FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. How many credits must I register for to be considered for financial aid during the summer session?

A. During summer session, you must register for at least 6 credit hours to be considered for financial aid.

Q. Does PHEAA offer state grants for students enrolled in summer school?

A. Undergraduate students who are Pennsylvania residents may be eligible to receive a PHEAA state grant during the summer session. Students must complete a PHEAA application for summer payment. For additional information regarding eligibility, contact PHEAA at 1-800-692-7392.

Q. Am I eligible to take out a loan for summer school and if so, what is the maximum amount and how is it determined?

A. If you did not borrow your full eligibility loan amount during the fall/spring you will be eligible to take out the maximum amount based on your current classification. For instance, if you are considered a junior (60+credits) your eligibility loan amount is $5,500 subsidized & up to $7,000 unsubsidized, if parents were denied the Federal Direct PLUS Loan. If you only borrowed, $5,500 subsidized and $2,000 unsubsidized, you will be eligible to borrow a maximum amount of $5,000 unsubsidized for the summer.

Q. If I receive a loan during summer session, will it affect my financial aid for the upcoming academic year?

A. No, you will not be borrowing based on your loan eligibility for the academic year.

Q. Will Federal Work-Study be available to students enrolled in summer school?

A. There is no Summer Federal Work-Study available for 2021.
