Community Service Update
The January 29th community service update is attached. Orange highlights have met the requirement. IDs roll over three times so check each section for your hours if you have more hours than fit in the first section. If you have submitted hours that you do not see, please email imujahid@lincoln.edu. The deadline to submit hours for membership intake has passed. We will still collect hours for those who would like them to be tracked, however hours may no longer be submitted for membership intake purposes.
