Lincoln University Monday's Man

Mr. Warren Johnson (Ext 8080) is one of the busiest men on LU's campus. As the Director of the Bursar's Office, his department manages the billing of student accounts along with payment plans. It is not surprising that he can handle so much, so well. He's a retired Military Officer whom enjoys reading and spending time with family and friends.

He's a former soccer, baseball, cross country and football athlete. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of LU!!

IRIS | Inclement Weather

As winter weather approaches, now is the time to sign up for the Immediate Response Information System (IRIS). It's the quickest way to keep informed when Lincoln University will begin its workday with a delayed start or close early due to inclement weather (i.e., snow, ice, ice showers, etc.). In the event of a campus emergency, our public safety personnel will use IRIS. It will be used for the dissemination of information via phone call, text or email. In order to be included in the database of contacts, you will need to register with the system. Please go to the link below and register your cell phone for text message or phone call alerts and/or your e-mail address for e-mail alerts. You may enter up to three phone numbers and two e-mail addresses.

Submit Your 2018-2019 FAFSA Now!

As of October 1, the 2018-2019 FAFSA opened for submission. A completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) starts a student's awarding process for the next academic year. Students will need to have FSA IDs and 2016 tax information to complete the application. The IRS Data Retrieval Tool is strongly encouraged to make income reporting easier and more accurate. The Office of Financial Aid is encouraging faculty and staff to assist in spreading the word to students to ensure they are prepared financially for next year. For more information regarding the 2018-2019 FAFSA, please contact the Office of Financial Aid at financialaid@lincoln.edu.
