Sexual Violence Prevention and Education Program
During February’s Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month (TDVAM), national, state and local domestic violence and sexual assault organizations are inviting people to “Huddle Up for Healthy Relationships” and work together to prevent dating abuse. We want you to join us in this campaign, too, and celebrate healthy relationships with us! February 11-15 is National Respect Week. The Sexual Violence Prevention and Education Program will engage the Lincoln University’s campus this week, in person and through social media.
