2017 Graduate Opportunities Conference

On April 21 - 23 there will be a 2017 Graduate Opportunities Conference at the Clarion Hotel Conference Center. We are asking for 8 Junior or Senior students who've graduated from a Philadelphia public high school. Graduate students can also participate. We will also be providing a number of workshops to assist the students on how to move into graduate and professional schools. Finally, we will provide all our students with direct counseling on securing financial support in order to pay for their academic advancement. The only cost for participation is a $100/student registration fee. Rooms and meals are compliments of the Conference. There is no cost for your Graduate School to participate in the Graduate School Fair.
