Today: Mandatory Physical Plant Stack Testing

Please be aware there may be increased noise and steam coming from the main boiler located at the Physical Plant today. This is part of a test that monitors and reports the emission exhaust of the boilers. Part of the test was completed in January and the remainder of the test is scheduled today. This test must be completed every three years for air emissions compliance. There is nothing harmful about this test and will be completed by the end of the day. If you have questions or concerns, please contact the Physical Plant at 484-365-8061.
