General Housing Selection

• Monday, March 23 through Friday, March 27
• Students will not be granted to pick housing early, regardless of how early you arrive.
  • Students will be granted access in number order.
• Students must bring:
  • valid student ID, and
  • housing lottery number email
Housing Selection

- For students coming with a roommate:
  - Students should come at the time of the lowest priority number out of the two or three.
- For students who come in groups of 5 for ASL:
  - If there is not enough space remaining, students will have to come back during their times.
Buildings

- ASL: Co-ed suite-style living spaces, air conditioning, and kitchen. 5- and 4-person suites available (usually fills up the first day)
- LLCN and LLCS: Co-ed building with kitchen area, doubles and singles
- LLCGQ: Air conditioning unit in room, double rooms with bathrooms
- Laney Hall: Air conditioning throughout building, doubles and singles
- Rendall Hall: Air conditioning throughout building, singles, doubles, triples, and quads
- Hansberry: Upper-class single spaces available in Hansberry
- Thorn Flats: Juniors and seniors with 2.5 GPA
What if I can not make my housing time?

- You may send a friend to pick your housing assignment as long as they have your ID# and housing lottery email
What if I miss the payment period?

- You may still pay your housing fees starting March 3.
- There will be a period for students who did not select housing during the initial process to pick their housing for next year.
