Today: National Day of Service and Remembrance
The National Day of Service and Remembrance promotes community service on 9/11 as an annual and forward-looking tribute to the 9/11 victims, survivors, and those who rose up in service in response to the attacks. Please consider participating in a community service activity on this day of remembrance and throughout the semester. Visit Lincoln Give Pulse for community service opportunities.

Today: Panel Discussion
The Office of Career Development is sponsoring a panel discussion "African Americans in Law Enforcement" from 12:30 to 2 pm today in the SUB MPR. Members from local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies will share their stories, challenges they encountered along the way, and provide advice to students interested in specialized areas of law enforcement. This is an interactive session where students will have an opportunity to pose questions to the panel.
