ALMA MATER

Dear Lincoln, Dear Lincoln,
To thee we’ll e’er be true.
The golden hours we spent beneath
The dear old Orange and Blue,
Will live for e’er in memory,
As guiding stars through life;
For thee, our Alma Mater dear,
We will rise in our might. (Repeat)
For we love ev’ry inch of thy sacred soil,
Ev’ry tree on thy campus green;
And for thee with our might
We will ever toil
That thou mightiest be supreme.
We’ll raise thy standard to the sky,
Midst glory and honor to fly.
And constant and true
We will live for thee anew,
Our dear old Orange and Blue.
Hail! Hail! Lincoln.

HISTORICAL OVERVIEW

Founded in 1854, Lincoln University is the oldest college in the United States to have as its original purpose the higher education of youth of African descent. Lincoln was established under the auspices of the Presbytery of New Castle in 1853, as the Ashmun Institute, for the scientific, classical and theological education of young Black males. Today, the University provides a superior education to people of all races and genders. On April 29, 1854, the institution received its charter from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In 1866, Ashmun Institute became Lincoln University. The institution’s main objective was to provide a superior liberal arts education to all students. Caucasian students were also encouraged to enroll, and two graduated in the first baccalaureate class of men in 1868.

In 1972, Lincoln received state related status and became Lincoln University of the Commonwealth System of Higher Education. Today, Lincoln University is an internationally oriented, state-related, four-year college of liberal arts. The University has a 422-acre campus surrounded by the rolling farmlands and hills of southern Chester County, Pennsylvania. Lincoln is located on Baltimore Pike, approximately 45 miles south of Philadelphia, 25 miles west of Wilmington, Delaware, and 55 miles north of Baltimore, Maryland.

Those who enter Lincoln’s historical halls will find themselves sharing a vast and rich heritage, ultimately culminating in a most rewarding and challenging future. Today, Lincoln University offers a liberal arts and sciences-based undergraduate core curriculum as well as selected professional and graduate programs in an environment marked by small classes, quality instruction and a demonstrated concern for each student. The Lincoln experience is greatly enhanced through an intermingling of cultures, nationalities, and races.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Discrimination and Harassment
Lincoln University is committed to providing a work environment and learning community that is free from all forms of unlawful discrimination. The University does not tolerate discrimination against any individual, whether actions, words, jokes, or comments, based on an individual’s sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, genetic information, disability, or any other legally protected characteristic. Harassment based on any of these characteristics is a form of discrimination and also is prohibited. The University’s policies regarding discrimination, harassment, and sexual misconduct can be accessed on the University’s Human Resources policies webpage.

Any individual who violates the University’s policies prohibiting unlawful discrimination or harassment shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion or termination of employment.

Title IX
It is the policy of Lincoln University to comply with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, which prohibits sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, and sexual violence in any of the University’s programs and activities. The University also complies with the provisions of Title IX that protect individuals from retaliation for filing a complaint, testifying, or participating in any way in an investigation, proceeding, or lawsuit alleging sex discrimination. The University’s policies regarding Title IX can be accessed on the University’s Human Resources Policies webpage.

Title IX Coordinator
The University’s Title IX coordinator is Mr. Gerard Garlic, who is responsible for overseeing complaints of sex discrimination, including sexual harassment. Therefore, Mr. Garlic will:

1. be available to meet with students who believe sexual harassment or assault has occurred;
2. ensure that complaints are handled through consistent practices and standards; and
3. upon receiving notice of potential acts of sexual harassment or assault, either personally investigate the incident or oversee the investigation

The Title IX Coordinator may also provide assistance to the institution’s law enforcement employees on appropriate responses to reports of sexual violence. In these cases, the coordinator should have access to school law enforcement investigation notes and findings unless access would compromise a criminal investigation. Furthermore, the coordinator is responsible for reviewing all complaints received to identify and address any patterns or systemic problems.

Reporting Sexual Misconduct
If you experience or witness sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, report it immediately to Public Safety 484-365-7211 or your Title IX Coordinator, Mr. Gerard Garlic, Room 126, Wellness Center, 484-365-7402, ggarlic@lincoln.edu. If the Title IX Coordinator is unavailable or you believe it would be inappropriate to contact that person, you should immediately contact Public Safety or any other member of management (Vice Presidents, Deans, Directors, Associate/Assistant Directors, or Supervisors). You can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal or retaliation. All allegations of sexual misconduct will be quickly and discreetly investigated.

A person also may file a complaint with the Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights regarding an alleged violation of Title IX at www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/complaintintro.html or by calling 1-800-421-3481.
Getting Assistance

Emotional trauma is severe after a sexual assault. The violation, loss of trust, and loss of control can have a serious long-term impact. It is not unusual for a person to withdraw, feel guilty or distrustful. However, there are many people who understand and know places where support is available while one is recovering. The University’s Office of Counseling Services and Women’s Center is available to offer assistance to victims of sexual misconduct. If you need assistance, please call 484-365-7807 or 484-365-7233. Assistance is also available at the Crime Victims Center of Chester County at 610-692-7273.

Getting Medical Attention

Even if the student ultimately decides not to report a sexual assault to the police, it is still very important to seek medical attention immediately for possible internal injuries or sexually transmitted diseases. Also, the collection of medical evidence becomes critical in the event of prosecution. Therefore, it is important to seek medical attention promptly and to refrain from:

1. taking a shower or washing any part of the body
2. douching
3. brushing teeth
4. drinking liquids
5. changing clothes or changing sheets before seeking medical help

This will prevent the destruction of valuable evidence. At the Emergency Room, the doctor will collect hair samples, semen samples, and other evidence, including clothing. Hence, a victim should bring a change of clothing to wear home. The police will be contacted to take possession of the samples until the victim makes a decision about whether or not to press charges. If the victim chooses not to have the examination, medical attention at the University’s Student Health Services may be considered. The Health Services staff can be reached at 484-365-7338.

Lincoln University-Sponsored Educational Programming

Lincoln University sponsors a number of educational and awareness programs regarding sexual assault (including acquaintance rape) and violence in relationships. Information sessions are provided by the Department of Public Safety, Counseling Services, the Women’s Center, and Health Services. For more information, visit the University’s policies under the Human Resources webpage.

Friends and Acquaintances

If someone who has been sexually assaulted comes to you, encourage the person to report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator, seek medical attention, and pursue counseling. You may also report incidents to:

- Office of Public Safety: 484-365-7211
- Police Off-Campus: 911
- Crime Victims Center Sexual Assault Hotline: 610-692-7273

Due Process

A student accused of a serious offense shall be notified in writing of the specific charge before the case is considered. The student shall be notified in writing of the time and place of the consideration of the case, and shall have reasonable time and opportunity to prepare a defense and the right to be represented by a person of the student’s choice consistent with University policies. The student shall also have the opportunity to testify and to present witnesses and evidence. The University reserves the right to issue an interim suspension any time an incident occurs and the University determines that the presence of an individual(s) on campus threatens the life, health, safety and well-being of that individual(s) or the campus community.

Absences from Class

Lincoln University uses the class method of teaching, which assumes that each student has something to contribute and something to gain by attending classes. It further assumes that there is much more instruction absorbed in the classroom that can be tested on examinations. Therefore, students are expected to attend all regularly scheduled class meetings and should exhibit good faith in this regard.
For the control absences, the faculty adopted the following regulations:
Four absences may result in an automatic failure in the course.
Three tardy arrivals may be counted as one absence.
Absences will be counted starting with whatever day is specified by the instructor but not later than the deadline for adding or dropping course. Students are responsible for all work missed.

In case of illness, death in the family, or other extenuating circumstances, the student must present documented evidence of inability to attend classes to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management. In such cases the student is responsible for all work missed during those absences.

Departments offering courses with less than full-course credit will develop and submit to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management a class attendance policy in keeping with the above.

Students representing the University in athletic events or other University sanctioned activities will be excused from class(es) with the responsibility of making up all work and examination. Instructors will receive written notification from the University office sponsoring said activity prior to the event.

Academic Standing

The Office of the Registrar monitors students’ academic standing and applies statuses of Good, Warning, Probation and Dismissed based on policy statements contained herein. When warranted, academic standing will be revised following the fall and spring semesters. Academic Standing is not revised as a result of grades earned during summer sessions.

A student on Academic Probation must meet with his/her advisor to develop an academic plan that includes a listing of courses to be taken and support services for purposes of raising the cumulative GPA (CGPA) to an acceptable level. A student on Academic Warning will be able to self-register; a student on Academic Probation must be registered by his/her advisor.

A student placed on Academic Probation (has earned a minimum of 30 credits and has a CGPA below 2.0) may not enroll in more than 13 credits during a semester or seven credits during a summer session without written permission from his/her academic advisor and cannot represent the student body or the University in public or official capacities, including debates, dramatic, choral, or musical performances, intercollegiate athletics, student publications, elective or appointive positions in campus government, on-campus committees, cheerleading, managing athletic teams, fashion shows, fraternity and sorority organizations, leadership positions on campus, or similar activities.

If a student is in Good Standing in August (all first year students as well as others with 2.0 CGPA or higher), then s/he is eligible to participate in extracurricular activities for that academic year. Should a student on Academic Probation (fall semester) earn a 2.0 or higher CGPA at the end of the fall term, s/he would be in Good Standing (thus removing all sanctions). Any re-admitted student (having achieved at least the minimum CGPA listed in the table below but still below the Good Standing criterion of 2.0 CGPA will be placed on Academic Probation and is subject to the conditions assigned to this designation.

Upper class students (having earned 30 or more credits) would receive an Academic Warning after the fall term if the CGPA falls below 2.0 but no limitation of extracurricular activities are imposed for the spring semester. Upper class students are placed on Academic Probation in August when their CGPA falls below 2.0 and they have earned a minimum of 30 credits; these students would be barred from participating (representing) in the aforementioned extracurricular activities.

The occurrence of Academic Warning, Academic Probation or Academic Dismissal is not recorded on the transcript of a student.

Change of Information

It is the student’s responsibility to provide the Registrar’s Office with current information concerning local and permanent mailing addresses and telephone numbers. Any changes of information during the academic year must be provided to the Registrar’s Office immediately to ensure receipt of all official University correspondence.

Property Loss/Damage Insurance

The University does not carry insurance to cover the loss or damage to the personal property of students, faculty or staff. Accordingly, valuable articles should be covered by personal property insurance policies. The University requires all students to purchase personal property insurance unless they provide documentation showing they have other coverage. Under no circumstances will the University reimburse students for loss, theft or damage of their personal property.

Motor Vehicles

Motor vehicle registration information is available in the Office of Public Safety located in Modulars. Freshmen are not allowed to have a vehicle on campus during their first year. All vehicles must be registered each year in August, and vehicles must be registered within 3 days of the semester or by Labor Day at the latest. You must provide a valid driver’s license, proof of insurance and valid registration for the vehicle. Vehicles will be registered between 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday–Friday only. Vehicles must be approved by the Dean of Students. Under no circumstances will any vehicle receive registration stickers without appropriate documents. No exceptions.

Traffic and Parking Regulations

Each student is responsible for compliance with the rules and regulations governing the registration and use of motor vehicles as printed in the campus traffic regulations. This information may be obtained from the Office of Public Safety. Students should familiarize themselves with these regulations.

Distribution of Literature on Campus

Distribution of commercial literature or leaflets by organizations not recognized by The Office of Student Life and Development, or registered with the University, or by individual students or people not officially connected with the University is not permitted on University-controlled property without the approval of the Vice President of Student Affairs or his/her designated representative. Literature and materials for distribution on university-controlled property must not contain language that is libelous, obscene, or in violation of federal, state, or local laws.

Policy on Peaceful Assembly

Lincoln University acknowledges the rights and privileges of students or groups of students to gather on University property for the purpose of peaceful assembly. The University expects the rights and privileges of all persons to be respected at such gatherings.

“Peaceful assembly” is defined as any purposeful gathering on campus, in or outside a University building or facility, by one or more persons whose conduct is peaceful and is in accordance with the University rules, practices, and law. Peaceful assembly includes meetings, speeches, debates, demonstrations, marches, vigils, sit-ins, rallies, protests, and similar meetings or gatherings that do not threaten or violate policies and rules; interfere with the conduct of University business, regular schedules or events; infringe on the rights of others; endanger the health and safety of others; or damage or destroy property.

The University requires that persons engaged in such assemblies on campus conduct themselves in a manner that will not impair the health or safety of any individual, disrupt the normal conduct of University affairs, or damage and destroy property. Any act by student demonstrators that interferes with the rights of others, disrupts or impairs the normal functioning of the University, damages or destroys property, or impairs health or safety is grounds for suspension or dismissal from the University.

Persons planning or initiating such assemblies to be conducted on the University campus are requested to identify their groups and to state their purpose in advance to the appropriate University personnel through the Dean of Students. Areas may be reserved, if available, for the accommodation of such assemblies. Arrangements for any assembly which involve the use of University buildings not available for general use must be made with the appropriate person. The organization sponsoring a speaker or conducting an assembly assumes the responsibility for maintaining the University’s policies on peaceful assembly and student freedom of expression.

Staff assistance is available in the planning of such events in ways to eliminate or minimize the possibility of disruption. Lincoln University Office of Public Safety may be required to assure that the rights of all concerned are protected.

Demonstrations are prohibited in classrooms during hours they are scheduled for use, or at any locality when conducted in a manner, which interferes with the educational function of the University. Demonstrations are further prohibited in any special use facility. Demonstrators refusing to vacate such premises when directed by the instructor in charge or by authorized staff are subject to immediate disciplinary action and arrest under applicable city and state laws.

The University has a “zero balance” policy. All bills must be settled in full prior to registration. Students enrolled for the 2016-2017 academic year must have a minimum of 80% of the total charges paid by financial aid and/or payments on or before July 31, 2016. Center for Advising & Student Achievement (CASA)
The Learning Resource Center has been renamed the Center for Advising & Student Achievement or CASA (located on the 2nd floor of Wright Hall) effective May 4, 2015. Under this new title the Center will comprise four components to include Academic Advising, the Learning Commons, FYP (Freshman Year Program), and ACT 101 Achievement Program and the Early Monitoring Alert Program (EMAP). In addition to these components the Math Learning Center (MLC) and the Writing and Reading Center (WRT) will be housed in CASA and function under the direction of the Math and English Departments. The services provided by each component are outlined below.

Academic Advising
The mission of the Academic Advising Center is to ensure that all students receive the assistance and guidance they need to select and successfully complete course requirements to attain their undergraduate degrees and enter today’s work force and/or prepare for professional or graduate school. To this end the Academic Advising Center, in conjunction with the First Year Program, will assign all incoming freshmen to pre-major advisors who will also be their instructors for the First Year Experience course (FYE) that is required of all freshmen. The advisor will guide them in selecting a major attuned to their special interests, talents, and abilities, and as part of the FYE course will help them to understand all the requirements for the chosen major and to make a four year plan for degree completion. Students will be grouped in sections of FYE based on their intended major so the instructor/advisor can focus on helping the students to understand the requirements for a major or group of related majors. Undecided students will be grouped together and will be guided in the process of exploring major options. At the end of the first year, students will be asked to complete a major application in order to officially declare their major; they will then be assigned to a faculty advisor in their major. If a student is still not sure of a major at this point, they may continue with their pre-major advisor until they have made a decision, but they must declare a major by the time they are going into their junior year.

The Academic Advising Center also serves as a resource center for students, faculty, and staff. Students are welcome to come to the Center to inquire about satisfactory academic progress requirements (SAP), to obtain information on requirements for the different majors at Lincoln, or to just talk to an advisor about a pressing academic concern or issue. The Advising Center is located on the 2nd floor of Wright Hall within the Center for Advising and Student Achievement (CASA). Students are welcome to stop by or call 484-365-7624 or 7627 to make an appointment.

Since advising is considered a joint responsibility, it is important for students to make contact with their advisor and know his/her office hours. Students must see their advisor each semester before they schedule their classes for the following semester; however, they should seek advising whenever they have any questions and not wait until they find themselves in a dilemma. Also, it is expected that students become knowledgeable about requirements for their major and come prepared with a planned schedule of classes when they meet with their advisor to have the hold lifted in WebAdvisor to permit them to schedule. Advisors stand ready to assist their advisees with decision-making as it relates to their major, listen to their concerns and recommend a remedy or course of action to resolve issues that might impact completion of degree requirements, refer them to another office or campus agency as need dictates, inform them of internship or study abroad opportunities, review their degree audit, assist them in developing an academic improvement plan, write recommendations for employment or graduate or professional school.

The Learning Commons
The Learning Commons at Lincoln University, located on the 2nd floor of Wright Hall, is committed to assisting the Lincoln community in building a culture of academic excellence. In order to develop the foundation for academic excellence, the Learning Commons provides professional and peer tutoring, online tutoring, placement testing, a computer lab, student development workshops, and hosts the Act 101 program. Additionally, The Learning Commons collaborates with the Writing and Reading Center and the Math Learning Center through providing professional tutoring support.

The Learning Commons offers students a special place that students can use to study and conduct research with assistance from peers and professionals, as well as access to computers and the internet. Using a student-centered approach, assistance is provided for all students utilizing best practices based on published, peer-reviewed evidence, ongoing systematic assessment, collaboration and alignment with academic curriculum, current technologies, cultural competence, and an appreciation for diverse learning abilities to provide preeminent services to students and the Lincoln Community.

Tutoring. Professional and peer drop-in and appointment tutoring for all students are provided in the Learning Commons from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Fridays. All professional and peer tutors complete a training program that has been awarded the International Tutor Training Program Certification (ITTPC) from the College Reading and Learning Association (CRLA). Learning Support Specialists provide not only professional tutoring but also afford professional support for the Writing and Reading Center (WRC) and the Math Learning Center (MLC).

Workshops. Student development workshops provide academic-related assistance to students with the purpose of supporting the students’ transition to college life and their attainment of their University degree. Several workshops are offered: Study Skills, Test Taking, Textbook Reading, Time Management, and Plagiarism.

Act101 Achievement Program. The Honorable K. Leroy Irvis was the first Black Speaker of the House for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and in the country. He created the Higher Education Equal Opportunity Program, Legislative Act 101, to assist motivated Pennsylvania residents to attend and be successful in college. The Act 101 Achievement Program is designed to offer low-income, at-risk Pennsylvania residents a chance to be successful at the Lincoln University. Students are supplied with academic, professional, and personal counseling to assist them with the adjustment to the rigors of a college lifestyle. The Act 101 program provides assistance for eligible Pennsylvania resident students with the intention of increasing their college success through intensive and intrusive advising and counseling, academic and personal coaching, action meetings, cultural activities, and success workshops. The program also provides reference letters and recommendations, and hosts a textbook loan program.

_Chi Alpha Epsilon Honor Society._ The Chi Alpha Epsilon Honor Society is hosted by The Lincoln University’s Act 101 program. Eligible students who earn a 3.0 for at least two consecutive semesters may be inducted into the Chi Alpha Epsilon National Honor Society.

First Year Program

The yearlong First Year Program is designed to assist first year students during their transition from pre-college to college life. Simply put, we want to improve your chances of succeeding and staying in college.

The primary goals in this program are to:

- Provide a common learning experience through the First Year Experience (FYE 101) course, which will address the challenges incoming students face and familiarize students with the opportunities available at The Lincoln University.
- Provide Intrusive and Appreciative Advisement to all first year students through consistent contact with your academic advisor, which also serves as your FYE 101 course instructor. Each FYE 101 section is assigned a Peer Mentor to help your transition to collegiate life be a smooth as possible.
- Provide opportunities for students to improve the necessary critical thinking skills associated with collegiate courses through rich class readings and discussion, Freshman Assembly, University-wide convocation, and other co-curricular activities/programs.
- Provide co-curricular learning opportunities in your residential living environment through the Residential Learning Communities to build strong bridges between the academic and student affairs. Interact with the faculty at the Major Mixers to learn more about how the academic departments and majors can help you reach your goals. Learn more about financial literacy and how to make the most of using school loans to pay for your education.
- Promote the development of values aligned with Lincoln’s rich tradition and history.

Early Monitoring Alert Program (EMAP) and GradesFirst

The Early Monitoring Alert Program provides services to students who do not meet the University’s Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards to be continued on financial aid. The EMAP program is designed to equip them with the skills and knowledge they need to raise their GPA’s to the required level.

Grades First is a web-based program used to monitor student’s class attendance and academic performance and allows for communication to take place between various campus units such as professors, advisors, students, and peer tutors. Students can use GradesFirst to make appointments with their advisers, or to request tutoring if needed.

Writing and Reading Center & Math Center

The Writing and Reading Center (WRC), and the Math Learning Center (MLC), are located in CASA, however operate under the auspices of the English (Language and Linguistics) and the Math departments. These two centers will provide academic assistance to students enrolled in English and math courses as need dictates.

Living Learning Center

Lincoln University’s Thurgood Marshall Living Learning Center, which opened in August 1996, serves as a connecting point for the whole campus. It is a 150,000-square-foot, multipurpose facility that houses the central campus dining hall and rooms for 336 male and female students. It also houses computer labs, a small conference center, conference rooms for 50 to 75 people, seminar rooms for 25, a reading room/study hall, computer room, and an audio-visual viewing/listening room, as well as rooms for visiting faculty and other short-term guests.

Office of International Programs and Services

The Office of International Programs and Services provides services to all students, faculty, and staff who are citizens of other countries. This office also handles admissions for international students (undergraduate and graduate), and prepares students with the necessary information to facilitate their enrollment into the University. Exchange programs are facilitated for Lincoln students with the United States International University located in Nairobi, Kenya.
The Office of International Programs and Services promotes and prepares students for study abroad opportunities. The first Lincoln University sponsored study abroad program commenced in Japan in 1998. In 2004, Lincoln began sponsorship of an academic program in the Czech Republic. The newly-sponsored program in Namibia, Southern Africa commenced in 2010. And, most recently, Lincoln assumed sponsor and co-sponsor of programs in Turkey and India. Crisis Management for Students Studying and Traveling Abroad

1. Introduction and Purpose
The safety and well-being of students (and/or “travelers”) while studying and traveling abroad is of utmost importance to the University; therefore, the risks involved with studying and traveling abroad must be considered through proactive emergency protocol to prepare travelers to effectively manage crises while abroad.

This Crisis Management Policy for Students Studying and Traveling Abroad (“Policy”) is designed for Lincoln University students studying and traveling abroad on short-term trips. Each situation will demand a unique response based on the specific emergency after weighing all of the factors involved then taking appropriate action within these guidelines.

This Policy includes components that emphasize the approaches of avoidance and prevention with mechanisms to help travelers better manages emergency situations involving illness, accidents, crimes, natural disasters and potentially violent political situations. While it may not be possible to plan for all contingencies while traveling abroad, this Policy outlines health and safety procedures for those participating in international activities sponsored or sanctioned by the University and similar events that pose an immediate threat.

2. Lincoln University recommends that travelers maintain a copy of this Policy while traveling abroad.

3. Definitions

A. Emergency or Crisis: An unforeseen combination of circumstances or the resulting state that calls for immediate action; an urgent need for assistance or relief, a situation or occurrence of a serious nature, developing suddenly and unexpectedly, and demanding immediate action.

B. Minor (Routine) Emergencies: Minor or routine emergencies tend to be the most common while students are studying abroad. Such include:
- Pick-pocketing or petty theft (purse/wallet)
- Lost Passport
- Minor illness or injury (e.g. cold, flu, sprain, broken arm, toothache, etc.)
- Family emergency back home (e.g. family member illness)
- Consequence of alcohol use
- Power failure

C. Major Emergencies

Political upheaval and terrorism are some of the events the U.S. State Department considers to be serious emergencies or crises. When they occur, a task force is set up in Washington D.C. to deal with the situation and provide assistance to U.S. citizens abroad.

Major emergencies are more severe than minor (routine) emergencies, but typically happen less frequently. Examples of major emergencies include:

- Natural disasters (hurricane, earthquake, fire, flood, etc.)
- Health epidemics (Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS) or flu, etc.)
- Serious injury or illness that requires hospitalization or makes it impossible for the Participant to continue his/her travel;
- Being a victim of a serious crime (e.g., assault or rape);
- Being accused of committing a crime;
- Death of a faculty/staff member;
- Sexual Harassment, Assault or Rape;
- Missing person;
- Arrest;
- Hostage situation;
- Behavior that causes or threatens harm to oneself or others; and
- Socio-political (riot, military coup, terrorist attack).

D. Perceived Emergencies

Distinguishing between a real emergency and a perceived emergency is a crucial first step. Often family and friends at home may become alarmed by a perceived emergency.
For example: floods in Northern Italy, for example, though the program is hundreds of miles away; or government instability in Ecuador, though the travelers are in Belize.

Due to media attention and incomplete information, situations abroad may be perceived in the U.S. as more dangerous than they actually are and can be as disturbing to Travelers and their family members as real emergencies that require serious and prompt action.

To evaluate an emergency consult with the U.S. Embassy or Consulate, students studying abroad should contact the On-Site Program Director (OSPD) or other program officials in the country where studying and the OIPS at Lincoln University at 484-365-7785.

E. Emergency Preparedness
Emergency preparedness is a state of readiness to respond to a disaster, crisis or any other type of emergency situation.

F. Reasonable Accommodations
Lincoln University study abroad programs endeavor to provide reasonable accommodations for students with documented disability conditions (e.g., physical, learning, psychological, etc.). A student who receives disability-related accommodations at Lincoln and is interested in a study abroad program, should contact Ms. Marlayne Manley, Director, Student Support Services, mmanley@lincoln.edu, 484-365-7290.

4. Study Abroad Pre-Departure Orientation
The Office of International Programs and Services (“OIPS”) provides students with a pre-departure orientation to openly and directly discuss many concerns. This Policy may provide helpful information to address these concerns as well. As part of the pre-departure orientation, the OIPS will help students in managing expectations and visualizations as well as intercultural adjustments they may experience while studying abroad.

During the Pre-Departure Orientation, the OIPS will present health and safety information to students including, but not limited to:

- Sexual Harassment, Rape, and Assault
- Terrorism and Anti-American Sentiment
- Drugs and Alcohol
- Maintaining Physical and Mental Health

Once students leave the United States, they are no longer covered by the laws of the US. Students are encouraged to learn as much as possible about the local laws and customs and to keep track of what is being reported in the media about recent developments in those countries.

All students traveling to foreign nations are strongly encouraged to complete the procedures below:

A. Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP)
Register with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate through the U.S. Department of State’s Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP). Registration will enable these agencies to locate students more quickly in an emergency. STEP also allows the Traveler to get routine information from the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate.

B. Maintain periodic contact with the U.S. Consulate or Embassy officials and local police in normal times (this will facilitate communications should an emergency occur).

C. Students who are not U.S. citizens should note their home embassy or consulate’s contact information.

D. Assess the program logistics for safety: student transportation, accommodations, lighting, etc.

E. Identify appropriate medical facilities in case of injury or illness including hospitals, clinics, and counselors as well as compile a comprehensive list of International Red Cross offices in the location where traveling as well as health and counseling professionals.

F. Determine the means of transportation to these medical services.
G. Read and maintain copies of all pertinent insurance policies and have insurance information available at all times in the event of an emergency (Appendices A and B).

H. Know how to communicate with and access other resources during a crisis; including:
   • Airport authorities
   • Travel agents - If using a travel agent, choose one that could potentially help make travel arrangements in an emergency.
   • Other transportation authorities (local train station, bus terminal, etc.) - If hiring a bus or contracting with a local travel agency, be informed about insurance coverage.
   • Insurance agencies
   • Telephone and other utility companies
   • United Nations Offices
   • Office of International Programs and Services
   • Local government officials and ministries
   • Local police and fire departments
   • Other local universities/colleges
   • Other U.S. Study Abroad Programs/ Organizations Volunteer agencies

I. Maintain copies of emergency contact, health history, and insurance forms while traveling - if studying abroad be sure to provide copies of these documents to OIPS before departure.

J. Have multiple methods of accessing funds (credit card, ATM, travelers checks, wire transfer, etc.). Research these in advance. For example, find out whether an in-country bank has a direct relationship with a U.S. bank, as this would facilitate wire transfers. Make sure contingency funds were factored into the program budget.

K. Become familiar with the student health insurance policy and/or any personal health insurance. Know how to access medical or evacuation assistance, how to file claims, and which conditions are excluded. Print a copy of local doctors (accepted by insurance) prior to departure and keep it with you.

L. Create an emergency evacuation plan that includes at least one alternative site that will accommodate housing for the group.

M. Know how to contact Lincoln University’s Crisis Management Team and have information readily available at all times.

N. Be aware of the laws of the host country regarding sexual assault; in some countries it is the victim who can be arrested.

O. Study abroad students will be made aware of a meeting point during on-site orientation, so that they know immediately where to go during an emergency.

5. Emergency Action Planning (EAP)
Students will develop a personal EAP (Appendix E), in collaboration with the OSPD, that will include detailed instructions that indicate possible routes from the place of residence and the sites that may be visited to a safe place. The EAP may also include other nearby places, including shops, restaurants, subway stations, with visual aids or a copy of a map in addition to written instructions. This will allow OIPS, students, and the police to better track in case of an emergency.

Students should use the following guidelines in any emergency situation.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Remain calm. Take a deep breath. A clear head is needed in order to focus on the next move.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>Assess the situation/Get advice from program staff. Identify the type of emergency situation. Contact program staff, if applicable, for advice.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Take action. Exercise good judgment. Go to the safe location identified in an Emergency Action Plan. Follow the evacuation plan/written instructions/maps developed as part of the EAP to get to a safer location where help is available. Remember available alternate transportation options.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
4. Get in touch. Once in a safer and more stable location, update OIPS and other contacts as appropriate (e.g. U.S. Consulate, emergency personnel) about your situation.

5. Wait for Assistance. Use emergency kit, if necessary while waiting for assistance.

6. Keep Trying. If unable to reach anyone to help (because phone lines are down, trapped, etc.) don’t give up. Try alternate methods of communication. If moving to another location becomes necessary, let others know the destination.

7. Move to a more permanent location. After removed from any immediate threat, regroup at a safer location, and communicated with emergency contacts. Consider transportation options and get to the appropriate location (hospital, police station, embassy/consulate, contact’s home, counseling center, etc.).

8. Stay in touch. Maintain contact and update OIPS conditions.

9. After the emergency is over, inform OIPS.

6. Emergency Evacuation
Emergency evacuation for the purposes of this Policy is defined as the immediate, and urgent, movement of people away from the threat or actual occurrence of a hazard. If the U.S. Department of State indicates it is no longer safe for Americans to remain in the area where studying or traveling, an emergency evacuation may be imposed. Issues that could warrant an emergency evacuation include a natural disaster, political event, or security crisis. If emergency evacuation is required, the Lincoln University International Crisis Management Team will work with the On-site Program Director (OSPD) to arrange for student safety. The U.S. Department of State will also provide support for American citizens abroad in the event an emergency evacuation is required. The OIPS plan with study abroad students for such a crisis prior to departure and have a pre-arranged plan in place for evacuation.

7. Managing Specific Areas of Risk
While in a foreign country, a student is subject to that country’s laws and regulations, which sometimes differ significantly from those in the United States and may not afford the protections available to the individual under U.S. law. As the US Department of State Country Specific Information explains (http://travel.state.gov/travel/cis_pa_tw/cis/cis_4965.html), penalties for breaking the law can be more severe than in the United States for similar offenses. Persons violating the law, even unknowingly, may be expelled, fined, arrested, or imprisoned.

A. Illness and Injury
For illness or injuries requiring medical care, students should contact the OSPD and area medical personnel to determine medical facility and appropriate medical care needed. Contact the insurance carrier – see Appendix A. Students are required to go to his/her doctor prior to departure, and takes a copy of their medical record on the study abroad program. This will aid the process if student needs to meet with a doctor overseas.

For these reasons, it is very important for students to contact the OSPD with concerns who will help connect students with appropriate assistance. The OSPD will facilitate travel to the US or for the student’s family if it becomes necessary.

B. Discrimination and Harassment
Incidents of unlawful discrimination and harassment can occur abroad, just as they can on Lincoln University’s campus. These types of allegations may include claims of racial, sexual or religious harassment as well as claims of unlawful discrimination on the basis of national origin, sexual orientation, disability, race, gender, religion and other groups.

Travelers need to take immediate action if he or she is being harassed or discriminated against by contacting the OSPD while traveling abroad (or at Lincoln University: contact OIPS 484-365-7785 or clundy@lincoln.edu).

C. Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, and Rape
   • Avoid overindulging in alcohol and becoming impaired.
   • Use of a buddy system to the extent practicable when out at night.
   • Avoid leaving restaurants, bars, or nightclubs with strangers and do not get into vehicles with people you do not know.
   • Don’t be too quick to trust people you have just met or don’t know well.
   • Know the local culture as well as areas to avoid reducing the likelihood of becoming a victim.
   • Immediately report any problems to the OSPD and the local authorities.

D. Terrorism or Anti-American Sentiment – in general
   • Avoid American hangouts.
   • Avoid speaking loudly in English when walking with groups of other Americans.
   • Avoid dressing in ways that identify them readily as Americans (university t-shirt, baseball hat, etc.).
   • Exercise care in how much information they give to strangers – be skeptical of new acquaintances.
   • Be alert to any danger signs such as the presence of suspicious looking strangers or unidentified packages.
   • Keep abreast of local news through the Internet, radio and newspapers.
   • In airports, bus terminals and train stations, do not linger at ticket counters; go immediately to departure area after conducting business.
   • Do not drive someone else’s car, especially across national borders.
   • Do not borrow suitcases from anyone. Do not look after cases or carry packages from anyone.
   • Remove all luggage tags or other external items that provide identification.
   • Stay in touch with families so that they know their students are safe and they know where to reach them in case of an emergency, or should an incident cause them to worry about their students’ safety.

E. Alcohol
Excessive drinking is a primary cause of a vast number of problems with students studying abroad including: brawls, rape, theft, injury, arrest, and can result in STDs, as well as depression, and other mental health problems. While studying abroad, alcohol may be more a part of the everyday culture and distance from home may lessen inhibitions. Students are encouraged to use good judgment when choosing to consume alcoholic beverages while abroad. The Lincoln University Code of Student Conduct and all regulations are applicable while students are studying abroad.

PLEASE NOTE: The legal drinking age is 18 outside the United States.

Tips for responsible use of alcohol:
   • Be aware of and abide by the customs and laws of the host country.
   • Drinks may have stronger alcohol content.
   • Avoid over-indulgence.
   • Do not become intoxicated, arrive intoxicated, or miss any scheduled events or classes due to alcohol consumption.
   • Drinking to get drunk is not a common practice in many countries abroad.
   • Do not accept drinks from unknown people.
   • Do not drink from an open container.
   • Do not accept a drink that you did not watch being made.
   • Never go home with strangers.
   • Travel in pairs or small groups.

F. Illegal Drug Use
Do not consume illegal substances. Use of illegal substances is against the law and grounds for dismissal from the Study Abroad Program. In some countries, possession of even a relatively small amount of illegal drugs can be grounds for a mandatory jail sentence or the death penalty. Remember, once ventured beyond U.S. borders, U.S. laws and constitutional rights no longer protect US citizens. Please do the following:

- Abstain from using illegal drugs.
- Review the host countries drug laws. "I didn't know it was illegal" is not an acceptable defense. Some drugs that are legal in the US may be illegal in other countries, for example, Sudafed considered illegal in Japan.
- Immediately contact the OSPD if an emergency should arise.

G. Theft Precaution

In protecting your belongings, please use the following precautions:

- Exercise extra care when studying abroad.
- Secure your personal belongings (money, cards) in a safe place when you travel and make copies of all their important documents and to not carry them in one place. A money belt is an effective way of carrying important documents when travelling.
- Make copies of your passport; leave a copy at home with someone you trust and pack additional copies somewhere apart from the originals (suitcase, jacket, etc.).
- Write down location specific telephone numbers for debit/credit cards.
- Write down account numbers and pack them somewhere apart from the originals (suitcase, jacket, etc.).
- Remember that toll free numbers generally do not work from overseas. Call providers (credit card companies, phone card companies) before departure and get local numbers to use in an emergency.
- Report any crime to local authorities and the OSPD as soon as possible after the event.

H. Accidents involving Motor Vehicle

Students are not permitted to operate vehicles while studying abroad and should utilize legitimate public transportation and cabs as motor vehicle and pedestrian accidents are a leading cause of injuries. Road structure, streets and laws vary across countries and regions. Students must be extra attentive while walking and crossing the street as well.

I. Fire

- Contact the OSPD if housing is not equipped with fire extinguishers and smoke detectors.
- Know local emergency numbers to call in case of fire.
- Establish a safe meeting point to meet in case of a fire.
- The OSPD will address fire safety issues with students and housing and classroom providers.

Living Space

- Do not bring strangers to housing facilities.
- Lock your doors all the time.
- Speak with your roommate if you are concerned with their behavior and contact the OSPD if not resolved.
- Notify the OSPD when you have safety concerns about your current location.
- Do not give your address to unknown parties.

Mental Health Issues and Psychiatric Emergencies

The stress of traveling and being in a foreign country can cause anxiety and stress in all of us. Report observances of altered behavior to the OSPD, such as: binge eating/drinking, withdrawal, manic behavior, serious weight loss.

Some Common Manifestations of Stress include:

- Irritability over small things
- Difficulty concentrating
- Difficulty falling asleep or staying asleep
- Queasy stomach
- Desire to run away
• Constant feeling of tiredness
• Psychosomatic illness
• Excessive criticism of others
• Poor work performance
• Difficulty making decisions
• Being unusually introspective
• Feelings of guilt, worry and anxiety

Death of Student

In the event of a fatality, students should contact the OSPD and wait for legal authorization (usually the local authorities) to arrive. Lincoln University will notify the emergency contact on file.

The Office of Health Services is open Monday to Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. during the school year, and is staffed by registered nurses during those hours. A part-time physician is available three days a week by appointment. Medical consultation is furnished at no cost to the student, but some medications, diagnostic tests, and treatments have a charge attached, which are billed to the student’s account; and his or her records are kept CONFIDENTIAL. There is a local community hospital (Jennersville Regional Hospital) three miles from Lincoln's campus with emergency, surgical, x-ray and other diagnostic facilities. Students requiring hospitalization are cared for there. The University Health Services will arrange to transport slightly ill or injured students to and from the Medical Center. Seriously ill or injured students must be transported by ambulance. Health Services, via Public Safety, provides transportation to other physicians in the local area only, and during designated times by appointment given 24 hours’ notice (to include pharmacy and diagnostic testing appointments). All communication in Health Services is privileged information and is not available to anyone, including other University officials and parents, without the written consent of the student involved.

Rape is a significant problem on college campuses across the nation, where most victims are acquainted with their assailants. Rape and sexual assault can also be committed by a stranger, close friend, relative, date, or a spouse. The effects of rape on these student victims can be devastating, creating emotional, trauma-related complications and disrupting or ending their academic careers. Trauma is a normal human reaction to an extreme event. And the survivor may experience the trauma during and after the event. It is not uncommon for a person who has been sexually assaulted to report the incident at a later date.
What Is Rape?
(date, acquaintance, and stranger) Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse

According to Pennsylvania law, rape, which is a first-degree felony, is sexual intercourse obtained:

- through "forcible compulsion,"
- through threat of "forcible compulsion," physical, intellectual, moral, emotional, or psychological force, either expressed or implied,” and does not require that the victim resists the offender
- When a person is unconscious or unaware that intercourse is occurring even though conscious,
- When a mental disability renders a person incapable of consent,
- when a person is less than 13 years of age even though consent is given,
- when the offender gets his victim drunk or high for the purpose of preventing resistance without the knowledge of the victim.

Sexual assault, which is a second-degree felony, consists of non-consensual sexual intercourse. Sexual intercourse includes vaginal, anal, or oral sex. There must be some penetration, however slight, but ejaculation is not necessary. Indecent assault is unwanted touching of intimate parts of the body and is a second-degree misdemeanor.

Aggravated indecent assault, also a second-degree felony, consists of penetration of the genitals or anus by a part of the offender’s body without consent. Sexual harassment can be defined as unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature. This can include such actions as making unwelcomed sexual comments about appearance, clothing, or body parts.

What is Consent?
Consent is defined as a mutual agreement to participate in specific activity at a specific time. Consent to one kind of sexual activity, or other does not, alone, imply consent to other sexual activities. Consent must be clearly communicated (for example, by way of mutually understandable words or actions) mutual, non-coercive, and given free of force or the threat of force. A student who is physically or mentally incapacitated by drugs, alcohol, or other circumstances is not capable of giving consent. A student must be awake and fully conscious in order to give consent. An individual may change his/her mind and revoke consent at any time by verbal or non-verbal communication.

Getting Assistance
Emotional trauma is severe after a sexual assault. The violation, loss of trust, and loss of control can have a serious long-term impact. It is not unusual for a person to withdraw, feel guilty or distrustful. However, there are many people who understand and know places where support is available while one is recovering. The list is not exhaustive, if you are experiencing the after effects of this kind of assault, do not hesitate to contact Counseling Services at 484-365-7244. Visiting a counselor is a sign of strength, not weakness. Counselors are trained to help you make sense of your thoughts and feelings in the healing process.

If you’ve been assaulted
It is not unusual for a person who has been sexually assault to experience many of the following:

- Memory lapse
- Experience varies emotions, shame, guilt, anger, fear
- To take blame for the event
• To know the person who committed the act
• To have night terrors, fear to be in public places
• Experience overwhelming sadness, depression, hopelessness

What can you do after a rape occurs?
• Get the victim to a safe place as soon as possible.
• Try to preserve all physical evidence. The victim should not bathe, shower, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing until they have had a medical exam.
• Contact Public Safety.
• Rape is a crime; it is important to report it. However, reporting a crime is not the same as prosecuting. The decision to prosecute can be made at a later time.
• Get medical attention as soon as possible. An exam will determine the presence of physical injury, sexually transmissible diseases, or pregnancy. The exam, if done within seventy-two hours following the rape, can obtain evidence to assist in criminal prosecution. If the victim is worried about pregnancy, Emergency Contraception Pills can be administered within 72 hours of the sexual assault to help prevent pregnancy.
• Contact a close friend who can be with the victim for support. The friend can accompany the victim to the medical exam and/or police department.
• Consider talking to a counselor. A victim may be feeling a variety of strong emotions: fear, anxiety, depression, guilt, powerlessness, shame, shock, disbelief, embarrassment, denial, anger. The victim may also have some physical problems, such as sleep disturbances and nausea. Seeing a counselor may be important in helping a victim to understand the feelings one is experiencing and begin the process of recovery.

What to do if someone you care about has experienced sexual assault or relationship violence:
• Listen to the victim/survivor and take what she/he says seriously
• Reassure the person that the assault or violence was not her/his fault.
• Ask first before you touch or hug the victim/survivor to show support.
• Don’t judge or ask questions that could be interpreted as blaming, such as "Why didn’t you fight back?" "What were you wearing?" or "How can you stay in that relationship?"
• Don’t press for details. Allow the person to share information at her/his own pace in a safe environment.
• Encourage victim/survivor to seek assistance and volunteer to go with her/him.
• Respect the person’s right to make her/his own decision about whether to report the assault/abuse.
• Maintain confidentiality.
• Offer to accompany the victim/survivor to classes, meals, social gatherings, etc.
• Get support for yourself. Hearing about or witnessing events that are hurtful to those for whom we care also can produce post-traumatic symptoms.
• While most victims of sexual assault are women, men can be victims, too. The same services are available to men and can be accessed through Counseling Services or the Women’s Center.

What is Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or Stalking?
Relationship/Dating Violence is a pattern of behavior in an intimate relationship that is used to establish power and control over another person through fear and intimidation. A pattern of behavior is typically determined based on the repeated use of words and/or actions and inactions in order to demean, intimidate, and/or control another person. This behavior can be verbal, emotional and/or physical.

Domestic Violence is a pattern of abusive behavior in any relationship that is used by one partner to gain or maintain power and control over another intimate partner.

Domestic violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. This includes any behaviors that intimidate, manipulate, humiliate, isolate, frighten, terrorize, coerce, threaten, blame, hurt, injure, or wound someone

Stalking involves any behaviors or activities occurring on more than one occasion that collectively instill fear in the victim and/or threaten her/his safety, mental health, and/or physical health. Such behaviors or activities may include, but are not limited to non-consensual communications (face to face, telephone, texting, email), threatening or obscene gestures, surveillance, or showing up outside the targeted individual’s classroom or workplace.

Risk Reduction Strategies

- If you have limits, make them known as early as possible.
- Don’t invite people into your room that you do not know.
- Tell a sexual aggressor “NO” clearly and firmly.
- Try to remove yourself from the physical presence of a sexual aggressor.
- Find someone nearby and ask for help.
- Stay sober. Drinking or using drugs diminishes your ability to make good decisions and makes you more vulnerable to the possibility of assault.
- Don’t leave any event with someone you just met or don’t know well.
- Take care of your friends and ask that they take care of you.

If you find yourself in the position of being the initiator or aggressor of sexual behavior the following suggestions may help reduce your risk for a complaint of sexual misconduct being made against you:

- Don’t make assumptions about consent; about someone’s sexual availability; about whether they are attracted to you; about how far you can go or about whether they are physically and/or mentally able to consent. If there are any questions or ambiguity then you DO NOT have consent.
- Understand and respect personal boundaries.
- Clearly communicate your intentions to your sexual partner and give them a chance to verbally and non-verbally communicate relate their intentions to you.
- Mixed messages from your partner are a clear indication that you should stop, defuse any sexual tension and communicate better. You may be misreading them. They may not have figured out how far they want to go with you yet. You must respect the timeline for sexual behaviors with which they are comfortable.
- Don’t take advantage of someone’s drunkenness or drugged state.
- Realize that your potential partner could be intimidated by you, or fearful. You may have a power advantage simply because of your gender or size. Don’t abuse that power.
- Understand that consent to some form of sexual behavior does not automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual behavior.
- Silence and passivity cannot be interpreted as an indication of consent. Read your potential partner carefully, paying attention to verbal and non-verbal communication such as body language.

SMOKING POLICY
Lincoln University has joined hundreds of colleges and universities around the nation in a concern about the harmful effects of the use of tobacco products by those in its campus community. Tobacco use has clearly been established as a preventable cause of many kinds of illness. Current research indicates that tobacco smoke exposure in confined areas may be a health hazard to non-smokers. Smoke from cigarettes, cigars, pipes and vaporless cigarettes can be an irritant to many non-smokers and can aggravate allergic conditions. In sufficient concentration, secondhand smoke may be harmful to those with chronic heart or lung disease.

Though affecting primarily the user, smokeless tobacco is also recognized as potentially harmful, and the policy outlined in this statement shall be interpreted as meaning that the use of smokeless tobacco products will be prohibited in the same areas as is tobacco smoking. No smoking will be allowed in any campus building, including residential halls at Lincoln University.
ALCOHOL POLICY

Guidelines
The University expects all students to comply with the policy of an alcohol-free/dry campus. To comply with state law and institutional policies, the following guidelines are established:

1. No student is permitted to possess or consume alcohol on the campus of Lincoln University.
2. Consumption and drunkenness (visible intoxication) on campus, including in the residence halls, academic facilities, campus grounds, other University owned housing, dances, athletic events, etc. is prohibited. The use of alcohol by students will not be tolerated.
3. Hosts of private social gatherings are responsible for insuring adherence to state law and University regulations. All guests are subject to University rules and regulations.
4. As well, no student, regardless of age, may possess or consume alcohol while representing the University or on a University sponsored trip.

Penalties
Anyone found in violation of the alcohol-free/dry campus policy is subject to (1) immediate interim suspension, (2) a subsequent judicial hearing, and/or (3) extended suspension, permanent suspension, or expulsion.
DRUG POLICY

The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 requires Lincoln University as an institution of higher education receiving federal funds to certify to the Secretary of Education that it has adopted and implemented an anti-drug and alcohol abuse program for its students and employees. Accordingly, the University adopts the following policy:

Lincoln University does not permit or condone the illicit or unauthorized possession, use, consumption, sale, or distribution of illegal drugs by its students and employees on its property or as part of its activities. This policy applies to all full-time and part-time students; and all full-time and part-time permanent and temporary employees, including faculty, administration, all exempt and non-exempt staff, and any student employees and interns.

Students who violate this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action consistent with local, state, and federal laws, and University policies and procedures which include: (1) immediate interim suspension, (2) a subsequent judicial hearing, and/or (3) extended suspension, permanent suspension, or expulsion.

Employees who violate this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action consistent with local, state, and federal laws which may include counseling, mandatory participation in an appropriate rehabilitation program, a warning, placement on strict probation, unpaid suspension from employment, termination of employment and referral to the proper law enforcement authorities for prosecution. All disciplinary procedures and appeals presently applicable to students and all categories of employees will continue to be available for violation of this policy.

The purpose of this policy is to produce a workplace and campus environment that discourages the unauthorized or illegal use of drugs by students and employees. The following is information that is important for each student and employee to read and understand regarding the legal penalties and the health risks that are associated with alcohol and drug abuse.

Applicable Laws

Most people know that selling illicit drugs is a criminal offense punishable by a fine or imprisonment depending on the specific offense and other factors such as prior convictions for similar offenses. Most people also know that driving while intoxicated is against the law and can result in driver’s license revocation or even imprisonment, in some cases. It is less well-known that an individual under the age of 21 could be arrested and put in jail for purchasing, or even attempting to purchase, alcohol.

The following is a brief overview of local, state, and federal laws governing the possession, use, and distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol. It is not intended to be an exhaustive or definitive statement of various laws, but rather is designed to indicate the types of conduct that are against the law and the range of legal sanctions that can be imposed for such conduct.

Pennsylvania Alcoholic Beverage Control Law

All states prohibit persons from selling or giving any alcoholic beverage to a minor (defined in Pennsylvania as under age 21) or to a person who is already intoxicated. It is also an offense in Pennsylvania, punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment. Any minor who uses false identification or the identification of another person to purchase an alcoholic beverage can be convicted and fined and/or sentenced.

All states prohibit drinking and driving. In Pennsylvania, it is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment (as well as suspension and/or revocation of your driver’s license to operate a motor vehicle). Multiple convictions can result in more serious penalties.

Federal Law

Federal drug laws parallel Pennsylvania drug laws in many respects. For example, it is a federal offense to manufacture, distribute, or possess with intent to distribute, a controlled substance or a counterfeit controlled substance. As under the Pennsylvania Penal Code, any property associated with the unlawful handling of controlled substance may be forfeited to the authorities. Federal law also provides that a person age 18 or older who distributes a controlled substance to a person under 21 years of age may be sentenced to a term of imprisonment and/or a fine of up to twice the amount authorized for distribution to a person over the age of 21.

An important sanction under federal law is that persons convicted of any federal or state offense involving possession of a controlled substance are ineligible to receive any or all federal benefits (e.g., social security, student loans) for up to one year. If the offense involves distribution of a controlled substance, the guilty person could be ineligible for any or all federal benefits for up to 5 years.

There are both federal and state laws specifically dealing with the distribution or manufacturing of controlled substances in or near schools or colleges. For example, federal law provides that a drug offense committed within 1,000 feet of school property, including universities, is punishable by a term of imprisonment and a fine of up to twice the amount authorized for the same offense committed away from school property.

Health Risks

Drugs and alcohol are toxic to the human body and if abused can have catastrophic health consequences. Some drugs, such as crack, are so toxic that even one experimental use can be fatal. The following is a summary of the various health risks associated with alcohol abuse and use of specific types of drugs; it is not intended to be an exhaustive or final statement of all possible health consequences of substance abuse.

Alcohol Use and Abuse

Alcohol is the most widely used and abused drug in the United States. Alcohol consumption has acute effects on the body and causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including spouse and child abuse, as well as dangerous risk-taking behavior. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person’s ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol can be fatal. Alcohol-related automobile accidents are the number one cause of death among people ages 15 through 24. Furthermore, approximately fifty percent (50%) of all youthful deaths from drowning, fires, suicide, and homicide are alcohol-related.

Repeated use of alcohol can lead to physical and psychological dependence. Dependent persons who suddenly stop drinking are likely to suffer withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver. Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents have an increased risk themselves of becoming alcoholics.

Use of Illicit Drugs

Drugs interfere with the brain’s ability to take in, sort, and synthesize information. They distort perception which can lead users to harm themselves or others. Drug use also affects sensation and impairs memory. In addition to these general effects, specific health risks associated with particular types of drugs are discussed below.

Cocaine/Crack

Cocaine use is the fastest growing drug problem in the United States. One reason for this is the ready availability of cocaine in a cheap but potent form called “crack” or “rock.” Cocaine stimulates the central nervous system. Its immediate effects include dilated pupils and elevated blood pressure, heart rate, respiratory rate, and body temperature. Occasional use can cause a stuffy or runny nose, while chronic use can ulcerate the mucous membrane of the nose. Injecting cocaine with contaminated equipment can cause AIDS, hepatitis, and other diseases. Preparation of freebase, which involves the use of volatile solvents, can result in death or injury from fire or explosion. Cocaine can produce psychological and physical dependency, a feeling that the user cannot function without the drug. In addition, tolerance develops rapidly and leads to higher and higher doses to produce the desired effect.

“Crack” or freebase rock is a purified form of cocaine that is smoked. “Crack” is far more addictive than heroin or barbiturates. Repeated use of “crack” can lead to addiction within a few days. Once addicted, many users have turned to stealing, prostitution, and drug dealing in order to support their habit. The effects of crack are felt within 10 seconds. The physical effects include dilated pupils, increased pulse rate, elevated blood pressure, insomnia, loss of appetite, tactile hallucinations, paranoia, and seizures. Continued use can produce violent behavior and psychotic states similar to schizophrenia. Cocaine, in any form, but particularly in the purified form known as “crack,” can cause sudden death from cardiac arrest or respiratory failure.

Marijuana
Marijuana use causes a substantial increase in the heart rate, bloodshot eyes, a dry mouth and throat, increased appetite, and it may impair short-term memory and comprehension, alter sense of time, and reduce ability to perform tasks requiring concentration and coordination, such as driving a car. Research also shows that motivation and cognition may be altered, making the acquisition of new information difficult. When marijuana contains 2% THC, it can cause severe psychological damage, including paranoia and psychosis. Since the early 1980s, most marijuana has contained from 4 to 6% THC — two or three times the amount capable of causing serious damage. Because users often inhale the unfiltered smoke deeply and then hold it in their lungs as long as possible, marijuana is damaging to the lungs and pulmonary system. Marijuana smoke contains more cancer-causing agents than tobacco smoke. Long-term users of marijuana may develop psychological dependence and require more of the drug to get the same effect. The drug can become the center of their lives.

Narcotics
Narcotics such as heroin, codeine, and morphine initially produce a feeling of euphoria that often is followed by drowsiness, nausea, and vomiting. Users also may experience constricted pupils, watery eyes, and itching. An overdose may produce slow and shallow breathing, clammy skin, convulsions, coma, and possible death.

Tolerance to narcotics develops rapidly and dependence is likely. The use of contaminated syringes may result in diseases such as AIDS, endocarditis, and hepatitis. Addiction in pregnant women can lead to premature, stillborn, or addicted infants who experience severe withdrawal symptoms.

Amphetamines/Other Stimulants
Amphetamines (speed, uppers), methamphetamine, and other stimulants can cause increased heart and respiratory rates, elevated blood pressure, dilated pupils, and decreased appetite. In addition, users may experience sweating, headache, blurred vision, dizziness, sleeplessness, and anxiety. Extremely high doses can cause a rapid or irregular heartbeat, tremors, loss of coordination, and even physical collapse. An amphetamine injection creates a sudden increase in blood pressure that can result in stroke, very high fever, or heart failure.

In addition to the physical effects, users report feeling restless, anxious, and moody. Higher doses intensify the effects. Persons who use large amounts of amphetamines over a long period of time can develop an amphetamine psychosis that includes hallucinations, delusions and paranoia.

Barbiturates/Other Depressants
Barbiturates (downers), methaqualone (quaaludes), tranquilizers (Valium), and other depressants have many of the same effects as alcohol. Small amounts can produce calmness and relaxed muscles, but somewhat larger doses can cause slurred speech, staggering, and altered perception. Very large doses can cause respiratory depressants, coma, and death. The combination of depressants and alcohol can multiply the effects of the drugs, thereby multiplying the risks.

The use of depressants can cause both physical and psychological dependence. Regular use over time may result in a tolerance to the drug, leading the user to increase the quantity consumed. When regular users suddenly stop taking large doses, they may develop withdrawal symptoms, ranging from restlessness, insomnia, and anxiety, to convulsions and death.

Babies born to mothers who abuse depressants during pregnancy may be physically dependent on the drugs and show withdrawal symptoms shortly after they are born. Birth defects and behavioral problems may also result.

Hallucinogens

Phencyclidine (PCP, Angel Dust) interrupts the functions of the part of the brain that controls the intellect and instincts. Because the drug blocks pain receptors, violent PCP episodes may result in self-inflicted injuries. The effects of PCP are predictable and can vary, but users frequently report a sense of distance and estrangement. This and body movement are slowed down. Muscular coordination worsens and senses are dulled. Speech is blocked and incoherent. Chronic users of PCP report persistent memory problems and speech difficulties. Mood disorders also occur. In later stages of chronic use, users often exhibit paranoid and violent behavior and experience hallucinations. Large doses may produce convulsions and coma, as well as heart and lung failure.

Lysergic acid (LSD, Acid), mescaline, and psilocybin (mushrooms) cause illusions and hallucinations. The physical effects may include dilated pupils, elevated body temperature, increased heart rate and blood pressure, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, and tremors. Sensations and feelings may change rapidly. It is common to have a bad psychological reaction to LSD, mescaline, and psilocybin. The user may experience panic, confusion, suspicion, anxiety, and loss of control. Delayed effects or flashbacks can occur even after use has ceased.

Designer Drugs

“Designer Drugs” are produced by underground chemists who attempt to avoid legal definitions of controlled substances by altering their molecular structure. These drugs can be several hundred times stronger than the drugs they are designed to imitate. Some designer drugs have been known to cause permanent brain damage with a single dose. Many so-called designer drugs are related to amphetamines and have mild stimulant properties but are mostly euphoriants. They can cause nausea, blurred vision, chills or sweating and faintness. Psychological effects include anxiety, depression, and paranoia. As little as one dose can cause severe neurochemical brain damage. Narcotic designer drugs can cause symptoms such as those in Parkinson’s disease: uncontrollable tremors, drooling, impaired speech, paralysis, and irreversible brain damage.

Inhalents

The immediate negative effects of inhalants (laughing gas, whippets) include nausea, sneezing, coughing, nosebleeds, fatigue, lack of coordination, and loss of appetite. Solvent and aerosol sprays also decrease the heart and respiratory rates and impair judgment.Amyl and butyl nitrite cause rapid pulse, headaches, and involuntary passing of urine and feces. Long-term use may result in hepatitis or brain damage.

Deeply inhaling the vapors, or using large amounts over a short time may result in disorientation, violent behavior, unconsciousness, or death. High concentrations of inhalants can cause suffocation by displacing the oxygen in the lungs, or by depressing the central nervous system to the point that breathing stops.

Long-term use can cause weight loss, fatigue, electrolyte imbalance, and muscle fatigue. Repeated snifing of concentrated vapors over time can damage the nervous system permanently.

Anabolic Steroids

Steroid users subject themselves to more than 70 side effects ranging in severity from liver cancer to acne and including psychological as well as physical reactions. The liver, cardiovascular and reproductive systems are affected most seriously by steroid use. In males, use can cause withered testicles, sterility, and impotence. In females, irreversible masculine traits can develop along with breast reduction and sterility. Physical effects in both sexes include jaundice, purple or red spots on the body, swelling of the feet or lower legs, trembling, unexplained darkening of the skin, and persistent unpleasant breath odor. Psychological effects in both sexes include very aggressive behavior known as “road rage” and depression. While some side effects appear quickly, others, such as heart attacks and strokes, may not show up for years.

The Lion Card must be carried at all times while on University property and must be surrendered to any University official upon request, or when the relationship for which the card was issued is no longer in effect. The Lion Card is the property of Lincoln University and is governed by the rules and regulations set forth by the University. It is not transferable and is not permitted to be used by anyone other than the issued cardholder. In addition to serving as the official University ID card, the Lion Card can be used by students to access the following services on campus.

- Residential Hall Access
- Laundry Machines
- Meal Plans
- Time Clock Access
- Lion Cash

Obtaining a Lion Card
Lion Cards are issued by the Lion Card Office located in the Office of Student Support Services, Wright Hall. There is no charge for an initial Lion Card. After students register for classes for the current academic year, they can visit the Lion Card Office to have their photo taken and their first Lion Card issued. A valid photo identification card (driver’s license, state ID, school ID, passport, etc.) must be presented at time of issuance. Photo ID may not be taken with scarves, sunglasses, hats, caps, etc.

Reporting Lost or Stolen Cards
Lost or stolen Lion Cards must be reported immediately to the Lion Card Office or Public Safety. Reports of lost or stolen cards must be made to the Lion Card Office during normal business hours or to Public Safety at all other times. Either of these offices has the ability to immediately deactivate an ID card.

Replacing Lost, Stolen or Damaged Cards
Lost, stolen or damaged cards may be replaced at the Lion card Office during normal business hours. The fee to replace a lost, stolen or damaged ID Card is $10. The replacement fee must be paid in cash at the Lion Card office. The replacement fee may be charged to a credit or debit card in the Cashier’s Office. Once a replacement card has been printed and issued, the initial card will be invalid even if it is found.

Deactivating Lion Card Accounts
After your Lion Card has been reported lost, confiscated, or stolen, your accounts will be frozen and deactivated until your card is found or replaced. This will protect all Lion Cash funds as well as other privileges assigned to your card. Additionally, this prevents fraudulent activity of your accounts in the event your Lion Card is found by someone other than yourself. If your lost or stolen card is found prior to having a replacement card printed, you must physically bring the card to the Lion Card Office for reactivation.

Improper Use of the Lion Card
Students are charged $25 for ID cards that are confiscated for improper use. The cardholder is subject to disciplinary and/or criminal action for:
• Any use of or attempted use of the Lion Card for purposes other than intended.
• Any use of or attempted use of the Lion Card by any individual other than the cardholder.
• Permitting your Lion Card to be used by another individual.
• Failure to fully and truthfully report the circumstances pertaining to a lost, stolen or damaged Lion Card.
• Failure to appear and truthfully and fully testify at any disciplinary or criminal proceedings which may result from the report of a lost or stolen Lion Card.

Safety and Security of the Lion Card
The Lion Card includes the owner’s photo. Therefore, to prevent unauthorized use of the card, cashiers are instructed to verify the picture with each transaction. To help ensure the safety and security of the Lion Card accounts, please ask the cashier to verify your photo with each transaction.

Lion Card Features

At the beginning of each academic year, every undergraduate student who resides on campus purchases a meal plan. This information is stored on the Lion Card, which can be used at the Student Restaurant located in Thurgood Marshall Living Learning Center. Please note that changes to your meal plan selection must be made in the Office of Residence Life within two weeks of the official check-in date, unless you are a commuter.

Students who reside on campus receive a laundry allowance that is stored on their Lion Card. Students use their laundry allowance by swiping their Lion Card at the washers and dryers located in various residence halls on campus. Funds remaining on the laundry account at the end of the fall semester do not carry over to spring semester. Students whose laundry allowance is depleted before the end of the semester may add funds to their laundry account by visiting the Lion Card Office or the Cashier’s Office.

Residential Access
Most residence halls on campus are equipped with an electronic access reader. Students who reside on campus are granted access to their residential building via the Lion Card and they may gain access 24 hours a day. Students may be asked to present their Lion Card to the desk representative upon entering the lobby.

Time Clock Access
Student employees must use their Lion Card to clock in and out for work.

FINANCIAL AID

Lincoln University Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy
Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) denotes a student’s successful completion of coursework toward a degree. The Higher Education Amendment Act of 1965, as amended, mandates institutions of higher education to establish a minimum standard of “Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)” for students receiving federal financial aid. Lincoln University makes its standard applicable to all federal, state and institutional funds. The satisfactory academic progress applies to all terms regardless of whether financial aid was received. Satisfactory Academic Progress will be evaluated for all students (full or part-time) annually (at the end of each spring semester).

Satisfactory Academic progress will be evaluated for all students at the end of each academic year (end of spring semester). Students who enroll at the mid-point (January) of an academic year or attend one semester only will also be evaluated at the end of the spring semester. Thereafter, these students will be evaluated at the end of the academic year unless on a financial aid appeal.

To ensure Satisfactory Academic Progress students must meet all of the following standards:
- Minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA)
- Minimum Completion Standard for Attempted Credit Hours
- Maximum Time Frame for Degree Completion

Undergraduate SAP Requirements
All undergraduate students must maintain the following minimum requirements to be in compliance with SAP:

Total Number of Completed Hours:

Minimum Cumulative GPA:
- 0 - 29 --
- 30-59 1.60
- 60-89 1.80
- 90+ 1.95

Graduate SAP Requirements
All graduate students must maintain the following minimum requirements to be in compliance with SAP:

Requirements to be in compliance with SAP:
- Must have a Cumulative Grade Point Average of 3.0 or higher
- Must Earn 67% of Hours Completed
- Must not Exceed 150% of Hours Required for Degree Completion

Completion Standard for Completed Credit Hours (ALL STUDENTS) Students who receive financial aid must successfully complete a minimum of 67% of all completed hours. If the number of completed hours drops below 67%, the student will no longer be eligible for financial aid. Completed hours include all hours completed at the University and transfer hours, whether or not the student earns a grade or receives credit. Successful completion of a course means the student received a grade of A, B, C or D (excluding a grade of D for a graduate student or courses required for the major-undergraduate or graduate).

To calculate, multiply the total number of attempted hours by 67 (rounded downward to the nearest whole number). As an example, if a student attempted 30 credit hours, she must complete a minimum of 23 credit hours (30 x .67 = 23) in order to ensure SAP for the year.

Maximum Time Frame
The number of credit hours a student completes may not exceed 150% of the number of credit hours required for graduation in his or her program of study. If the published number of hours required for graduation is 120, an undergraduate student may not complete more than 180 credit hours (120 x 1.50= 180) and continue to receive financial aid. All completed hours are counted in determining the 180 hours limit, including transfer hours, whether or not financial aid was received or the course work was successfully completed.

Second Degree Students who have already earned a bachelor’s degree and are pursuing another undergraduate degree must submit a completed Second Degree Form. Second-degree students cannot exceed the aggregate loan limit for an undergraduate student. Second-degree students must maintain a 2.0 annually and pass 67% of the hours completed.

Dual Degree/Double Major -Students must maintain progress as stated above. Students seeking a dual degree must be maintaining SAP prior to declaring their dual/double degree.

Withdrawal A”W” grade which is recorded on the student’s transcript will be included as credits attempted and will have an adverse effect on the student’s ability to maintain SAP. Students who officially withdraw from the University must make up the deficit hours and are encouraged to attend summer school to remove the deficient hours. The successful completion of a course is defined as receiving one of the following grades: A, B, C or D. Courses with grades of F, I, U and W will not qualify in meeting the minimum standard.

Incomplete (I) grade
An incomplete grade indicates that a student has not finished all course-work required for a grade and is included in the cumulative credits attempted. An incomplete will count toward attempted hours but not as hours passed until a final grade is posted in the Registrar’s Office.

Repeated courses
A student who has received a failing grade in a required course at this University must repeat and pass the course unless otherwise indicated by the Registrar or Dean. Students (undergraduate and graduate) may only receive federal financial aid for one repetition (repeat) of a previously passed course. Students who have already passed a course with a grade of a D or better may only repeat the class one additional time and receive financial aid for that course. All repeated courses are included in the total attempted hours for SAP evaluation.

Change of Major
A student may change from one degree to another during attendance at the University. Students who change from one major to another are still expected to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress and complete the course work within the time frame or hours limitation stated unless an appeal is approved. All completed hours from a prior major are included in the total completed hours.

Audited courses
Courses audited do not count as either attempted or earned hours.

Hours Enrolled
The number of credit hours in which the student is enrolled on the day following the published last day to add/drop a class will be used as official enrollment for financial assistance purposes; full-time status is 12 or more hours. If a student withdraws from classes after the last day to add/drop a course the student may not meet the minimum number of hours to be earned in one academic year.

Re-admitted students will be reviewed on their previous academic records in order to determine eligibility for assistance, whether or not financial aid was received. Re-admitted students not maintaining SAP must submit a letter of appeal.

Students who have been placed on Academic Suspension or Dismissal from the University must meet the Satisfactory Academic Policy (SAP) once they are re-admitted. Re-admitted students are not automatically eligible for Financial Aid, if they do not meet the standard; they have an option to submit an appeal.

Financial Aid Termination
Students who do not meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress standards are not eligible for further financial aid, including Summer School. Students will be notified by Office of Student Financial Aid of their financial aid termination at the end of the spring semester through a letter to their permanent home mailing address and to their University e-mail account.

Students whose financial aid is terminated must remove their academic deficiencies or have an appeal granted before aid can be reinstated. This includes students who withdraw from a class or the semester, receives all “F’s” for the semester or receive a grade of “Incomplete”.

Conditions for Reinstatement

Students whose financial aid is terminated must remove their academic deficiencies or have an appeal approved before their aid can be reinstated. Students who withdraw from a class or classes after the add/drop period, receives all "F's" for the semester or a grade of "Incomplete" may be ineligible for aid for the next term.

Students who are denied federal and/or state financial aid for failure to meet the SAP standards have the opportunity to appeal the decision. Students may appeal the decision in writing to the Admissions, Academic Standing and Financial Aid committee, if there were extenuating circumstances that led to the unsatisfactory academic progress. The student will be notified in writing by the University Registrar of the Committee's decision.

Any student whose financial aid has been terminated may reestablish Satisfactory Academic Progress by any of the following methods:

- Enroll in a course or courses for Summer School
- Repeat courses in which a grade of F was earned
- Satisfy requirements for all incomplete grades

Appeal Procedure

Students not meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress may appeal for consideration of financial aid. To appeal for the reinstatement of financial aid eligibility, students should complete and submit the Satisfactory Academic Progress appeal form to the Office of Student Financial Aid indicating the extenuating circumstance(s) (i.e. personal illness, injury, medical problems, undue hardship, death of parent or immediate family member, or other special circumstances) that may have prevented the student from performing at his/her academic best. The appeal form must be accompanied by an Academic Action Plan approved by the student’s academic advisor. Students who are granted an appeal will be placed on Progress Probation. The student’s progress will be reviewed each semester thereafter. At the conclusion of the probationary semester, a new progress check will be conducted. Students, who unsuccessfully meet the requirements of the Academic Plan, may appeal a final time.

Students will be notified, in writing of the appeal decision. Students who are granted an appeal and do not meet the requirements are placed on financial aid suspension until Satisfactory Academic Progress is achieved. (All Decisions are FINAL.)

It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of his or her academic progress each semester. The Office of Student Financial Aid will make every effort to promptly notify students of the cancellation of the award and academic progress status.
CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

Purpose: Code of Student Conduct
The purpose of publishing a Code of Student Conduct is to give students general notice of prohibited behavior. This Code is not intended to be written with the specificity of a criminal statute. The primary purposes for the imposition of discipline in the University setting is to protect the campus community as well as to foster the personal, educational, and social development of those students who are found responsible for violations of University regulations. This policy is intended to create a learning environment that promotes respect, dignity and pursuit of knowledge. It is not the intent of this policy to inhibit the expression of ideas or to use any methods that would infringe on an individual’s constitutional right to free speech.

General Matters
Lincoln University, a community comprised of students, faculty, administrators and staff, recognizes the need to establish a code of conduct that contains rules and regulations to guide student actions and to define sanctions that will be imposed when rules and regulations are violated. For the benefit of the community at large, these regulations limit certain behaviors and activities. They also protect the health and welfare, safety, rights, and property of the University and all members of the University community. Specifically, the University strives to redirect student behavior that is does not meet University standards. To meet this goal, the University employs a Student Conduct process that allows students to receive feedback by their peers, staff and faculty, and employs educational and other sanctions such as warnings, fines, suspension or expulsion. Any student accused of violating these rules is entitled to due process, notice of the charges and an opportunity to be heard.

Student appeals also are allowed. All conduct findings are subject to review by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee of the University. The vice president or designee will have the authority to sustain, change, or reverse any findings.

All students, faculty, and staff members are strongly urged to report any complaints involving students to the Student Conduct Administrator, Dean of Students, and/or the Department of Public Safety. All reports are forwarded to the Dean of Students in order to establish a hearing date for the Respondent.

The University Code of Student Conduct shall apply to conduct that occurs on University premises, at University sponsored activities, and to off-campus conduct that adversely affects the University community and/or the pursuit of its objectives.

The Vice President for Student Affairs or Dean of Students may administratively handle: (1) students who are not currently enrolled at the time of their alleged violation of the Code of Student Conduct or (2) students whose violations occur prior to the convening of the Student Conduct Board or after the Student Conduct Board has recessed for the academic year. All sanctions up to and including expulsion will be available during administrative conferences. During administrative conferences, students will be afforded the same due process and procedural protections as would be the case for a full Student Conduct Board hearing.

Students at Lincoln University are expected to conform to regulations, federal and state laws, and city ordinances. Students penalized for violation(s) of public laws are still subject to sanctions under this Code of Student Conduct if the violation of the public law also is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. The University’s decision in conduct matters is independent of criminal or civil legal action, and the University’s conduct proceedings will not be delayed simply because legal action is also proceeding. No student will be permitted to graduate from Lincoln University while disciplinary action is pending against him or her.

STUDENTS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR KNOWING AND UNDERSTANDING ALL RULES AND REGULATIONS CONTAINED IN THE CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT.

The Vice President for Student Affairs is the person designated by the President to be responsible for the administration of the Code of Student Conduct.

INTERIM SUSPENSION

The Dean of Students or designee may suspend a student from the University for an interim period pending conduct or criminal proceedings, or medical evaluation. The interim suspension shall become immediately effective without prior notice whenever there is evidence that the continued presence of the student at the University poses a substantial and immediate threat to himself or herself, or to others, or to University property.

A student suspended on an interim basis shall be given a prompt opportunity to appear personally before the Dean of Students or a designee in order to discuss the following issues:

A. the reliability of the information concerning the student’s conduct, including the matter of his or her identity; and
B. whether the conduct and surrounding circumstances reasonably indicate that the continued presence of the student on University premises poses a substantial and immediate threat to himself or herself, or to others.

POLICY ON HAZING
Lincoln University prohibits any student chartered organization, fraternity, sorority, social fellowship, athletic team, other recognized student organization, person or group using University facilities, and individuals who are members of any such groups or organizations or who attend events and activities sponsored, organized or supported in any way by those organizations from hazing members, prospective members, or other persons seeking to obtain benefits for services from any of those organizations.

Hazing is any action or activity, whether conducted on or off University property, which is designed to, or has the reasonably foreseeable effect of humiliating, denigrating, offending, physically or mentally abusing, or exposing danger to a person, as a condition, directly or indirectly, of the person’s consideration for admission to, or continuation of membership in, participation in activities of, receipt of benefits or services from an organization or group. No person may consent to participation in hazing activities nor release a group or any of its members, officers, employees, agents, co-participants, parents, organizations, or insurers from liability for injuries or damages sustained as a result of participation in hazing activities. Furthermore, a person’s consent shall not release or minimize an organization’s or person’s liability to discipline due to violation of this regulation.

Hazing activities include, but are not limited to the following: whipping, beating, paddling, branding, calisthenics, running, exposure to the elements, forced consumption of food, liquor, or drugs, (legal or illegal) or any other substances, sleep deprivation, forced exclusion from social contact, and conduct which could result in any form of embarrassment, nudity, sexual harassment, kidnapping, or car drops.

Recognized student organizations have an obligation to protect the welfare of their prospective and initiated members, guests and the University during initiation activities. Every precaution must be taken to protect against University, individual and organizational liability.

Violation of this regulation shall subject a group or individual to the full range of disciplinary sanctions pursuant to University policies. The Pan-Hellenic Council and other recognized student governance bodies with jurisdiction over recognized student organizations may establish self-regulating procedures with respect to complaints of violations of this Regulation brought against their members. Such processes shall be independent of University conduct processes. A recognized national/international fraternity or sorority must also comply, and its members must comply and adhere to regulations from their respective national/international organizations and the Pan-Hellenic Council. Each fraternity and sorority, or any organization that conducts membership intake activities must submit its national/international organization’s hazing policy to the Office of Student Life and Development.

This Hazing Regulation must be presented by all fraternities, sororities, social fellowships, athletic teams, and other recognized student organizations to all members during each membership solicitation or acceptance period, but not less than once each semester. The chief officer and the governing board of each organization must file with the Office of Student Life and Development a form approved by the Office certifying compliance with this regulation. Failure to be presented with the regulation or to file the certificate will not release any group or individual from responsibility and/or disciplinary action under this regulation. The organization’s President and his/her Executive Board must sign a Statement of Compliance each semester, which is approved by the University certifying compliance with this Regulation.

Standards of Classroom Behavior
The primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Students who engage in acts that result in disruption of a class may be directed by the faculty member to leave the class for the remainder of the class period. The faculty member should, in the event such action is necessary, immediately report the incident to the Chair of their department, the dean of the school and the Dean of Students. Longer suspensions from class, or dismissal on disciplinary grounds must be preceded by a hearing or administrative conference as set forth in the Code of Student Conduct.

In cases where a student’s continued presence in a class, following their initial removal, poses a substantial and immediate threat or disturbance, the Vice President of Student Affairs or Dean of Students may suspend the student from attending the class on an interim basis, pending their hearing or administrative conference.

Cell phones are not to be used in the classroom during instructional time. Cell phones that ring and/or answered during classroom instruction are subject to confiscation by the Professor. Confiscated cell phones will be turned over to the Dean of Students.

Student Conduct Process

FORMATION OF THE STUDENT CONDUCT BOARD
The Student Conduct Board shall be comprised of the following: the Student Government Association shall appoint five (5) students and one alternate; the Division of Academic Affairs shall appoint two (2) faculty members and one alternate; and the Vice President for Student Affairs shall appoint two (2) administrators, and one alternate. The hearing panel in individual cases will be selected from among the members of the Student Conduct Board. The hearing panel need not be comprised of any particular number of persons as long as at least one (1) student member and one (1) faculty/staff member are represented on the panel.

Depending on the nature of the charges and the severity of the potential sanctions, the Student Conduct Administrator will determine whether the student charges will be heard by a Student Conduct panel or by the Student Conduct Administrator, or his/her designee. Cases involving allegations of sexual misconduct will be handled under the specific procedure set forth in the University’s Sexual Misconduct policy. An administrative hearing before the Student Conduct Administrator generally will be employed if the student accepts responsibility for the charges.

RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES
The student has the right to know the charges brought against him or her, and the charges must be in writing. The student must be given a reasonably adequate period of time (generally 72 hours) to prepare a defense, and has the right to defend himself/herself against the charges before the appropriate hearing authority. The student has the right to bring character statements or eyewitnesses to the defense hearing. The student has the right to request the replacement of any member of the Student Conduct Board they feel may be biased or prejudiced against them. The student has the right to remain silent. Hearings are not open to the public, and individuals conducting the hearing are prohibited from discussing the outcomes of the hearing. Due to the nature of certain cases and circumstances, the University’s failure to follow these procedures to the letter does not automatically invalidate the outcome unless the Respondent or the Complainant is placed at a substantial and definitive disadvantage.

The Dean of Students or his or her designee will serve as the Presiding Officer of the Student Conduct Board. All disciplinary action becomes effective upon the date of board action unless otherwise specified. Students dismissed by recommendation of the Student Conduct Board follow the same withdrawal procedure as other students. Any student who leaves or withdraws from the University and seeks readmission while disciplinary action is pending must secure a written clearance from the Vice President for Student Affairs or his/her designee.

NOTIFICATION OF DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AND DECISIONS
Appropriate University officials and campus departments shall be notified of the outcome of the disciplinary proceeding. When a student is charged with a violation of the Code of Student Conduct, the student should expect to be contacted by the Dean of Students regarding hearings. All notifications to students of a hearing regarding his/her alleged violation(s) will be made through the student’s official Lincoln email; however, a student’s failure to check their email is not an excuse for failure to appear at the hearing and does not entitle the student to a postponement. If a student fails to appear before the Student Conduct Board after proper notice has been given or attempted, the hearing will nonetheless proceed.

Discipline Hearing Procedures
The basic procedures include the following:

- The basic Presiding Officer calls the session to order and asks each person in the room to introduce himself or herself and state his or her reason for being at the hearing (e.g., Board member, Respondent, witness).
- The Presiding Officer asks the Respondent and the Complainant if he or she challenges the objectivity of any
The Presiding Officer reads the charges and specifications to the charge(s) from the incident report. The Presiding Officer asks the Respondent to respond to each charge (Responsible or Not Responsible).

- The Respondent and the Complainant are given an opportunity to give an opening statement.
- The Respondent and the Complainant may give his or her explanation of the events surrounding the charges. The members of the board then may question the students. Each student should be given the opportunity to provide the Presiding Officer with questions to ask the others involved in the case.
- The Presiding Officer in his or her discretion may limit the number of eyewitnesses that may be heard, and to require all other witnesses to submit their statements in writing. Both sides have, at this time, the right to cross-examine, by providing the Presiding Officer with questions, the witnesses and to examine any and all documents before being received into evidence. No member of the staff, faculty, or administration of Lincoln University may be called as an expert witness. However, staff, faculty and administrators may serve as character witnesses or references.
- The Respondent and the Complainant present the facts and evidence that support his or her case.
- The Respondent and the Complainant shall be given an opportunity to make a closing statement.
- The board will make its deliberations in a closed non-public session.
- The board will then render its decision with the charges against the student established by a majority decision given a “preponderance of the evidence.”
- The accused student normally will receive the decision in writing within 3-5 business days.
- There shall be one single verbatim digital recording of all hearings before a Student Conduct Board panel, excluding deliberations.
- The Student Conduct Board may accommodate concerns for the personal safety, well-being, and/or fears of confrontation of the Complainant, Respondent, and/or other witnesses during the hearing by providing separate facilities, and/or permitting participation by telephone, video conferencing, or other means as determined in the sole judgment of the Student Conduct Administrator.
- Hearings are not open to the public, except the Respondent or Complainant may be accompanied by their parents, spouse, or an advisor for support. If the student’s advisor is an attorney, special permission from the Vice President for Student Affairs or his or her designee must be obtained. The role of parents, spouses, advisors and attorneys is limited. Since conduct hearings are not a courtroom proceeding, but rather part of the University’s efforts to provide a healthy living/learning environment, attorneys and other support persons are not permitted to question witnesses, make statements or otherwise participate in the hearing process. If they fail to act in accordance with these procedures, they will be barred from the proceedings. When the student has been granted permission to have an attorney present, the University attorney will also be present.

Discipline Appeals Procedure

A student who is found responsible for violating the Code of Student Conduct may appeal the decision or the sanction(s) in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs or his or her designee within 72 hours or three (3) business days of the decision. There are only three grounds for appeal: (1) the Student Conduct Board hearing was not conducted in accordance with prescribed procedures which resulted in significant prejudice to the appellant; (2) the sanction imposed was unreasonably harsh given the violation; (3) new information, sufficient to alter a decision, should be considered. An appeal based on new information will only be considered if the new information was not brought out in the original hearing because and was not known to the person appealing at the time of original Student Conduct Board hearing.

The decision of Vice President for Student Affairs is final. Students will not be permitted to remain on campus until the appeal is decided unless the imposed sanction is less than suspension. The sanction of suspension imposed by the Discipline Board becomes effective immediately. There is no right of appeal of decisions and sanctions that result from Administrative hearings before the Student Conduct Administrator.

Finalization of Conduct Sanctions

After conclusion of the hearing and non-public deliberation, the Student Conduct Board will recommend a decision and sanction(s), if necessary, to the Student Conduct Administrator. The Student Conduct Administrator may accept, modify, or change the recommendation of the Student Conduct Board.
A student’s discipline file is part of the student’s education record under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (“FERPA”).

If a student chooses not to appeal, or fails to submit an appeal within the specified time allowed (three (3) business days after receiving the notification), then the decision of the Student Conduct Administrator stands as final.

In accordance with the Amendments to the Higher Education Act of 2000, the University may notify parents of pending discipline action for drug or alcohol violations.

Prior violations may be considered in determining appropriate sanctions.

DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAM

The Disciplinary Sanction Community Service Program is administered by the Office of Student Support Services (484-365-7290). Students assigned community service must follow the steps outlined on the DSCS webpage. Enrollment into the program is also completed online. Once a student has completed the online enrollment in the program, he/she must attend a mandatory orientation meeting in a timely manner; dates of meetings are listed on DSCS website under DSCS calendar link.

Orientations provide students with further instructions on their mandated community service activities and educational assignment. Reflection meetings sponsored by the Office of Student Support Services are held biweekly, and attendance is mandatory until community service hours are completed.

Failure to complete the mandated community service hours and activities within the prescribed timeframe will result in notification and referral to the Dean of Students for possible suspension from the University or additional disciplinary sanctions.

Violations of standards of academic conduct may result in either faculty-imposed academic sanctions or Student Code sanctions. Faculty members who feel that a grade reduction or a failing grade for an assignment, test/examination or course is a sufficient sanction need not refer cases to the Student Conduct Administrator. Such actions by a faculty member may be subject to appeal pursuant to school, college, and/or university academic grievance policies. Sanctions other than a reduced or failing grade may be imposed only following a Student Conduct hearing.

Student Non-Academic Grievance Procedure

Whenever a student has a grievance/complaint regarding a matter not related to academic affairs at Lincoln University, the following procedures shall apply when a student believes that a staff member has infringed upon the student’s rights as set forth in this policy.

The student shall first attempt resolution by seeking an appointment with the staff member in question. If, to the student, this does not seem a feasible course, or if a personal conversation with the staff member has been attempted, but a resolution satisfactory to the student’s grievance is not obtained, the student may seek resolution through a written appeal to the Director of the office or department, who will attempt to resolve the matter between the student and the staff member. If the complaint/grievance is against the Director, then the student will appeal to the Dean of Students through a written appeal.

The Dean of Students may attempt informal resolution through discussion with the student and staff member or Director, will consider the student’s appeal, and issue a written decision and remedy. Appropriate precautions should be taken to safeguard the confidentiality of the grievance proceedings, including information about the outcome.

Either party to a grievance appeal (whether staff member, Director or student) may appeal the decision of the Dean of Students to the Vice President for Student Affairs in writing within ten (10) days following notice of the dean’s decision. A written reply by the other party must be filed within ten (10) days after receipt of the appeal, and the dean’s decision shall remain pending. The Vice President for Student Affairs has discretion to determine the information and procedure that he/she will utilize in deciding each appeal. The decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs (in writing) shall be final.
RESIDENCE LIFE

The Office of Residence Life

The mission in Residence Life is to provide an educationally stimulating living environment where students explore their own development and positively contribute to a global society. To accomplish this mission, we have selected an exceptional staff of student leaders and professionals to create welcoming and respectful hall communities. Students are encouraged to take advantage of countless opportunities we offer in the halls to learn more about themselves, others, and the world in which they live.

Fire/Emergency Procedures

Before a Fire
• Know the location of all fire alarm pull stations in the building and how to activate them.
• Know the location of all portable fire extinguishers and how to use them.
• Know the location of alternate means of exit.

Upon Discovering a Fire
• Sound the internal fire alarm immediately to alert all residents.
• Notify Public Safety at 484-365-7211.
• Shut all doors and windows in the immediate vicinity of the fire.
• If the fire is small, use fire extinguishers.
• Exit by the stairway from your area. DO NOT use elevators.
• Do not run.
• Have someone meet fire authorities and direct them to the proper floor and room.

Upon Hearing the Fire Alarm
When you have been alerted by the alarm, verbal warnings, or have a sensation of smoke or fire:
• Keep low to the floor if there is smoke in the room.
• Feel the metal doorknob before opening any doors. If the knob is hot, do not open the door. If it is not, brace yourself against the door, open it slightly. If heat or heavy smoke is present, close the door and stay in the room.
• Do not panic.
• Seal cracks around the door using sheets, pieces of clothing or whatever is handy, if you cannot leave the room.
To let out smoke and bring in fresh air, open windows a few inches at the top and bottom. Then hang an object out the window to attract the fire department or call Public Safety and report that you are trapped. Be sure to give room number, location and extension number.
• If you are able to leave the room:
• Put on your shoes and coat. Use a wet towel (if possible) to cover your face. Close all doors as you exit. Do not lock doors. Go to the designated stairway. DO NOT use an elevator. If the designated exit is blocked by fire, heat, or smoke, go to another exit. If you enter a stairway and find it blocked below you, either go to a higher floor or find a window and signal for help.
• Always try to remain calm.

The residence hall councils are used as a venue for planning, developing, and coordinating hall programs and campus wide programs. They provide a variety of activities and programs. Emphasis is placed on educational, cultural, social, and recreational programs. The councils are governed by an elected slate of officers which includes president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, king or queen, Student Government Association representatives, and fire marshals.

The inspection will occur on a monthly basis, and during inspections, the resident may or may not be present.

Room Search

It is the responsibility of the Dean of Students and Director of Residence Life and/or the Residence Hall staff to periodically inspect all rooms in the residence halls for damage, fire and health hazards. Inspections may occur at any time and students will be assessed for room damage. Where two or more students occupy the same room, and individual responsibility for damage or loss in the room cannot be ascertained, the cost of damage or loss will be divided and assessed equally among the residents of the room. Should authorized personnel observe unapproved appliances or objects in the room or notice objects attached to facilities in an unapproved manner, the University reserves the right to have the items removed.

If an emergency should arise after office hours, notify your RHC or your RA.

Physical Plant
From time to time, the Office of Residence Life Office may need to refer broken items to the Physical Plant for repair. Currently, the Physical Plant handles all electrical, air conditioning, building, water plant, and grounds issues. Students should be aware that the Physical Plant handles the maintenance of the University, and at times it may take up to forty-eight hours (48) or more for them to respond to a referral. Students should not attempt to call Physical Plant directly. For tracking and referral purposes, all calls should go through the Office of Residence Life, via the RHCS and RAs for any authorization to be given for work done by the Physical Plant. The Physical Plant will be allowed to enter the students’ room to make repairs even if the student is not present.

Residence Hall Key Policy
It is mandatory for all university to students to carry their Lion Card and residence hall keys at all times. In the event that you misplace or lose your residence hall keys, please notify your Resident Advisor, Resident Hall Coordinator, or the Office of Residence Life immediately.

Major infractions as well as repeated minor infractions, will be handled by the Dean of Students as outlined in the University’s Code of Student Conduct.

A complete description of Residence Life’s community standards, policies and procedures can be found in the Student’s Guide to Residential Living on the Student Affairs webpage. Prohibited Behavior

The following behavior is strictly prohibited in residence halls: Loud music, hanging out and yelling in hallways or hallway windows, horse play, water fights, tampering with life safety equipment (fire extinguishers, sprinklers, fire alarms, etc.). Terms and Conditions of Housing Contract

Housing at Lincoln University is available to all students regardless of race, color, religion or national origin. The housing contract and assignment are subject to the terms and conditions stated in the student handbook and may be waived only by the Director of Residence Life or a designated representative.

1. In order to reside on campus, the resident is required to be a full-time student registered for twelve credits.
2. The right of occupancy is restricted to the resident of an assigned space only. Students who are granted a room must occupy it in person. Under no condition may a student transfer his/her right to occupy a residence hall room to anyone else.
3. Room fees for a term cover residence not earlier than the official check in date for the Academic Year under the terms and conditions of the Insurance Policy. Coverage begins on the official check-in date for the academic year and not before.
4. The residence halls will be closed during official University vacations, recess periods and between semesters (i.e. Thanksgiving, Christmas, summer, etc.).
5. Students are responsible for the cleanliness and proper care of their room and its furnishings. Students must use the premises, personal property, and furnishings in a careful and proper manner. At the expiration of the contract period, the student must leave the room in good repair and condition. Assigned occupants of each room are jointly financially responsible for keeping the room and its contents in good order and free from damage by themselves or others. Damages to public/common areas will be prorated to residents of a hall or a specific area of a hall. Damages to public/common areas of a residence hall, graffiti and defacing property will result in a community fine when the guilty party is not identified. If the guilty party is identified, an individual fine will be assessed. Cleaning equipment can be provided if necessary or available. At checkout time, residents are responsible for removing all personal property, waste and debris and for leaving their rooms in a reasonable clean condition. The University is not liable for any personal property left behind. Should extra cleaning by housekeeping personnel be required because of poor housekeeping by residents, a maid service charge can be assessed.

6. Students must check out properly in person within twenty-four hours upon official withdrawal from the University. To check out properly, students must vacate their room, remove all personal property, surrender a room clearance and condition form, room key(s), and student ID to the Office of Residence Life or residence staff in the hall where you reside. Students must also return all University property to the proper department. Those who do not follow the checkout procedure will be fined, including failure to turn in room keys at check out. This check out process also applies to the end of Final Examinations’ week for each fall semester. Please take all valuables home during this time.

7. The University is not liable for loss of or damage to personal property or for the failure or interruption of utilities and/or sanitary drainage. However, the University is liable for negligence of authorized agents, employees, and representatives of Lincoln University. Each student must purchase personal property insurance before entering Lincoln University to cover personal property.

8. The University does not have storage areas for students’ personal property. If a student has the need for storage he/she must find a storage area on his/her own.

9. The University reserves the right to have agents and representatives specifically authorized by the President of the University to enter the housing space at any time for inspection, health and safety concerns, maintenance and repair of living quarters and contents. Inspections are conducted to administer the terms of the housing contract or other University regulations, consistent with the student’s constitutional right to be free of unreasonable search and seizure. Specific authority is normally relegated to the Office of Public Safety and the Vice President of Student Affairs. Employees of the University have the right to enter housing space during reasonable hours to perform necessary maintenance and janitorial services as well, even if a student is not present. If there is a reason to suspect a resident is using controlled substances, the University reserves the right to have officials search the room and confiscate the substances. Persons found to be trafficking illegal substances will be subject to disciplinary actions up to expulsion.

10. The University reserves the right to change or cancel assignments in the interest of order, health, discipline, reasons of economy, when vacancies occur, or for any other urgent reasons.

11. The University reserves the right to change the rates to conform to economic conditions and the rates are subject to change by the Trustees of the University.

12. The possession, carrying or use of firearms (including pistols, rifles, pellet guns, bb guns, paintball guns, stunguns, tasers, shotguns or ammunition), handbillies, razors, switch blades and other dangerous knives, explosives or other dangerous weapons or chemicals is prohibited in and on all University property, except by authorized law officers and other persons specifically authorized by the University. University regulations restrict the use and possession, use, or sale of all drugs and alcoholic beverages by any students. Students will be subject to disciplinary action if found in violation of the alcohol policy.

Room Visitation Program/Sign-in Policy

Co-educational Inter-visitation Hours: All students are governed and must abide by a uniform inter-visitation policy. Students of the opposite sex may visit each other in their facilities or rooms between the following times:
Sunday - Thursday from noon to 11 p.m.
Friday - Saturday from noon to 2 a.m.

The inter-visitation policy is not an attempt to monitor your personal business, but is indicative of the University’s concern for the safety and security of all residents. In order to upgrade the security of all residents, the University has a sign-in policy effective in all residence halls. The sign-in procedure is as follows:

- All visitors must enter the residence hall through the front doors only. All other doors are emergency exits only. The use of any other means of entry is considered trespassing and illegal. Sign-in hours begin daily at 6 p.m. in all appropriate residence halls and end at the aforementioned applicable day and times.
- There will be a sign-in desk manned and all student visitors must present and leave validated ID cards. Keys are not accepted as a form of ID and will not be used for the sake of visiting. All non-students who are visiting a residence hall must leave valid identification cards (military ID, driver’s license, employment card) at Public Safety Office to receive a “guest pass.” The host student must meet his/her guest and have him/her sign in at the lobby desk and indicate the time. No one will be allowed to visit the residence hall unless there is a host student present to receive that person. Residents are held responsible for the conduct of their guests.
- All residents have the right to privacy; therefore, if the presence of a guest is an inconvenience or is objectionable to a roommate, the guest must leave the room. Cohabitation of any kind is prohibited in the residence halls at any time.
- When possible, announcements will be made 15 minutes and five minutes prior to the end of visitation hours by authorized personnel on duty at the desk. However, the visitor is responsible for keeping track of the time and leaving at the appropriate hour. All students must familiarize themselves with the inter-visitation policy and sign-in procedures. Violation of this policy and procedure will result in sanction and disciplinary actions, including suspension.

Quiet Hours

In order to enhance the opportunity for study time, the residence halls have quiet hours posted from 8 p.m. to 11 a.m. Courtesy hours are 24 hours a day. During quiet hours, room doors should be closed and residents are urged to refrain from making loud noises, playing excessively loud music, and being generally disruptive. Residents and guests are prohibited from congregating in hallways and stairwells. Violators of the quiet-hour policy are subject to a fine and disciplinary action.

Occupancy During Holiday

During Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring Break and for periods during the summer, the residence halls are closed. Prior to the beginning of these periods the Office of Residence Life will set a time and date when the building must be vacated.

During these periods, the University is not responsible for pick up or delivery. The nearest airports are the Philadelphia International Airport, Philadelphia, and Thurgood Marshall/ BWI Airport, Baltimore, Maryland. The nearest train stations are Wilmington, Delaware and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Transportation may be provided by contacting the Delaware Shuttle. The shuttle will transport to and from the train station and airport door-to-door 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. For reservations call 800-648-LIMO.

Abandoned Property

The University assumes no responsibility for any property such as clothing, books, clocks, computers, radios, or toiletry articles left in residence hall rooms by students at check out. If contact cannot be made with the owner or his/her family within one week, or if the owner is unknown or unprepared to take possession of the property, the abandoned items will be discarded.

Commandments of Community Living

- If you borrow it, return it.
- If you drop it, pick it up.
- If you spill it, wipe it up.
- If you finished with it, put it away.
- If you break it, fix it.
- If you can’t fix it, ask for assistance.
- If it doesn’t belong to you, leave it alone.
- If you don’t like it done to you, don’t do it to others.

Policy Regarding Pregnant Students Residing in the Residence Halls

Resident students who become pregnant should notify the Director of Residence Life within her first trimester. The student will be permitted on-campus housing privileges until the end of her second trimester, provided she provides the Director with the following information:

1. A statement from the student’s attending physician indicating the estimated date of birth of the child.
2. A statement from the student’s attending physician attesting to the health of the mother and fetus.
3. A statement from the student’s attending physician indicating that neither the health of the mother nor the fetus will be jeopardized by participation in normal University activities.
4. A notarized waiver releasing Lincoln University from any responsibility or liability for the health of the mother, fetus, or the outcome of the pregnancy.
5. This medical information submitted to the Director will be shared with and maintained by the Student Health Center; however, prenatal care will not be provided by the institution. Further, the pregnant student will be required to obtain adequate prenatal care from a local attending physician and to inform the Director of that physician’s name and location.
Under no circumstances will a student be permitted to reside in the residence hall with the child. Lincoln University assumes no responsibility or liability for the health of the mother, fetus, or the outcome of the pregnancy.
STUDENT LIFE AND DEVELOPMENT

The Office of Student Life and Development currently consists of several components: student activities & events, student recreation, student organizations, and student leader training and development. The Lair is the recreational facility located in the Student Union Building. Students who visit this facility are given the opportunity to engage in the variety of games and tournaments. Students may also gather in this area to enjoy music, movies, and more. The Lair provides an exceptional area for students to assemble outside of the Residence Hall during the evening.

In an effort to promote leadership development, the Office of Student Life and Development hosts two leadership conferences each academic year. The Organizational Leadership Conference is required for Executive Board members of chartered University organizations and the Emerging Leaders Conference is open to all students seeking leadership positions, but mandatory for applicants for Student Leader Ambassador, Student Activities Assistant, Mister and Miss Lincoln University, and Student Government Association Executive Board position, for the following academic year. Greek & Social Organizations

Statement of Relationship Between Lincoln University and Nationally Chartered Greek & Social Fellowship Organizations (information is subject to change, at which time notification will be provided to those impacted.) Lincoln University recognizes six national fraternities and four national sororities. In addition, the University recognizes two (2) social fellowships and one (1) honorary band fraternity and one (1) honorary band sorority. No organization will be permitted to proceed with any intake-related activities without prior approval through the Office of Student Life and Development.

Overview

The administration of Lincoln University has determined that fraternities, sororities, and social fellowships at Lincoln University are a positive asset to campus life. To this end, it is the University’s intent to define and completely enhance the Greek and Social Fellowship component of University policy.
Terms of Recognition

Recognition is the formal process by which Lincoln University grants a fraternity, sorority or social fellowship the right to function on the campus, induct undergraduate members through established intake procedures, use campus facilities and services, and identify its chapter with the University. Organizations designated under this policy meet the following criteria:

- They are entitled to same sex membership under provisions set by Section 86.14 of the regulations set by Title IX of the U.S. Education Act Amendment of 1972. They will work in conjunction with the Student Government Association and will retain membership in the Student Senate and on the President’s Council (provided they complete all requirements to be active organizations).
- Chapters are legal corporations outside the boundaries of Lincoln University. In all cases, undergraduate chapters, graduate chapters, regional, and international chapters are incorporated separately from Lincoln University.

In order for a fraternity, sorority or social fellowship to be recognized by Lincoln University, the organization must:

- Demonstrate sound financial accountability.
- Demonstrate strong commitment to the mission and purpose of Lincoln University, and the surrounding community, through involvement in school and communal programming.
- Maintain the number of members as stipulated by the organization’s national office. If permission is given by the organization’s national or regional office to function without the established number, the University may also permit the chapter to function after receiving written permission from the appropriate organizational official. All members should be in good academic and financial standing.
- Submit a list of officers and members at the beginning of each semester; each active member must be registered as a full-time student of the University.
- Secure a clearly identified graduate chapter/campus advisor, and all contact information must be on file in the Office of Student Life and Development.

Strolling and Party Walking at University Functions

As Greek and Social Fellowship members do not make up the majority of the student population, it is imperative that all students are able to enjoy themselves at parties and such functions. Party walking and strolling is allowed in the following context:

- Greek and Social Fellowship organizations are restricted to strolling around the perimeter of all parties.
- They should form only one line while strolling.
- Organizations cannot stroll through the crowd.
- For larger parties such as Pump Handle, Homecoming and Spring Fling, organizations must be mindful of the space when strolling/party-walking. No students will be required to relocate due to organizations strolling/party-walking.

Stages of Recognition

Full Recognition is accorded to chapters which are in full compliance with all of the policies governing Greek and Social Fellowship organizations on the campus of Lincoln University. Fully recognized chapters are entitled to all the rights, privileges, obligations, and resources available to student organizations at Lincoln University.

Inactive Recognition is accorded to organizations that have failed to retain the minimum number of members to maintain chapter activity. This is also accorded to a chapter that has failed to maintain the campus minimum grade point average as a whole.

Probationary Recognition is accorded to organizations that have failed to meet specific requirements for full recognition, which include, but are not limited to, academic performance, involvement in community service projects, campus leadership, violation of the University substance abuse or alcohol policy, and inappropriate conduct. A number of these violations are itemized in Lincoln University Student Handbook. The Office of the Dean of Students, in consultation with the Office Student Life and Development, sets probation and its conditions. At the end of the probationary period, an organization must demonstrate that the conditions were fulfilled, and that steps have been taken to ensure that the violation is not repeated. If additional violations occur during the probation period, the chapter may be subject to suspension or various other sanctions.

Interim Suspension is the removal of all rights and privileges pending an investigation of alleged illegal activities. During the interim suspension, all scheduled and future activities will be cancelled. Any chapter placed on interim suspension will receive written documentation at the completion of the University’s investigation, and informed at that time what the status of the chapter is. Any chapter failing to adhere to the guidelines of an interim suspension may be subject to a chapter suspension or expulsion from the University.

Suspension is the removal of all rights and privileges, obligations, and University resources available to student organizations at Lincoln University. Suspended chapters may not participate in the Greek and Social Fellowship Council or its programs/activities. The period of suspension may vary according to the policies and guidelines outlined in this document. Lincoln University reserves the right to restrict or suspend the activities of any individual member and/or chapter for the following reasons:

- Hazing of prospective members and new members;
- Violation of the regulations in this statement of policy;
- Violation of other University regulations stated in the Code of Student Conduct;
- Failure to adhere to the intake procedures stipulated by the University or national parent group.
- Failure to participate in required community/campus service events as stipulated by the Office of Student Life and Development.

All levels of recognition, aside from Full Recognition, may be also be assessed by request of the National organization (i.e. regional or national requests).

The Office of Student Life and Development establishes the University Policy under which fraternities, sororities, and social fellowships operate. The standards of conduct are integral to the maintenance of University recognition and associated privileges. It is mandatory that all campus chapters abide by Lincoln University regulations as listed in Lincoln University Student Handbook. The Office of Student Life and Development, working closely with chapter advisors and chapter presidents, will ensure that accepted standards of conduct are maintained.

It is expected that all campus chapters will encourage their members, visiting affiliates, and chapter graduates to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with Lincoln University standards and guidelines. Any organization that fails to comply with these statements will result in the suspension of the chapter.

Therefore, in an attempt to promote a fraternal environment, improve community relations, and enhance the welfare of Lincoln University students both on and off campus, standards and guidelines have been developed with which all fraternal organizations, their alumni, alumnae and Lincoln University are expected to comply.

Strictly Prohibited Activities

Hazing
Lincoln University reminds its student organizations, fraternities, sororities and social fellowships of its clear policy against any physical or mental abuse (hazing) of its aspirants or members. Lincoln University recognizes that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania forbids hazing activities as outlined in the 24 Pardon’s Pennsylvania Consolidated Statute 5352. Violation of any of the provisions set forth in Statute 5352 constitutes a criminal act and may subject the individual, organization, fraternity, or sorority to criminal fines or penalties.

As defined in Statute 5352, “hazing” is any action or situation which recklessly or intentionally endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student or which willfully destroys or removes public or private property for the purpose of initiation or admission into or affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in, and organization operation under the sanction of or recognized as an organization by an institution of higher education. The term shall include, but not be limited to, brutality of a physical nature, such as whipping, beating, branding, forced calisthenics, exposure to the elements, forced consumption of any food, liquor, drug or other substance abuse, or any other forced physical activity which could adversely affect the physical health and safety of the individual. It includes any activity which would subject the individual to extreme mental stress, such as sleep deprivation, forced exclusion from social contact, forced conduct which could result in extreme embarrassment, or any other forced activity which could adversely affect the mental health or dignity of the individual, or any willful destruction or removal of public or private property. For purposes of this definition, any activity as described in this definition upon which the initiation or admission into or affiliation with or continued membership in an organization is directly or indirectly conditioned is presumed to be “forced” activity, and the willingness of an individual to participate is such activity notwithstanding.

Consequently, in accordance with the above policy of the University and Pennsylvania law, all student organizations, fraternities, sororities, social fellowships, and their members are forbidden from arranging and/or participating in any hazing activities, whether on or off campus. Hazing activities include, but are not limited to, those activities listed above and the following activities: physical abuse such as hitting, paddling, slapping, kicking, choking, scratching, shipping, branding, electric shocking, placing of a harmful substance on the body and exposing persons to extreme conditions such as exhaustive physical activities (e.g. jogging, weight lifting, and aerobic exercise); and verbal abuse including shouting, screaming and the use of derogatory, profane or obscene language; and mental abuse including placing individuals in situations that could lead to mental confusion, emotional stress or cardiac arrest.

Members or Aspirants commit hazing if they:

1. Engage in hazing - willingly or unwillingly.
2. Solicit, encourage, aid, or attempt to aid another who engages in hazing.

3. Intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly permit hazing to occur; have firsthand knowledge of the planning of a specific hazing incident involving a student of Lincoln University; have firsthand knowledge that a specific hazing incident has occurred; and for knowingly fail to report this knowledge in writing to the appropriate University official.

Under State law and University policies, if any of the above activities occur, it is considered hazing, regardless of the consent or cooperation of the recipient. Peer pressure is a significant part of most hazing incidents and while a person may give verbal consent, circumstances surrounding the situation typically do not provide an opportunity for the person to choose freely. Hazing is against the law and “tradition” is not a valid defense.

Hazing is considered a major violation of University policies, rules, and regulations and may result in a student’s removal from the University for a period of time. Official sanctions with regard to individual students could include disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. However, policies do not prescribe a specific sanction for a violation of the hazing policy. Each case is reviewed based on the facts involved in each specific incident. University sanctions may be imposed in addition to or regardless of any penalty imposed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Incidents of hazing should be reported in writing to the Office of Student Life and Development or the Dean of Students. Students who report hazing are not penalized.

Disciplinary Sanctions for Misconduct

A student/student organization may be found in violation of hazing if the organization condones or encourages hazing or if an officer or combination of members, pledges, or alumni of the organization commits or assists in the commission of hazing. Possible sanctions against the organization include probation, suspension or expulsion. Disciplinary sanctions will be administered according to Lincoln University policy.

Pre-initiation

1. Secret probation is defined as placing any student on probation or requiring students to perform duties or activities and/or personal services either officially or by individual members of an organization.

2. Pre-Initiation Activities are activities or interactions that occur between aspirants and members of organizations, and it is strictly prohibited at Lincoln University. Pre- Initiation is defined as the involvement of members of an organization with individuals interested in joining the organization as illegitimate members or illegal or unauthorized activities prior to approved initiation activities. Pre-initiation also includes aspirants organizing themselves in any way prior to the approved initiation schedule of activities.

Aspirants are prohibited from:

1. Performing tasks or favors for members;

2. Learning or being tested on any organizational material unless sanctioned by and under the direction of the national organization;

3. Suffering any physical or verbal abuse, psychological humiliation or intimidation, or financial exploitation, or otherwise engaging in any organized activity connected with consideration for membership in the organization.

Chapters of organizations recognized by Lincoln University found to be involved in pre-pledging activities are subject to sanctions up to permanent suspension of the organization from all activities on campus. Individual members found to be pre-initiating are subject to further sanctions, in accordance with those listed in Lincoln University Student Handbook, which includes but is not limited to, suspension or expulsion from the University.

Organizational Auxiliaries

No auxiliaries are recognized by Lincoln University in any form, including any auxiliary that is recognized by a national organization. Any individuals found to be in violation of this policy are subject to sanctions including exclusion from membership in a nationally chartered organization. Organizational auxiliaries are defined as male or female groups that exist to assist in the provision of programming or membership intake activities by a specific fraternity, sorority, or social fellowship. Initiation into these groups is generally characterized by physical abuse, psychological humiliation and...
trauma, financial, and sometimes sexual exploitation.

Sanctions for the organizations and individuals may include but are not limited to: fines, probation, and suspension, pending the outcome of the investigation.

In the event of a student hospitalization, Health Services will make every attempt to contact the student to ensure that everything is going smoothly and provide assistance to the student, if necessary. In all instances, a student or employee incident form should be completed for the Health Services file. Students are required to sign a waiver allowing Health Services to provide information to an individual(s) of the student’s designation in the event of an emergency. An emergency is an unexpected serious occurrence or situation which requires prompt action. Student Health Insurance

As health insurance coverage is mandatory, a student accident and sickness policy has been designed for Lincoln University students. Therefore, in order to have the insurance fee removed from their student account, students must verify personal coverage by returning the Health Insurance Notification form to the Division of Student Affairs before the beginning of each school year. Failure to provide proof of personal coverage will result in your being charged the student insurance fee. This information must be presented every year the student attends the University.

HIV/AIDS Policy

The University does not discriminate against individuals who are HIV-positive or have AIDS. They are to be treated with respect and dignity and are not to be denied any university services due to them on the basis of their HIV or AIDS status. This also includes admission to the University.

Infection by the Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) has led to a worldwide pandemic. Communities involved in higher education are aware of this fact and are responding effectively to the epidemic of HIV infection. This awareness and consequent response comes from the realization that students leaving home for college to reside in a campus environment may feel a new sense of independence, self-determination, and strong peer pressure to adopt certain behaviors. Experimentation with sex and/or drugs may put college students at a greater risk of infection in general, including HIV.

For some students, an uncertain sense of identity and self-esteem can further complicate rational decision-making. Besides, young adults often feel invincible and therefore tend to deny personal risk until it is too late. The prolonged incubation period between infection and the onset of AIDS may also promote the relative invisibility of the infection and lead people to believe that HIV/AIDS is not a problem in their campus.

There are no restrictions which exclude students from residential housing who are HIV-positive or who have AIDS as protection for others, since there is no medical or legal justification to indicate that they can transmit the virus through casual contact.

The HIV virus is transmitted by certain behaviors, primarily intimate sexual contact (genital, oral, anal) and the sharing of needles contaminated with blood. Protection against exposure requires education of all students and employees. The Residence Life staff works in cooperation with the Office of Health Services to ensure that education is an ongoing part of residence life. The Residence Life staff is given information regarding campus and community resources that are available for students on HIV infection and AIDS.

HIV infected individuals may have understandable concerns regarding confidentiality and privacy in connection with medical documentation and other information about their condition. Officials who have access to such information are required to maintain the confidentiality of that information. Those given responsibility for making and implementing personnel management decisions involving individuals with AIDS or HIV should strictly observe applicable privacy and confidentiality requirements. No information regarding an individual’s health record may be released without their written consent and such records should be made available only to officials who have a need to know for appropriate management purposes.

The preceding guidelines are subject to change in accordance with any changes or new developments in the three governing factors—medical information, applicable federal and/or state laws and students’ rights to privacy.

How Transmitted

There is no evidence that HIV can be transmitted by casual contact. People with HIV present no danger to those with whom they attend class, share bathrooms, eat, work, or sit. Objects touched or handled by people with AIDS are not “contaminated;” the only exceptions are needles which might be shared. An object or surface may be disinfected with a 1:10 dilution of household bleach. HIV is transmitted by Intimate (sexual) contact and by exposure to contaminated blood. Some sexual activities are more dangerous than others. Anal intercourse is exceptionally risky whether recipient is male or female. The risk of oral genital sex on a male seems much lower and oral sex is less risky if stopped before ejaculation. Oral sex on a female may be more risky during menstruation. No evidence is shown that kissing or other contact with saliva has caused AIDS. If there is any risk it would come from prolonged, deep or rough kissing which may cause damage to the tissues of the lips or mouth.

Preventative AIDS: Low-Risk Behavior

- Make careful choices about sexual activity; negotiate for safe sexual practices; maintain long-term mutually monogamous relationships, use condoms with spermicides.
- Do not use IV drugs or other injectable drugs with a shared needle.
- Watch out for all drugs that may impair judgement/decision making.
- Alcohol may impair your judgment and it also suppresses the immune system.
- Avoid use of inhaled recreational drugs such as “Poppers.”
- Carefully avoid any injury to body tissues during sex.
- Positive Steps You Can Take to Promote Good Health
  - Get adequate rest.
  - Reduce stress to manageable levels.
  - Maintain good nutrition/increase intake of water.
  - Exercise regularly.
  - Make conscientious decisions about your personal behavior.

Immunizations and Physical Examination Policy

Policy

Consistent with recommendations by the American College Health Association, the Centers for Disease Control and the Pennsylvania State Department of Health, Lincoln University implemented a mandatory matriculation Immunization and a pre-admission physical examination requirement in September 1999. Vaccine-preventable diseases are occurring at increasing rates nationwide. Much of this has been among the young college-age population. Consequently, Lincoln University adopted this matriculation policy to reduce future outbreaks and to help eradicate preventable diseases.

Requirements

All incoming freshman, readmit, international and transfer students are required to provide proof of immunization for tuberculosis (mantoux or PPD), tetanus/diphtheria/pertussis (Tdap/dtap) 2 dates of measles, mumps, rubella (MMR), meningitis (Menactra), and 2 dates of varicella (chickenpox). If you do not have 2 dates for MMR & Varicella you must have positive blood titer report on file.

If you have a positive tuberculosis test you MUST have a negative chest x-ray report on file.

An immunization and physical examination form is mailed to all new students and must be completed and returned to the Health Services prior to the student’s registration for the following semester. All students can obtain this form from the Health Services Office or on the health services website.

A physical examination may be scheduled with the health service physician for a fee of $75.00

Some vaccinations are available at the health services department for a fee of $130.00 Varivax (each), TB Tuberculosis Vaccine $30, Tetanus $40, MMR $100 (each), Meningitis $200, Hep A & B TwinRx $80 per injection, $240 total can be given.

Students who are not in compliance with this requirement are unable to register for housing or classes for the semester. A hold is placed on their account only to be lifted by health services upon receipt of the required information.

Exemptions

An individual who objects to immunization upon the grounds that they conflict with his/her bonafide religious beliefs and practices may not be required to present a physician’s certificate of immunization in order to register for classes. A religious exemption may be obtained by submitting the request to the Director of Health Services. This exemption will not apply in case of emergency or disease epidemic which is declared by the Department of health or the departments designate. Purpose

The Infection Control Program helps to reduce the University community’s exposure to blood-borne pathogens, such as HBV (Hepatitis B) and HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus). Exercise caution when using lavatories, science laboratories, or anywhere there is a potential to share body fluids. The infection control program is mandated by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).

Hepatitis B (Hep B)

Hepatitis B infection is unpredictable, may incapacitate a person for weeks or months and can lead to complications, but most people recover. It is reported that 5-10% of people who are infected become chronic carriers, capable of spreading the disease to others for an indefinite period of time. This group usually has no symptoms but has the greatest potential for developing long-term complications, such as chronic active hepatitis, chronic persistent hepatitis, cirrhosis and primary cancer of the liver. An estimated 4,000 people in the United States die from Hepatitis B related to cirrhosis every year.

ACHA recommends that all colleges and universities REQUIRE vaccination for ALL students with special focus on high-risk groups. Hep B is often a “silent” disease on campuses and is primarily a STD (sexually transmitted disease).

High-Risk Groups – Vaccination Recommended

- Persons with occupational risk
- Sexually active homosexual and bisexual men
- Sexually active heterosexual men and women
- Persons’ household contacts and sex partners of Hep B carriers
- Students from disease – endemic areas worldwide
- Adoptee’s from countries where HBV infection is endemic
- International travelers
- Injecting drug users
- Hemodialysis patients
- Recipients of certain blood products
- Inmates of long-term correctional facilities.

Special Populations Affected

1. African Americans: high risk of acquiring Hep B infection at early age.
2. Latin Americans
3. Women: among 15-19 year old adolescents, women have higher rates of Hep B than men.
4. Asians, Africans, Alaskans, Pacific Islanders and others from high endemicity areas.

How Hepatitis B is Transmitted Among High-Risk College Students

Hep B is transmitted among:

1. Sexually active students who -
   - Have more than 1 partner in 6 months
   - Have recently acquired a sexually transmitted disease
   - Engage in unprotected sex
   - Engage in sex for money
2. Students who share needles for injecting drugs, steroids as well
3. Students who are engaged in health care or health care training - should be vaccinated early in training- vaccination series should be prerequisite to contact with patients.
4. Students who travel abroad to areas of high endemicity for Hep B such as Africa, Alaska, Brazil, northern provinces of Canada, Pacific Islands, Southeast Asia or Southern Greenland including:
   - Students who intend to spend 6 months or more in those areas while in close contact with the local population; and
   - Short term travelers who work in settings in which they will have blood exposure or sexual contact with residents.
5. International students from highly endemic areas as Southeast Asia and Africa have a significant likelihood of being infected with Hep B in infancy or childhood. More than 7% of population are Hep B carriers.
6. Students born in the United States to parents from areas of high endemicity.
7. Students who receive blood products on a chronic basis.
8. Students from populations with high endemicity of HBV infection.
9. Students who have household or sexual contacts of persons with chronic HBV infection (carriers).
10. Clients and staff of institutions for the developmentally disabled

- Associated with blood exposure
- Bites
- Contact with skin lesions
- Other infective secretions

11. Sex partners of persons with acute HBV infection

Other Forms of Hepatitis

- Hepatitis A: Formerly called infectious, spread fecal-oral route when improper personal hygiene methods are used or by food. Seldom causes illness.
- Hepatitis C: Called Non A/Non B-like Hepatitis B, C may be spread through contact with contaminated blood or through household or sexual contact with an infected person.

Responsibilities of Chronic Carriers

Hepatitis B carriers have special responsibilities toward others. If you have had Hepatitis B and/or testing shows that you are a carrier, you can help prevent spreading the disease by following these guidelines:

1. Discuss your carrier status and your responsibility to your friends, family, and other household members with your physician.
2. Inform dentists, doctors, nurses, lab technicians and others who may draw blood or perform surgical procedures so that they can take the appropriate precautions.
3. Avoid sharing personal items, such as razor blades, scissors, nail files, needles, toothbrushes, and eating utensils, which may have come in contact with your blood or other body fluids.
4. NEVER donate blood.
5. Carefully cover cuts or weeping sores.
6. Dispose of used personal items, such as tissues, menstrual pads and tampons in a closed paper bag.

Government Association. Interviews with the candidates shall be held during the fourth week of February before the campaign begins in order to examine the petition. At the time the signatures shall be checked to see that they were signed in ink, and that each petition does not contain any duplication of signatures. All candidates must adhere to the rules and regulations of campaigning set by the elections committee

Those failing to complete the application process or being successful in being waived by the student senate shall not be permitted to run for an executive position for the student government association.
Official Student Government Association ballots must be printed for each election by the Office of Student Life and Development. They are to be used by student voters on the day when an election is to be held on campus.
This ballot must contain the office and name of the candidate seeking election for that office. Each ballot must be marked with a clear X.
Any other type of mark put on the ballot indicating the voter’s selection for a specific office will negate the ballot.
Each student will be issued one ballot at the poll when he/she shows a current validated ID card of Lincoln University.
If the vote is “no,” a committee formed by the Senate will carry out the responsibilities of the officers until another election takes place.
The Office of Student Life and Development must also print absentee ballots for those qualified students who are not on campus at the time of elections.
All students can only have absentee ballots the week before and during elections.
