratory. First semester. Professor James.

Text-book: Talbot, Quantitative Chemical Analysis.

10. Bio-Chemistry. 2 hours lecture, 1 hour laboratory. Second semester. Professor James.

Economics

1. Elementary Economics. Principles. 3 hours, first semester. Professor Labaree.

2. Elementary Economic Problems. 3 hours, second semester. Professor Labaree.

Text-books are used in both these courses, supplemented by lectures and discussions.

3. American Economic History. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Labaree.

Open to those who have taken Elementary Economics.

4. Money and Banking. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Labaree.

Open to those who have taken Elementary Economics.

5. (Labor Problems. 3 hours. Second semester.) Professor Labaree.

Open to those who have taken Elementary Economics.

Education

1. History of Education. 3 hours. First semester. Mr. Yeomans.

A brief general survey of the history of education based on Graves, A Student's History of Education.

2. Introduction to Education. 3 hours. Second semester. Mr. Yeomans.

3. The Principles of Secondary Education. 3 hours. First semester. Mr. Foster.

Text-book: Inglis, Principles of Secondary Education.

4. Secondary School Administration. 3 hours. Second semester. Mr. Foster.

5. Psychology of Teaching. 3 hours. Second semester. Mr. Foster.

Text-book: Johnson, High School Administration and Supervision.

- 6, 7. Practice Teaching. 3 hours. Professor Miller.

This course consists of two hours' practice under the supervision of instructor and one hour of conference.

English

1. Composition. 3 hours. First semester. Mr. Boothby.

This course is required of Freshmen. A review of the fundamentals of English; technical grammar, word study, sentences and paragraphs. Lectures, required readings, recitations, themes and conferences with instructor.

2. Rhetoric. 3 hours. Second semester. Mr. Boothby.

This course is required of Freshmen. A continuation of the study of the paragraph. A thorough study of narration, exposition and description. The last part of the semester is devoted to the study of the essay, short story, and journalism. Weekly themes, recitations, and required readings.

3. Survey of English Literature. 3 hours. First semester. Mr. Sweet.

A study of the types of English literature from its beginnings to the Romantic movement. Collateral readings in the types studied, weekly reports, and one extended paper. Elective course for Sophomores.

4. Survey of English Literature. 3 hours. Second semester. Mr. Sweet.

A continuation of English 3. English literature from the beginning of the Romantic movement to the twentieth century. Elective course for Sophomores.

5. Shakespeare. 3 hours. First semester. Mr. Yeomans.

An elective course for Juniors. A study of the development of Shakespeare's art as revealed by the plays. Lectures, readings, reports, essays, recitations.

6. The Essay. 3 hours. Second semester. Mr. Yeomans.

An elective course for Juniors. A study of the essay, classical and modern. Lectures and recitations, reports and theses, original essays, class and outside readings.

7. American Literature. 3 hours. First semester. Mr. Boothby.

A survey of the general course of our literature from the colonial period to the middle of the Nineteenth century. Required reading, class reports and informal lectures. Two long research papers required. One paper must be published in some newspaper or periodical.

French

1, 2. Elementary French. 3 hours. Professor Osborne.

Rudiments of the grammar; pronunciation, inflection, and elements of syntax. Composition and translation.

3, 4. Intermediate French. 3 hours. Professor Osborne.

Reading of the novels or short stories of such authors as Daudet, Maupassant, About, and Loti. Grammar review and composition one hour a week.

5. Practical Phonetics. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Osborne.

A study of the pronunciation of modern spoken French. The sounds and their production, the stress-group, and intonation of the spoken phrase.

6. Le classicisme. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Osborne.

Les oeuvres et la doctrine. Preciosite et naturalisme.

Geology

1. (Geology. 3 hours, recitations and lectures. Second semester.) Professor James.

Text-book: Cleland, Geology, Physical and Historical.

German

1, 2. Elementary German. 3 hours. Professor Osborne.

Thorough drill in pronunciation, inflection, elements of syntax and their application. Translation of simple prose and exercises in composition.

3, 4. Intermediate German. 3 hours. Professor Osborne.
Reading of such authors as Wildenbruch, Keller, Riehl, and Arnold.
Grammar review and composition.

4. Classical Literature. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Osborne.

Translation of some of the more popular German classics, such as Schiller, Wilhelm Tell; Goethe, Hermann und Dorothea; Lessing, Minna von Barnhelm. Grammar review and composition.

Greek

1, 2. Elementary Course and Anabasis, I and II. 4 hours.
Professor Ridgley. Instructor Stevenson.

Beginners' course.

3. (Xenophon, Anabasis, III and IV. 3 hours. First semester.) Professor Ridgley.

4. (Homer, Odyssey. 3 hours. Second semester.) Professor Ridgley.

5. Platonic Dialogues. 2 hours. First semester. Professor W. H. Johnson.

6. (Euripides, Medea. 2 hours. Second semester.) Professor W. H. Johnson.

7. Studies in the Greek Gospels. 2 hours. Second semester.
Professor W. H. Johnson.

8. (Herodotus. 2 hours. First semester.) Professor W. H. Johnson.

Lectures on Greek literature, history and archaeology are given in connection with the authors read.

History

1, 2. (History of Great Britain. 3 hours) Professor Labaree.

The history of Great Britain down to the present time is studied with text-book and collateral reading. In the second semester special emphasis is placed on the expansion of the British Empire and on the development of English constitutional and political institutions.

- 3, 4. (History of Modern Europe. 3 hours.) Professor Labaree.

The first semester covers the period from the Discovery of America to the end of the Napoleonic Wars. The second semester deals with the history of the Nineteenth century and of the Twentieth down to current events. A syllabus is used and wide collateral reading is required.

- 5, 6. Ancient and Mediaeval Europe. 3 hours. First and second semesters. Professor Labaree.

- 7, 8. History of the United States. 3 hours. First and second semesters. Professor Labaree.

The special emphasis of this course is on the development of constitutional ideas from Colonial days to the present.

Hygiene

- 1, 2. (Freshman Hygiene. 1 hour.) Professor Grim.

A course devised to acquaint the beginner in college, by a simple presentation, with the fundamental principles requisite to proper bodily function and to stir up individual interest in applying these principles. Text-book: Williams, Personal Hygiene, Applied.

Latin

- 1, 2. Elementary Latin. 4 hours. Mr. Fontaine.

- 3, 4. Second Year Latin. 3 hours. Mr. Diggs.

5. Vergil Aeneid. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Miller.

6. Cicero, De Senectute and De Amicitia. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Miller.

7. Livy. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Miller.

8. Horace, Odes and Epodes. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Miller.

For those who desire to continue the study of Latin, a cycle of six semester-courses has been arranged. Each course is devoted to the study of one type of Roman literature with emphasis upon one author representing the type. The courses, covering in a general way the principal forms of Latin letters, are as follows:

9. (Epistolary Literature. Cicero and Pliny.)
10. (Historical Literature. Tacitus, Annals.)
11. Comedy. One play of Plautus and two plays of Terence. 2 hours. Second semester. Professor Miller.
12. (Roman Philosophical Literature. Cicero's Tusculan Disputations.)
13. Satire and Epigram. Juvenal and Martial. 2 hours. First semester. Professor Miller.
14. (Latin Literature of Christianity. Minucius Felix and Augustine.)

Mathematics

1. College Algebra. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Wright and Mr. Espy.
Permutations and combinations; determinants; theory of equations; solution of numerical equations.
2. Trigonometry. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Wright and Mr. Espy.
Definitions and relations of functions; proofs of formulas; transformation of trigonometric expressions; theory and use of logarithms; solution of right and oblique triangles with practical applications.
3. (Solid Geometry. 2 hours. First semester.) Professor Wright.
4. Analytic Geometry. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Wright.
Equations and loci; the straight line; Conic Sections.
5. Calculus. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Wright.
A first course in differential and integral calculus with analytical, geometrical, and physical applications.
6. Solid Analytic Geometry and Calculus. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Wright.
Geometry of curves and surfaces in space. Advanced Calculus.
7. Calculus. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Wright.
Advanced Calculus; introduction to differential equations.

8. (Advanced Algebra and Theory of Equations. 3 hours. First semester.) Professor Wright.
Introductory course.
9. (Teaching and History of Mathematics. 3 hours. Second semester.) Professor Wright.

Music

1. Musical Theory. 2 hours. Mr. Dorsey.
This course aims to impart thorough instruction in the rudiments of music and the fundamentals of musical theory, including a study of system in musical notation.

Philosophy

- 1, 2. Modern Philosophy. 3 hours. Professor G. Johnson.
This course aims to survey the field of modern philosophy and to acquaint the student with the philosophic background of present-day thinking.
3. Analytical Psychology. 3 hours. First semester.
Professor G. Johnson and Mr. Foster.
A summary review of the subject matter and methods of modern psychology.
4. Logic. 3 hours. First semester. Professor G. Johnson.
A course in elementary logic, consisting of a thorough study of the principles with a survey of recent theories.
5. Ethics. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor G. Johnson.
A careful and systematic analysis of elementary conceptions in ethics, with a summary review of the principal types of ethical theory.
6. Philosophy of Plato. 3 hours. Second semester.
Professor G. Johnson.
A course intended to acquaint the student with the principal dialogues in which Plato develops his doctrine of Ideas.

Physics

- 1, 2. General Physics. 2 hours lecture and recitation.
Professor Cole.
Elective for all classes. First semester, Mechanics, Heat. Second semester, Electricity, Magnetism, Sound and Light. Students electing Physics 1, 2 will also elect Physics 3, 4. Text-book: Spinney, A Text-book in Physics, third edition.

- 3, 4. Laboratory Physics. 2 hours laboratory. Professor Cole.

Elective for all classes to accompany Physics 1, 2. This course may be elected separately in special cases by permission of the instructor. First semester, Mechanics, Heat and Molecular Physics. Second semester, Electricity and Magnetism, Sound and Light. Text-book: Taylor-Watson-Howe, General Physics for the Laboratory.

5. Light. 2 hours lecture and 2 hours laboratory. First semester. Professor Cole.

1, 2 prerequisite. Laboratory measurements include the following: wave-lengths of light, indices of refraction, the ratio e-m for cathode rays, electronic charge e by the oil-drop method. Text-book: Reese, Light.

6. Electricity and Magnetism. 2 hours lecture and 2 hours laboratory. Second semester. Professor Cole.

1, 2 prerequisite. Text-book: Timbie, Elements of Electricity, revised edition.

- 7, 8. (Theoretical Mechanics). 3 hours lecture. Professor Cole.

Elective for upper classmen. Mathematics 5, 6, or 7 prerequisite. This is a problem course. Text-book: Smith and Longley, Theoretical Mechanics.

Political Science

1. (Federal Government. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Wright.)

A study of the government of the United States. Munro, The Government of the United States.

2. Principles of Political Science and Comparative Government. 3 hours.

Bryce, Modern Democracies.

3. (International Relations. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Wright.)

Buell, International Relations.

4. (Political Parties. 3 hours. Second semester.) Professor Wright.

Holcombe, The Political Parties of Today.

Speaking

1. Argumentation and Debate. 3 hours. Mr. Belcher.

The principles of Argumentation, i. e., the fundamentals of Debate studied by means of text-books and exercises in Brief-drawing. This course also includes the Study of Parliamentary Law.

2. Public Speaking. 3 hours. Mr. Belcher.

In this course the Art of Public Speaking is studied by means of text-books; and the many suggestions offered are critically employed in a practical manner.

Sociology

1. (Anthropology. 3 hours. First semester.) Professor Labaree.

Kroeber's text-book is used, and all phases of primitive life are made the subjects for special papers.

2. (Race Relations. 3 hours. Second semester.) Professor Labaree.

The course is an effort to apply to the race problems of our country, more particularly to those of the Negro, some of the principles of Sociology and Economics, and to link them up with world race problems. The work is carried on largely by papers and discussions.

3. Principles of Sociology. 3 hours. First semester. Professor Labaree.

4. Problems of Sociology. 3 hours. Second semester. Professor Labaree.

Special attention is given to the problems of the Family and of Crime.

Spanish

- 1, 2. Elementary Spanish. 3 hours. Mr. Jason.

- 3, 4. Intermediate Spanish. 3 hours. Mr. Jason.

The courses in Spanish aim to impart such a knowledge of the language and literature as will serve the purpose of a liberal education and the practical needs of those who may have to use Spanish in business or teaching. The first year is given to drill in the grammar and exercises in compositions and conversation; the second year continues the work in conversation with the reading of selected works in literature and the use of Spanish in business correspondence.

PART III. THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

HISTORY OF THE SEMINARY

The entire work of Lincoln University had its origin in the heart and conscience of the Christian Church. It sprung from a clear, intelligent conviction that the Negro race, here and in Africa, must be supplied with a class of well-educated men thoroughly trained. Ashmun Institute was granted a charter in the year 1854 to give academical and theological education to young men of the Negro race. It was dedicated to this object, and opened for instruction December 31, 1856. Ashmun Institute continued its work for nine years. It was without a fixed curriculum or graded classes, and yet it did excellent work. No student was formally graduated, nor was any honorary degree bestowed. Theology was taught with the academic studies, and in this way about thirty men were trained, of whom twelve were ordained to the ministry in this country. Five of these became missionaries to Africa.

Ashmun Institute was organized before the Civil War. It was planned for free Negroes only, the slaves being utterly inaccessible. When they were set free, the Church recognized that Ashmun Institute was quite inadequate to supply their great and pressing need of churches and schools, preachers and teachers. Therefore, in 1866, Lincoln University was organized, the same as Ashmun Institute in spirit and scope, but with a wider compass. In 1867 the Theological Department was begun with a provisional course of study for two years. This course was extended in time to cover the usual three years of Theological studies, and in 1871 the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America adopted the following action: (Minutes for 1871, p. 581): "RESOLVED, That the General Assembly accept the oversight of the Theological Department of Lincoln University, as provided in the amended charter of that Institution."

The relations of the Theological Seminary to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. remain to the present unchanged. While thus under this ecclesiastical control, the Seminary welcomes to its class rooms young men of all denominations seeking a preparation for the ministry, since its aim is to impart to all called and qualified men, regardless of sectarian affiliation, a thorough training in all the departments of theological study, and thus to fit them for larger usefulness in the service of the Gospel.

Terms of Admission

Credentials. In order to be admitted to matriculation and enrollment as a student in the Seminary, the applicant for admission must present to the Dean of the Seminary, the following credentials:

1. A letter from the pastor or session of the church of which he is a member, stating that he is in full communion with the church, is of good conduct and high character, and that he possesses aptitude for theological study. Or, if an ordained minister, a letter from the church body to which he belongs, stating that he is in good and regular standing.

2. A college diploma or a certificate of the completion of a regular course of academic study.

Blank forms upon which to make application for admission will be furnished on request by the Dean of the Seminary.

Admission to Advanced Standing. A student who has taken part of the theological course in another seminary will be received to the same stage of the course on his presentation of a letter from that seminary certifying to his good standing, stating the courses he has completed, and regularly dismissing him to this Seminary. He must also comply with the terms of admission set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

Graduate and Other Students. A student who has completed the regular course of study in another seminary may be admitted provided he present a certificate to that effect from that seminary. No graduate of any theological seminary, however, shall be eligible to scholarship aid.

An ordained minister who has not completed the regular course of study in a theological seminary will be admitted to the privileges of the Seminary on the presentation of a letter from a presbytery or other equivalent ecclesiastical body, stating that he is in good and regular standing in his church.

The hospitality of the Seminary may also be extended to accredited persons who desire to pursue special studies.

Description of the Courses of Study

Old Testament Languages

Professor Ridgley

1. Hebrew Grammar and Reading. 4 hours.

The Junior year is given to acquiring a knowledge of the language. The grammatical principles and a good working vocabulary are gained by a rapid survey, using Yates, A Beginning Grammar of the Hebrew of the Old Testament. The text-books for a more thorough acquaintance with the language are: Davidson, Introductory Hebrew Grammar, and Hebrew Syntax. During the latter part of the year selections from the historical books are read.

2. Advanced Hebrew. 1 hour.

This is a review and drill course in rapid reading and grammatical study of selected passages of prose and poetry.

3. Biblical Aramaic. 2 hours. Omitted, 1928-1929.

This is an elective course in Biblical Aramaic. The Aramaic portions of Ezra and Daniel are carefully read. Selections from the Elephantine Papyri are also studied.

Old Testament

Professor Ridgley

1. Old Testament History and Archaeology. 2 hours.

An outline of the history of the Hebrew people during the period covered by the Old Testament books is developed during the first year's course. The relation of Israel to the surrounding nations is discussed, and the light cast upon the Scriptural narratives by the revelations of recent archaeological discovery is made to illuminate the message of the sacred writers and to brighten the pages of their records. The revised edition of Price, The Old Testament and the Monuments, is used, together with a synopsis to guide the student in the use of the literature in the field.

2. General Introduction to the Old Testament. 1 hour.

The topics covered include the Canon and Text of the Old Testament, and Introduction to the Pentateuch, the Historical Books, the Poetic Books, and the Prophetic Books. The work is conducted with the help of a syllabus requiring constant reference to the English Bible and to standard reference books. The course is covered by lectures throughout the three years, and one year hour of special introduction during the Middle or Senior year.

3. Biblical Theology of the Old Testament. 2 hours.

This course is intended to equip the student to develop a Biblical Theology, and to meet the critical and theological problems which all thoughtful study of the Bible must encounter. Davidson, Theology of the Old Testament, is used as a guide in discussion. The course is open in alternate years to the Middle or Senior classes.

4. (Exegesis of the Psalms and Other Poetic Books. 2 hours.)

In exegesis emphasis is placed chiefly on the method of discovering the exact meaning of the Old Testament scriptures. Attention is also given to the homiletic value of correct exegetical methods. This course and the one following extend over the Middle and Senior years.

5. Exegesis of Amos and Isaiah. 2 hours.

New Testament

President W. H. Johnson

1. General Introduction to the New Testament. 1 hour.

The Canon; Textual Criticism, manuscripts, versions, printed text, principles of criticism and history of the text.

2. Introduction to Pauline Epistles. 2 hours.

3. The Life of Christ. 2 hours. First semester.

4. Critical Study of Galatians. 2 hours. Second semester.

5. Exegesis of Romans. 2 hours. First semester.

6. Exegetical Studies in the Fourth Gospel. 2 hours. Second semester.

7. Apostolic History, Studies in Acts. 2 hours. First semester.

8. Social Teachings of Jesus. 2 hours. Second semester.

Each of the courses outlined above in the New Testament Department are offered once during a student's course in the Theological Seminary.

An attempt is made to cover the field of New Testament study as thoroughly as can be done in the time allotted. Exegesis is given the most prominent place and special effort is made by the careful reading of selected books to train the student in a sound exegetical method, which shall be of practical value to him in the ministry. It is believed that facility in reading the Greek Testament must in most cases be gained, if at all, during the Seminary course, and much attention is paid to sight reading and the rapid reading of extended passages. In some of the courses the place of a final examination is taken by original papers on appropriate topics, prepared by the students and read before the class.

English Bible

Professor Hodge

1. The Life of Christ. 2 hours.

In this course a harmony of the Gospels is used. The order of events and the relation of the narratives to one another are given special study together with the question of authorship and time of writing of each.

Church History

Professor Miller

1. Church History to the Reformation. 2 hours.
2. Church History from the Reformation to the Present. 2 hours.

The study of Church History occupies the Senior and Middle classes in a course covering two years of study from the founding of the Church to the twentieth century.

The design of the course is to trace the growth of the Church in missionary expansion, in doctrinal definition in organization in life and worship, with just emphasis on the critical and epochal events, that the student may be able to grasp the salient features of ecclesiastical history and estimate intelligently the values on the great movements which urge the Church forward in its universal mission.

Systematic Theology and Christian Evidences

Professor G. Johnson

1. Systematic Theology. A. 2 hours.
2. Systematic Theology. B. 2 hours.
3. (Systematic Theology.) C. 2 hours.

The aim of the courses in Systematic Theology is to impart an adequate knowledge of Christian doctrine in general and the system of theology embodied in the Westminster Standards in particular.

The effort is made in the time allotted for instruction to survey the entire field. The course marked A is given each year to the Junior class and takes up the Definition, Method and History of Systematic Theology; Religion; Revelation, Inspiration and Rule of Faith; Doctrine of God. The courses marked B and C are open to Middlers and Seniors, and alternate each year, course B comprising the doctrines of Man, Sin, Person and Work of Christ; and course C comprising the doctrines of Regeneration, Faith, Justification, Sanctification, Church and Means of Grace; the Last Things.

The consulting room in the Library is well supplied with works on Theology, past and present. In the reading room a number of representative periodicals devoted to the subject may always be found.

4. Christian Evidences. 2 hours.

This course consists of a study of the evidences for the supernatural origin and the absolute character of Christianity. The history of evidences is also considered, together with the present situation. Instruction is given by lectures, syllabus, required readings, and reports.

Practical Theology and Homiletics

Professor Hodge and Mr. Yeomans

1. Homiletics. 2 hours. Mr. Yeomans.

This is a course in the preparation and delivery of sermons. The instruction is by text-book and lectures; practical preparation of outlines and discourses; class conferences and criticisms of the sermons with reference to content, style, and delivery. Required, first year.

2. Homiletics. 2 hours. Professor Hodge.

This course, prescribed, second and third years, consists of a study of the theory of preaching by reading and analyzing the sermons of the great preachers of the Christian Church, together with the composition and delivery of sermons followed by criticism.

3. Pastoral Theology and Church Government. 2 hours,
Professor Hodge.

Pastoral Theology consists of a discussion of the problem of the pastor and the various phases of pastoral work. Text-book, James M. Hoppin, Pastoral Theology. In addition the students are required to read collaterally and to prepare theses on assigned topics. Methods of personal soul-winning with memorizing of Scripture texts are also considered, together with the principles and forms of Church government.

Missions

Professor Labaree

1. (History of Missions. 1 hour. One semester.)

2. (Comparative Religions. 1 hour. One semester.)

3. Study of Mission Fields. 1 hour.

This course covers two years, and includes the following: 1. A brief history of missions since apostolic times. 2. Study of the great religions of the world from the missionary standpoint. 3. A more particular investigation of the practical problems and missionary success in at least two of the world fields. Africa will be one of the fields studied in the two years' course. In addition to the text-book work, special themes will be assigned for study and written papers.

Diploma and Certificates

Students who hold the degree of A. B. or its academic equivalent from an approved institution receive the degree of Bachelor of Sacred Theology (S. T. B.) on completion of the course of study prescribed therefor. Students who do not possess the requisite academic credentials but complete this course receive a certificate of graduation. A student who takes part of this course may receive a certificate setting forth the period of his residence and the courses completed by him.

Course of Study for the Degree of Bachelor of Sacred Theology

The course of study prescribed for the degree of S. T. B. is designed to provide a complete and well rounded training for the Gospel ministry. The studies are arranged in logical sequence and whenever possible this order should be followed. These studies are distributed through three years in such manner that thirty semester hours should be taken each year. A minimum of ninety semester hours is required, to be taken from the following:

FIRST YEAR

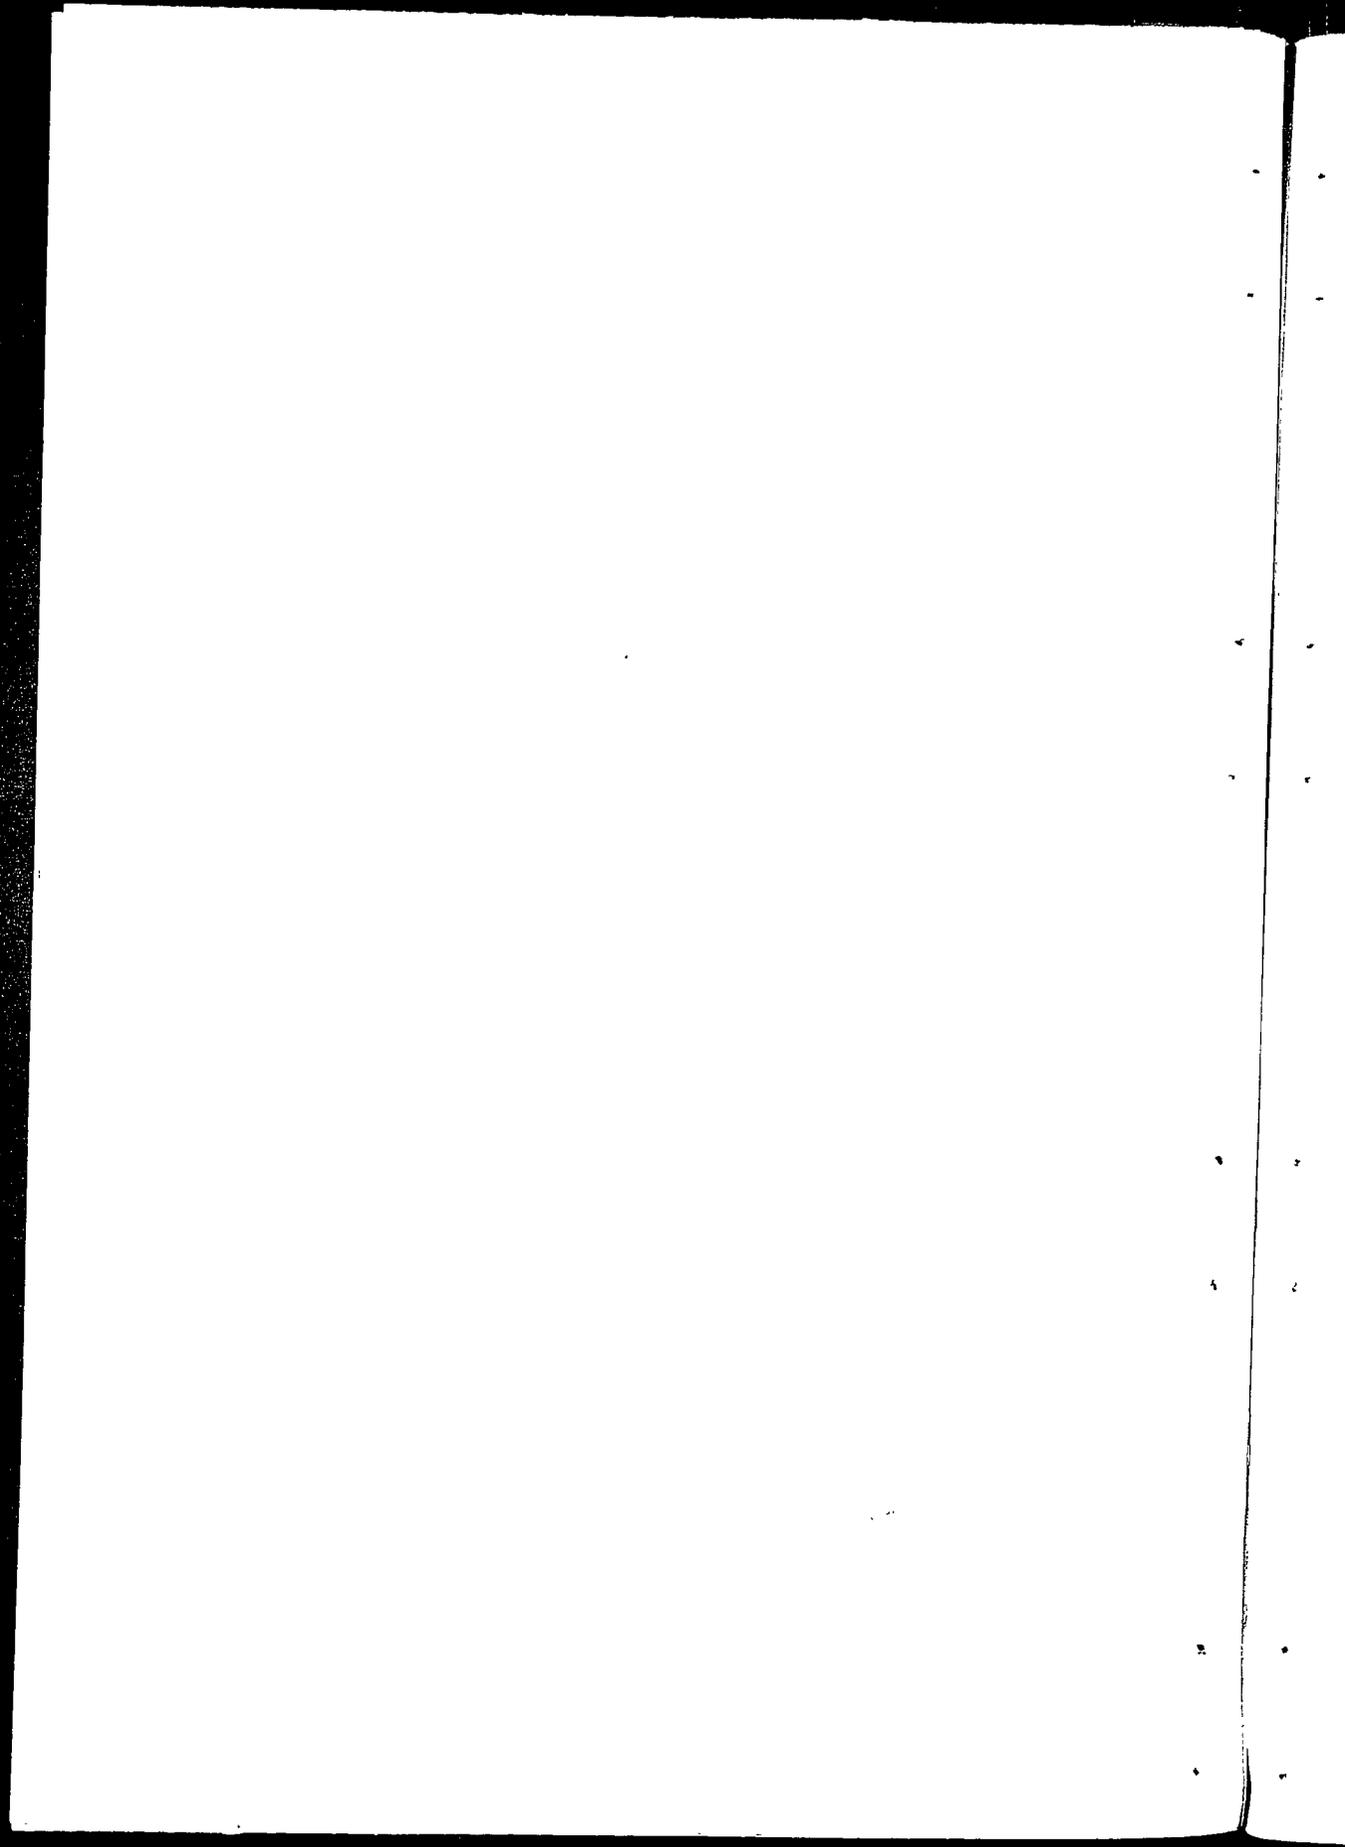

Hebrew.....	8 hours
Old Testament History and Archaeology.....	4 hours
Old Testament Introduction.....	2 hours
New Testament Introduction and Exegesis.....	4 hours
English Bible.....	4 hours

English Bible.....	4 hours

No student will be advanced into the Middle or second year class who has not completed at least 26 semester hours; and no student will be counted a member of the Senior or third year class who has not completed at least 56 semester hours.

Many courses in the College department of the University are open to Seminary students, and may be profitably pursued by qualified men. All such optional work, however, must be approved by the Faculty of the Seminary and the College Committee on Electives.

Work in Elementary Greek may not be counted toward the degree of S. T. B.

Seminary Charges

The following are the charges for the full year, representing the actual cost of the student to the Seminary:

Tuition.....	$110.00
Board for 30 weeks at $4.00 a week.....	120.00
Room rent including electric light and steam heat....	25.00
Medical Fee.....	5.00
Library Fee.....	5.00
Athletic Fee.....	5.00
Y. M. C. A. Fee.....	5.00
Laundry.....	10.00
Total.....	$285.00

All tuition charges are met by scholarship funds of the Seminary. The remaining charge of $175.00 may be reduced by further scholarship aid; and further reduction may be made for service rendered to the University, for which payment will be made at a fixed rate. The minimum amount required in cash from each student is $85, payable at the opening of the Seminary year, unless a special arrangement is made with the Business Manager of the University. Text books are furnished at cost and charged in the bill. They will cost ordinarily about fifteen dollars.

Seminary Year

The Seminary year is made up of two semesters; the first beginning with the opening of the University and closing with Christmas holidays; the second beginning after the Christmas holidays and closing at the date set for the Theological Commencement in the University Calendar.

Examinations will be held at the close of each semester. Students are graded on the same plan as students in the College department. Reports of each semester's work will be given to each student by the Dean of the Seminary. These reports will also be made to Presbyteries and other properly constituted church authorities when desired.

Prizes

The Miss Lafie Reid Prizes in Sacred Geography, consisting of ten dollars, is given to that member of the Junior class who maintains the best standing in the course of Sacred Geography and passes the best examination. A second prize of five dollars is also given in the same subject.

The R. H. Nassau Prize, consisting of fifty dollars, is given to that member of the Senior class whom the Faculty shall select as best exemplifying the ideal of the Theological Department of Lincoln University in scholarship and personality. The student selected shall present an essay of not less than 500 words based on the life and work of the donor, the Rev. Robert Hamill Nassua, M. D., S. T. D., of the West Africa Mission. Awarded in 1927-28 to C. C. Brown.

The Rodman Wanamaker Prizes in English Bible. Mr. Rodman Wanamaker gives at each semi-annual examination three Bibles, one in each of the three classes, to those students, who, in the opinion of the Professor of the English Bible, have done the best work. No one shall be eligible to take the prize twice in his University course. Awarded 1927-1928 as follows: Senior Class, E. A. Lockhart.

Religious Services and Activities

The Seminary students enjoy all the religious privileges of the University. Voluntary devotional and mission study give spiritual impulse, and community service affords practical outlet to the personal religious life of the students.

The Theological Lyceum, of which all theological students are members, meets every week.
