The meeting was called to order by Dean Joseph at 12:30 p.m. The meeting was held on Zoom. Quorum was achieved at the start of the meeting.

A. APPROVAL OF AGENDA
   a. The agenda was approved via votes taken in the Chat section of Zoom.

B. RATIFICATION OF MINUTES
   a. Approval of the minutes from the September 1, 2020 regular Faculty meetings was approved via votes taken in the Chat section of Zoom.

C. ACTION ITEMS
   a. Nominations Committee conducted the nominations process for the remaining vacancies on various Faculty Standing Committees. Election slate would be forthcoming for Faculty to vote on the positions.

D. PRESIDENT’S REMARKS
   a. The President encourages faculty to look at the Standing Committees to see how best they can serve the Faculty
   b. The President has met with the new Faculty Council. The Administration will work with the Faculty Council on a budget request. The President has also met with the new Faculty union leadership.
   c. The University is poised to offer students the opportunity to return to Campus in March, but it is unpredictable. An equitable way to offer opportunity to return will be determined by what happens with COVID-19 during the coming winter.
   d. The President will work with departments to plan as if the Spring semester will be offered remotely. Planning for remote allows change of plans if students are allowed to return, but will also allow the University to stay fully remote if no return to Campus is possible.
   e. Moodle contract will expire at the end of year and Canvas LMS contract has already started. CETL will provide Faculty support to move to Canvas prior to the Spring semester.
   f. University has continued to provide technology to students, but there are challenges because the entire world has gone to learning on remote technology.
   g. It is still not safe to hold the Commencement for both 2020 and 2021 classes. Plans will be updated.
