Lincoln University Commencement Decorum Agreement

The administration, faculty, and staff of Lincoln University congratulate you on your academic achievement and wish to ensure the commencement ceremony will be an appropriate conclusion to this phase of your education.

The Lincoln University commencement ceremony is marked by dignity and significance where the actual conferring of degrees personifies hard work and dedication on the part of everyone involved.

As part of the serious nature of the ceremony, students are expected to maintain a measure of decorum appropriate to the occasion and exemplify Lincoln Pride.

All students must follow the rules of the commencement venue and ceremony:

- Students must arrive at least one hour prior to the scheduled start. Late students will not be allowed to participate. EXCEPTION: SACE students report at 8:30 am.
- Students must wear full academic regalia (mortarboard, tassel, gown, and hood, if applicable for your degree).
- Select business attire (neutral colors) as a wardrobe to wear underneath academic regalia and for all commencement events. This may include: dresses, pants, skirts, comfortable dress shoes, neckties, and other business attire that one would wear to a formal interview or professional event.
- Cellular phones must be placed in “silent” mode or turned off during the entire ceremony.
- Graduates are expected to refrain from disruptive behavior including, but not limited to stepping, stomping, hopping, or chanting in the audience and on the platform.
- Signs, bottles, cans, drugs, and alcohol are strictly prohibited. Bottled water will be provided by the commencement marshals.
- No alcohol or illegal drugs will be permitted in or around the venue. Graduates who overtly appear to be under the influence of either will be removed from the lineup and will not participate in the ceremony.
- Graduates will not be permitted to carry children or pets to or across the stage with them.
- Students are expected to return to their seats after the onstage presentation and remain seated for the duration of the ceremony.

Please be advised that any student not exemplifying proper commencement decorum may be subject to discipline under the Student Code of Conduct, and may have their degree and/or transcript withheld. Additionally, non-compliance with this agreement may result in immediate removal from the ceremony.
